6. Collateral Evaluation

Collateral Evaluation is a process in which the customer approaches the bank and requests the bank to evaluate his collateral. Using this option, corporate customers can request for evaluation of a collateral by providing the required details like collateral type, its description, market value, its ownership information and the details of banks where the collateral is already pledged. Corporate user can also upload the required supporting documents using the OBDX platform.

Collateral evaluation process goes through various stages starting from providing the details of collateral that is to be evaluated, until the review and acceptance of collateral evaluation application.
