3. Auto Loans Application

An auto or vehicle loan is a secured personal loan taken to purchase a new or used vehicle. In an auto loan, the vehicle being purchased is considered as the collateral on the loan.

Auto Loans Application Workflow

Following are the steps involved in the loan account opening application:

- State Selection: Once you select the auto loans product from the product showcase, select the state of residence, after which you can proceed to the loan application.
- Loan Requirements: You can specify the amount to be borrowed, purpose of the loan, tenure, and also mention if a co-applicant is involved in the loan.
- Vehicle Information: You can provide vehicle information such as, whether the vehicle is used or new, the make and model of the vehicle, the estimated price of the vehicle, intended owner, and other details. Additionally, if the vehicle being purchased is a used vehicle, you can opt to lookup the vehicle information by specifying the vehicle identification number.
- Funding Information: This section displays the vehicle price, requested loan amount, application fees and the amount to be contributed by the applicant towards the loan.
- Applicant Information: The applicant information sections capture details such as, basic personal information, identity, contact, and employment information of the applicant.
- Financial Information: These sections capture financial details encompassing income, expense, asset, and liability details of the applicant.
- Offer Selection: This section displays multiple loan offers with an option to select any offer of choice.
- Review and Submit: This section comprises of two sub sections. The first displays the summary of the loan application. You can verify details submitted as part of the application and can modify any if required. The second sub section displays the disclosures and notices applicable on the loan application. You can view details of these disclosures and notices and if required, give consent to them before submitting the application to the bank.
- Credit Decision Outcome: Once you submit the application, a confirmation page will be displayed containing the current status of the application as well as the application reference number. This page will also contain details of any additional steps that might be required to be taken by either you or the bank. The options to either navigate to the application tracker or the product showcase are provided on this page.

FAQs

1. Why do I have to select my state of residence when I select the Auto Loan product on the product showcase?

Since banking rules and regulations that impact the bank's product offers vary from state to state in the US, it is imperative that when choosing a product for which to apply, you specify your state of residence. This way, only those products that are available for your state are displayed. Hence, the facility to select state of residence on selection of auto loan product group in product showcase has been added.

2. If I am an existing customer, do I still have to specify my state of residence on selecting a product?

No, if an existing customer has logged in and is then selecting a product, the system will automatically display only those products that are enabled for the customer's state of residence.

3. Can I apply for an auto loan if I am not a citizen of the United States?

As per US law, only US citizens and resident aliens can apply for banking products online. Hence, if you are not a citizen of the United States but are a permanent resident of the United States and have a Social Security Number you can apply for a loan online. However, if you are not a United States citizen and are not a permanent resident either, you cannot apply for a loan online.

4. I am 18 years old and currently residing in Alabama where the age of majority is 19 years. Can I apply for an auto loan online?

No, you need to be a legal major in the state in which you reside in order to be eligible to apply for an auto loan online.

5. Why am I not required to enter information such as gender, marital status etc. as part of primary information?

Financial institutions in the US are governed by strict laws one of them being the Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA) which dictates that it is unlawful for any creditor to discriminate against any applicant on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status or age (as long as the applicant is a legal major). Hence, information such as the applicant's gender, number of dependents, marital status, etc. are not captured in the loan application.

6. Are there any types of vehicles that the bank will not finance?

Yes, the following vehicles are not eligible for financing:

- Used vehicles that are older than the defined number of years.
- Used vehicles that have run more than the defined number of miles.
- Commercial vehicles

7. Why do I have to provide my Social Security Number (SSN) in the application? How does the bank ensure that my information is safe?

Your Social Security Number is required as it is part of the information we use to verify your identity and is also used by our third party credit reporting agencies to identify your credit worthiness. Your Social Security Number is masked as soon as you enter it so as to eliminate the risk of shoulder surfing security threat.

8. Why do you require the expiry date of my identity proof?

We ask for the expiry date of your identity proof to ensure that you are providing us with a valid proof of identity, one that is currently not expired.

9. Can I provide my post office box number as residential address?

No, we require the address at which you currently reside and if required the address at which you resided previously.

10. I have my entire zip code i.e. in zip+4 format. Can I provide my entire zip code?

Yes, the application accepts regular zip format as well as zip+4 format.

11. Do I need to include the income I get as alimony in the income section of the application?

No, you do not have to include income from alimony, child support or any separate maintenance income if you do not wish for it to be considered as a basis for loan repayment.

12. Why do I have to give my consent to all the disclosures displayed under the Review & Submit section?

As per US law, all customers of the bank are to be made aware of all the disclosures and notices impacting them. Hence, we require your consent to all these disclosures and also provide links for you to view the details of each disclosure.

13. I am adding a co-applicant to the loan application. Does he have to provide his consent to all these disclosures as well?

Yes, all applicants are required to provide consent to all disclosures and notices.
