

Where to Find Sun Fire™ V20z and Sun Fire V40z Servers Documentation

Web Site for Current Documentation

For the most current version of the documentation, go to this web site:

http://www.sun.com/products-n-solutions/hardware/docs/Servers/Workgroup_Servers/Sun_Fire_V20z/index.html

Note – The web site might contain more current information than the Documentation and Support Files CD and printed documentation. For critical updates to product information, see the version of the document on the web site. To verify whether a document on the web site is more recent than the document that you have, refer to the final two digits (the dash-roll) of the part number for that document.

Translated versions of some of the documentation are available in French, Simplified and Traditional Chinese, Japanese, and Korean.
