2. Corporate Loan Origination

2.1 Introduction

The process of loan origination gets initiated when a prospective customer approaches the bank, with a loan account opening request or when the bank approaches a prospective customer, taking lead from its database. In case of a bank–initiated request, the process moves forward only if the prospective customer is interested. The entire process is carried out in multiple stages and on successful completion of each stage, it moves automatically to the next stage.

When the customer approaches the bank for its products and offers, before initiating the loan origination process, the bank can create a mock-proposal which would have the personal details of the customer, the loan offers the customer is interested in as well as the schedules associated with the loan offer. This can be stored as reference in the system to be retrieved when the actual loan process flow is initiated.

Corporate lending process flow uses Oracle BPEL framework with multiple human tasks for workflow stages. The capture and enrichment of information in multiple steps can be dynamically assigned to different user roles, so that multiple users can take part in the transaction. Oracle Business rules are used for dynamic creation of multiple approval stages.

The following details need to be maintained for originating a Corporate Loan:

- Credit rating rules
- Credit ratios
- Override details
- Document checklist and advices
- Application category details

The Corporate Loan origination process flow is composed of following stages:

- Application Entry
- Application Verification
- Internal KYC
- External KYC
- Underwriting
- Loan Approval
- Document Verification
- Manual Retry

The features, maintenances and the different stages in the process flow are explained in detail in the following sections.

The system remains the Maker ID and Checker ID for the auto closed leads.
