3. Introduction

Islamic Banking is a Banking system that is based on the principles of sharia (Islamic law) and guided by the Islamic economics. The Shariah Laws provide guidance on each and every aspect of human life, and the laws which govern and guide financial and commercial transactions define Islamic Banking activities.

Although Islamic banking may seem similar to conventional banking, the two differ conceptually. One key difference is that in conventional banking, banks earn their money by charging interest and fees for services, whereas in Islamic banking, banks earn their money by profit and loss sharing, leasing, charging fees for services rendered, and more.

The OBDX corporate banking modules cater to Islamic accounts as well. Users of an Islamic bank, can view the account details, transfer money, make payments, request for cheque books, and more using the portal.

A user can either have only Islamic accounts or only conventional accounts or a mix of both types of accounts. The portal caters to each case. If the customer has both conventional term deposit accounts and Islamic term deposit accounts under the same ID and password, he will have a consolidated view of all accounts on logging.

The term deposit accounts widget has a representation of both conventional and Islamic accounts. This is also true for enquiry and transaction screens. While initiating any transaction or payment, the user selects either an Islamic account or a conventional account, grouped under the respective labels.

The labels on the different pages / screens, for Islamic accounts, reflect the nomenclature as per and in accordance with Islamic Banking requirements.

4. Term Deposit

As the name suggests, a Term Deposit is a deposit held at a bank for a fixed term, generally ranging from a few days to a few years. Islamic Term deposit account offers a competitive return that varies according to the investment period that customer selects. Islamic Term deposits solutions offers the customers their returns based on the principle of profit-sharing.

Customers opt to invest in term deposits as they are a safe and secure mode of investment and yield higher returns than regular checking or savings accounts.
