3. Bundled Application

Product bundling is becoming increasingly popular in retail banking. OBDX now provides applicants with the opportunity to create a bundle of multiple products and enables them to apply for all these products through a single application. This enables applicants to save time and effort in filling out and submitting multiple application forms. Applicants can also easily track the bundled application and view the status of each individual product application within the bundled application from the application tracker.

In a manner that is similar to individual product applications, both existing online banking customers of the bank as well as prospects can apply for bundled products by simply selecting the option provided on the bank portal. The applicant must then proceed to select a product from within each product category to be added to the bundle.

On having made a selection, the applicant can proceed to the application form which will be an amalgamation of all the application forms required for each different product type. The applicant will be required to enter information that is common for each product application, only once. E.g. section Personal Information is common across all product applications as are Employment and Financial Profile for loan applications. These sections will not be repeated in a bundled application. The applicant will be required to specify information pertaining to each account or loan specifically i.e. if applying for a bundle that comprises of products savings and checking accounts, the applicant will be required to specify Account Preferences specifically for each account type.

The application form is OCR (Optical Character Recognition) enabled so as to save the prospect applicant's time and effort in filling out the application form. At present, only the personal information section gets prefilled with information fetched through OCR based on the document uploaded.

Online KYC of the prospect can also be conducted by means of liveness check or through integration with third party identity verification service providers.

If online KYC through liveness check is enabled for the application, the applicant will be provided with the option to initiate a video call with a bank executive. The applicant will be required to first upload images of the identification document he/she wishes to submit for online KYC. The bank executive in turn, will verify, by means of the video call, that the photograph as per the ID provided is truly that of the applicant's.

If online KYC through ID verification is enabled, the prospect will be required to define his/her Identification number along with other basic personal information such as name and date of birth so as to enable the bank to conduct online KYC of the applicant.

In both cases, once the applicant's identity is verified successfully, he/she will be able to proceed with the application form. The personal information section will also be prefilled with information as fetched on the basis of the identification provided.

Existing digital banking customers can simply provide their online banking credentials to have the personal information section of the form prefilled with information as maintained with the bank.

Additional features that have been built into the application are enabling google map integration for capture of addresses, QR code scan enablement to continue applications on mobile devices, etc.

The application tracker has been built so as to enable tracking of the application once it has been submitted. The application tracker also enables the applicant to retrieve and complete an application that has been saved. Additionally, the applicant can view documents that have been uploaded as part of the application form and can also view details as defined in the application form in PDF format.
