Introduction

About Collateral Release Process

A brief introduction to the Collateral Release process.

Banks initiate Collateral Release process when the collateral amount or the contracts/loans associated with the collateral is fully liquidated. In OBCFPM, this process can be triggered automatically by the back office system as well as manually by the Credit Reviewer. Once the collateral release task is initiated, the task is available in the Free Tasks queue. The authorized user can acquire the task and perform release operation.

In case the underlying contracts are not fully liquidated during manual initiation of Collateral Release process, the Credit Reviewer must send the release application to the Await for Release Confirmation stage.

The flow chart illustrating various stages in the Collateral Release process is provided below for reference.
