ABOUT TRACKER

Tracker facilitates the critical operations of product development, filing and implementation. Tracker makes it easy to:

- Design, evaluate and deliver products
- Create, standardize, and centralize forms and other documents
- Share and manage business processes
- Automate filing preparation and submission
- Produce operational and management reports

Developing product requires the collaboration of many departments. Tracker facilitates this collaboration by providing:

- A platform to facilitate effective working relationships
- Integration with SERFF (System for Electronic Rate and Form Filings)
- A centralized repository for filing storage and retrieval
- Management reporting that presents an up-to-date status of rate, rule, and form filings, and allows the measurement of product-development processes and speed to market

By implementing Tracker, companies can:

- Get products to market more quickly
- Reduce product development time
- Reduce filing time
- Eliminate inefficient, manual processes
- Improve labor productivity and lower operating costs
- Minimize the risk of market-conduct audit fines

RELEASE DESCRIPTION

This release includes new fields and updates for PPACA eligible filings. This release is for L&H Tracker users only.

NEW FEATURES AND ENHANCEMENTS

The following describes the new features and enhancements in this version of Tracker, including those added to Tracker since version 6.6.2. If you have previously updated your Tracker installation to 6.7 or 6.7.4, you will already have some of these new features and enhancements. For more information, please contact Oracle Support.

Note The features and enhancements added only apply to Life and Health-specific release.

SERFF

- In the General tab of PSU, two new fields have been added; “Include Exchange Intentions” and “Exchange Intentions” that are available under the field column. This feature is part of L&H tracker, added for initial filing submission and is only available on PPACA eligible filings.
- If “Include Exchange Intentions?” is set to ‘Yes’, then the “Exchange intentions” field is mandatory for the user.
- For Non Canadian provinces, a new tab is created for displaying a list of states and jurisdictions. There are three fields for each state; HIOS Issuer ID, NCQA Org ID, URAC Application Number. These fields are optional for the user, but recommended for PPACA eligible filings.
