ModifiedWorks shall not include works that contain only declarations,interfaces, types, classes, structures, or files of the Program solelyin each case in order to link to, bind by name, or subclass the Programor Modified Works thereof."Distribute" means the acts of a) distributing or b) making availablein any manner that enables the transfer of a copy. |

GRANT OF RIGHTSa) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor herebygrants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyrightlicense to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display,publicly perform, Distribute and sublicense the Contribution of suchContributor, if any, and such Derivative Works.b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor herebygrants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free patentlicense under Licensed Patents to make, use, sell, offer to sell,import and otherwise transfer the Contribution of such Contributor,if any, in Source Code or other form. This patent license shallapply to the combination of the Contribution and the Program if, atthe time the Contribution is added by the Contributor, such additionof the Contribution causes such combination to be covered by theLicensed Patents. The patent license shall not apply to any othercombinations which include the Contribution. No hardware per se islicensed hereunder.c) Recipient understands that although each Contributor grants thelicenses to its Contributions set forth herein, no assurances areprovided by any Contributor that the Program does not infringe thepatent or other intellectual property rights of any other entity. |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Each Contributor disclaims any liability to Recipient for claimsbrought by any other entity based on infringement of intellectualproperty rights or otherwise. As a condition to exercising therights and licenses granted hereunder, each Recipient herebyassumes sole responsibility to secure any other intellectualproperty rights needed, if any. For example, if a third partypatent license is required to allow Recipient to Distribute theProgram, it is Recipient's responsibility to acquire that licensebefore distributing the Program.d) Each Contributor represents that to its knowledge it hassufficient copyright rights in its Contribution, if any, to grantthe copyright license set forth in this Agreement.e) Notwithstanding the terms of any Secondary License, noContributor makes additional grants to any Recipient (other thanthose set forth in this Agreement) as a result of such Recipient'sreceipt of the Program under the terms of a Secondary License(if permitted under the terms of Section 3).3. REQUIREMENTS3.1 If a Contributor Distributes the Program in any form, then:a) the Program must also be made available as Source Code, inaccordance with section 3.2, and the Contributor must accompanythe Program with a statement that the Source Code for the Programis available under this Agreement, and informs Recipients how toobtain it in a reasonable manner on or through a medium customarilyused for software exchange; andb) the Contributor may Distribute the Program under a licensedifferent than this Agreement, provided that such license:i) effectively disclaims on behalf of all other |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Contributors allwarranties and conditions, express and implied, includingwarranties or conditions of title and non-infringement, andimplied warranties or conditions of merchantability and fitnessfor a particular purpose;ii) effectively excludes on behalf of all other Contributors allliability for damages, including direct, indirect, special,incidental and consequential damages, such as lost profits;iii) does not attempt to limit or alter the recipients' rightsin the Source Code under section 3.2; andiv) requires any subsequent distribution of the Program by anyparty to be under a license that satisfies the requirementsof this section 3.3.2 When the Program is Distributed as Source Code:a) it must be made available under this Agreement, or if theProgram (i) is combined with other material in a separate file orfiles made available under a Secondary License, and (ii) the initialContributor attached to the Source Code the notice described inExhibit A of this Agreement, then the Program may be made availableunder the terms of such Secondary Licenses, andb) a copy of this Agreement must be included with each copy ofthe Program.3.3 Contributors may not remove or alter any copyright, patent,trademark, attribution notices, disclaimers of warranty, or limitationsof liability ("notices") contained within the Program from any copy ofthe Program which they Distribute, provided that Contributors may addtheir own appropriate notices.4. COMMERCIAL DISTRIBUTION |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Commercial distributors of software may accept certain responsibilities with respect to end users, business partners and the like. While this license is intended to facilitate the commercial use of the Program, the Contributor who includes the Program in a commercial product offering should do so in a manner which does not create potential liability for other Contributors. Therefore, if a Contributor includes the Program in a commercial product offering, such Contributor ("Commercial Contributor") hereby agrees to defend and indemnify every other Contributor ("Indemnified Contributor") against any losses, damages and costs (collectively "Losses") arising from claims, lawsuits and other legal actions brought by a third party against the Indemnified Contributor to the extent caused by the acts or omissions of such Commercial Contributor in connection with its distribution of the Program in a commercial product offering. The obligations in this section do not apply to any claims or Losses relating to any actual or alleged intellectual property infringement. In order to qualify, an Indemnified Contributor must: a) promptly notify the Commercial Contributor in writing of such claim, and b) allow the Commercial Contributor to control, and cooperate with the Commercial Contributor in, the defense and any related settlement negotiations. The Indemnified Contributor may participate in any such claim at its own expense.For example, a Contributor might include the Program in a commercial product offering, Product X. That Contributor is then a Commercial Contributor. If that Commercial Contributor then makes performance claims, or offers warranties related to Product X, those performance claims and warranties are such Commercial Contributor's responsibility alone. Under this section, the Commercial Contributor would have to defend claims against the other Contributors related |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | to those performanceclaims and warranties, and if a court requires any other Contributor topay any damages as a result, the Commercial Contributor must paythose damages.5. NO WARRANTYEXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENTPERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE PROGRAM IS PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS"BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS ORIMPLIED INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OFTITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULARPURPOSE. Each Recipient is solely responsible for determining theappropriateness of using and distributing the Program and assumes allrisks associated with its exercise of rights under this Agreement,including but not limited to the risks and costs of program errors,compliance with applicable laws, damage to or loss of data, programsor equipment, and unavailability or interruption of operations.6. | | | 2, June 1991Copyright (C) 1989, 1991 Free Software Foundation, Inc.51 Franklin Street, Fifth FloorBoston, MA 02110-1335USAEveryone is permitted to copy and distribute verbatim copiesof this license document, but changing it is not allowed.PreambleThe licenses for most software are designed to take away your freedom toshare and change it. By contrast, the GNU General Public License isintended to guarantee your freedom to share and change free software--tomake sure the software is free for all its users. This General PublicLicense applies to most of the Free Software Foundation's software andto any other program whose authors commit to using it. (Some other FreeSoftware Foundation software is covered by the GNU Library GeneralPublic License instead.) You can apply it to your programs, too.When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom, not price.Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that you have thefreedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge for thisservice if you wish), that you receive source code or can get it if youwant it, that you can change the software or use pieces of it in newfree programs; and that you know you can do these things.To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbid anyoneto deny you these rights or to ask you to surrender the rights. Theserestrictions translate to certain responsibilities for you if youdistribute copies of the software, or if you modify it.For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whether gratisor for a fee, you must give the recipients all the |

|---|---|---|
| | | rights that you have.You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get the source code.And you must show them these terms so they know their rights.We protect your rights with two steps: (1) copyright the software, and(2) offer you this license which gives you legal permission to copy,distribute and/or modify the software.Also, for each author's protection and ours, we want to make certainthat everyone understands that there is no warranty for this freesoftware. If the software is modified by someone else and passed on, wewant its recipients to know that what they have is not the original, sothat any problems introduced by others will not reflect on the originalauthors' reputations.Finally, any free program is threatened constantly by software patents.We wish to avoid the danger that redistributors of a free program willindividually obtain patent licenses, in effect making the programproprietary. To prevent this, we have made it clear that any patent mustbe licensed for everyone's free use or not licensed at all.The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution andmodification follow.TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION0. This License applies to any program or other work which contains anotice placed by the copyright holder saying it may be distributed underthe terms of this General Public License. The "Program", below, refersto any such program or work, and a "work based on the Program" meanseither the Program or any derivative work under copyright law: that isto say, a work containing the Program or a portion of it, eitherverbatim or with modifications and/or translated into another language. |

|---|---|---|
| | | (Hereinafter, translation is included without limitation in the term"modification".) Each licensee is addressed as "you".Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are notcovered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act of runningthe Program is not restricted, and the output from the Program iscovered only if its contents constitute a work based on the Program(independent of having been made by running the Program). Whether thatis true depends on what the Program does.1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Program's sourcecode as you receive it, in any medium, provided that you conspicuouslyand appropriately publish on each copy an appropriate copyright noticeand disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all the notices that refer tothis License and to the absence of any warranty; and give any otherrecipients of the Program a copy of this License along with the Program.You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy, andyou may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee.2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Program or any portion ofit, thus forming a work based on the Program, and copy and distributesuch modifications or work under the terms of Section 1 above, providedthat you also meet all of these conditions:a) You must cause the modified files to carry prominent noticesstating that you changed the files and the date of any change.b) You must cause any work that you distribute or publish, that inwhole or in part contains or is derived from the Program or any partthereof, to be licensed as a whole at no charge to all third partiesunder the terms of this License.c) If the modified program normally reads |

Ifidentifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Program, andcan be reasonably considered independent and separate works inthemselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to thosesections when you distribute them as separate works. But when youdistribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work based onthe Program, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms of thisLicense, whose permissions for other licensees extend to the entirewhole, and thus to each and every part regardless of who wrote it.Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contestyour rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is toexercise the right to control the distribution of derivative orcollective works based on the Program.In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Programwith the Program (or with a work based on the Program) on a volume of astorage or distribution medium does not bring the other work under thescope of this License.3. You may copy and distribute the Program (or a work based on it, |

| | | under Section 2) in object code or executable form under the terms ofSections 1 and 2 above provided that you also do one of the following:a) Accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readablesource code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections 1and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,b) Accompany it with a written offer, valid for at least threeyears, to give any third party, for a charge no more than your costof physically performing source distribution, a completemachine-readable copy of the corresponding source code, to bedistributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a mediumcustomarily used for software interchange; or,c) Accompany it with the information you received as to the offer todistribute corresponding source code. (This alternative is allowedonly for noncommercial distribution and only if you received theprogram in object code or executable form with such an offer, inaccord with Subsection b above.)The source code for a work means the preferred form of the work formaking modifications to it. For an executable work, complete source codemeans all the source code for all modules it contains, plus anyassociated interface definition files, plus the scripts used to controlcompilation and installation of the executable. However, as a specialexception, the source code distributed need not include anything that isnormally distributed (in either source or binary form) with the majorcomponents (compiler, kernel, and so on) of the operating system onwhich the executable runs, unless that component itself accompanies theexecutable.If distribution of executable or object code is made by offering access |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | to copy from a designated place, then offering equivalent access to copythe source code from the same place counts as distribution of the sourcecode, even though third parties are not compelled to copy the sourcealong with the object code.4. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, or distribute the Programexcept as expressly provided under this License. Any attempt otherwiseto copy, modify, sublicense or distribute the Program is void, and willautomatically terminate your rights under this License. However, partieswho have received copies, or rights, from you under this License willnot have their licenses terminated so long as such parties remain infull compliance.5. You are not required to accept this License, since you have notsigned it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify ordistribute the Program or its derivative works. These actions areprohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, bymodifying or distributing the Program (or any work based on theProgram), you indicate your acceptance of this License to do so, and allits terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifying theProgram or works based on it.6. Each time you redistribute the Program (or any work based on theProgram), the recipient automatically receives a license from theoriginal licensor to copy, distribute or modify the Program subject tothese terms and conditions. You may not impose any further restrictionson the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein. You are notresponsible for enforcing compliance by third parties to this License.7. If, as a consequence of a court judgment or allegation of patentinfringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues),conditions are imposed on you (whether by court |

|---|---|---|
| | | order, agreement orotherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do notexcuse you from the conditions of this License. If you cannot distributeso as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under this License andany other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence you may notdistribute the Program at all. For example, if a patent license wouldnot permit royalty-free redistribution of the Program by all those whoreceive copies directly or indirectly through you, then the only way youcould satisfy both it and this License would be to refrain entirely fromdistribution of the Program.If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable underany particular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended toapply and the section as a whole is intended to apply in othercircumstances.It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe anypatents or other property right claims or to contest validity of anysuch claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting theintegrity of the free software distribution system, which is implementedby public license practices. Many people have made generouscontributions to the wide range of software distributed through thatsystem in reliance on consistent application of that system; it is up tothe author/donor to decide if he or she is willing to distributesoftware through any other system and a licensee cannot impose that choice.This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed to bea consequence of the rest of this License.8. If the distribution and/or use of the Program is restricted incertain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, theoriginal copyright holder who places the Program under this License may |

|---|---|---|
| | | add an explicit geographical distribution limitation excluding thosecountries, so that distribution is permitted only in or among countriesnot thus excluded. In such case, this License incorporates thelimitation as if written in the body of this License.9. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or newversions of the General Public License from time to time. Such newversions will be similar in spirit to the present version, but maydiffer in detail to address new problems or concerns.Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Programspecifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "anylater version", you have the option of following the terms andconditions either of that version or of any later version published bythe Free Software Foundation. If the Program does not specify a versionnumber of this License, you may choose any version ever published by theFree Software Foundation.10. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Program into other freeprograms whose distribution conditions are different, write to theauthor to ask for permission. For software which is copyrighted by theFree Software Foundation, write to the Free Software Foundation; wesometimes make exceptions for this. Our decision will be guided by thetwo goals of preserving the free status of all derivatives of our freesoftware and of promoting the sharing and reuse of software generally.NO WARRANTY11. BECAUSE THE PROGRAM IS LICENSED FREE OF CHARGE, THERE IS NOWARRANTY FOR THE PROGRAM, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.EXCEPT WHEN OTHERWISE STATED IN WRITING THE COPYRIGHT HOLDERS AND/OROTHER PARTIES PROVIDE THE PROGRAM "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND,EITHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, |

| | | Covered Software.1.11. “Patent Claims” of a Contributormeans any patent claim(s), including without limitation, method, process, and apparatus claims, in any patent Licensable by such Contributor that would be infringed, but for the grant of the License, by the making, using, selling, offering for sale, having made, import, or transfer of either its Contributions or its Contributor Version.1.12. “Secondary License”means either the GNU General Public License, Version 2.0, the GNU Lesser General Public License, Version 2.1, the GNU Affero General Public License, Version 3.0, or any later versions of those licenses.1.13. “Source Code Form”means the form of the work preferred for making modifications.1.14. “You” (or “Your”)means an individual or a legal entity exercising rights under this License. For legal entities, “You” includes any entity that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with You. For purposes of this definition, “control” means (a) the power, direct or indirect, to cause the direction or management of such entity, whether by contract or otherwise, or (b) ownership of more than fifty percent (50%) of the outstanding shares or beneficial ownership of such entity.2. License Grants and Conditions2.1. GrantsEach Contributor hereby grants You a world-wide, royalty-free, non-exclusive license:under intellectual property rights (other than patent or trademark) Licensable by such Contributor to use, reproduce, make available, modify, display, perform, distribute, and otherwise exploit its Contributions, either on an unmodified basis, with Modifications, or as part of a Larger Work; andunder Patent Claims of such Contributor to make, use, sell, offer for sale, have made, import, and otherwise transfer either its Contributions or its Contributor Version.2.2. Effective DateThe licenses granted in Section 2.1 with respect to any Contribution become effective for each Contribution on the date the Contributor first distributes such Contribution. |

|---|---|---|
| | | 2.3. Limitations on Grant ScopeThe licenses granted in this Section 2 are the only rights granted under this License. No additional rights or licenses will be implied from the distribution or licensing of Covered Software under this License. Notwithstanding Section 2.1(b) above, no patent license is granted by a Contributor:for any code that a Contributor has removed from Covered Software; orfor infringements caused by: (i) Your and any other third party's modifications of Covered Software, or (ii) the combination of its Contributions with other software (except as part of its Contributor Version); orunder Patent Claims infringed by Covered Software in the absence of its Contributions.This License does not grant any rights in the trademarks, service marks, or logos of any Contributor (except as may be necessary to comply with the notice requirements in Section 3.4).2.4. Subsequent LicensesNo Contributor makes additional grants as a result of Your choice to distribute the Covered Software under a subsequent version of this License (see Section 10.2) or under the terms of a Secondary License (if permitted under the terms of Section 3.3).2.5. RepresentationEach Contributor represents that the Contributor believes its Contributions are its original creation(s) or it has sufficient rights to grant the rights to its Contributions conveyed by this License.2.6. Fair UseThis License is not intended to limit any rights You have under applicable copyright doctrines of fair use, fair dealing, or other equivalents.2.7. ConditionsSections 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, and 3.4 are conditions of the licenses granted in Section 2.1.3. Responsibilities3.1. Distribution of Source FormAll distribution of Covered Software in Source Code Form, including any Modifications that You create or to which You contribute, must be under the terms of this License. You must inform recipients that the Source Code Form of the Covered Software is governed by the terms of this License, and how they can obtain a copy of this License. You may not attempt to alter or restrict the recipients' rights in the Source Code Form. |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | 3.2. Distribution of Executable FormIf You distribute Covered Software in Executable Form then:such Covered Software must also be made available in Source Code Form, as described in Section 3.1, and You must inform recipients of the Executable Form how they can obtain a copy of such Source Code Form by reasonable means in a timely manner, at a charge no more than the cost of distribution to the recipient; andYou may distribute such Executable Form under the terms of this License, or sublicense it under different terms, provided that the license for the Executable Form does not attempt to limit or alter the recipients' rights in the Source Code Form under this License.3.3. Distribution of a Larger WorkYou may create and distribute a Larger Work under terms of Your choice, provided that You also comply with the requirements of this License for the Covered Software. If the Larger Work is a combination of Covered Software with a work governed by one or more Secondary Licenses, and the Covered Software is not Incompatible With Secondary Licenses, this License permits You to additionally distribute such Covered Software under the terms of such Secondary License(s), so that the recipient of the Larger Work may, at their option, further distribute the Covered Software under the terms of either this License or such Secondary License(s).3.4. NoticesYou may not remove or alter the substance of any license notices (including copyright notices, patent notices, disclaimers of warranty, or limitations of liability) contained within the Source Code Form of the Covered Software, except that You may alter any license notices to the extent required to remedy known factual inaccuracies.3.5. Application of Additional TermsYou may choose to offer, and to charge a fee for, warranty, support, indemnity or liability obligations to one or more recipients of Covered Software. However, You may do so only on Your own behalf, and not on behalf of any Contributor. You must make it absolutely clear that any such warranty, support, indemnity, or liability obligation is offered by You alone, and You hereby agree to indemnify every Contributor for any liability incurred by such Contributor as a result of warranty, support, indemnity or liability terms You offer. You may include additional disclaimers of warranty and limitations of liability specific to any jurisdiction. |

| | | 4. Inability to Comply Due to Statute or RegulationIf it is impossible for You to comply with any of the terms of this License with respect to some or all of the Covered Software due to statute, judicial order, or regulation then You must: (a) comply with the terms of this License to the maximum extent possible; and (b) describe the limitations and the code they affect. Such description must be placed in a text file included with all distributions of the Covered Software under this License. Except to the extent prohibited by statute or regulation, such description must be sufficiently detailed for a recipient of ordinary skill to be able to understand it.5. Termination5.1. The rights granted under this License will terminate automatically if You fail to comply with any of its terms. However, if You become compliant, then the rights granted under this License from a particular Contributor are reinstated (a) provisionally, unless and until such Contributor explicitly and finally terminates Your grants, and (b) on an ongoing basis, if such Contributor fails to notify You of the non-compliance by some reasonable means prior to 60 days after You have come back into compliance. Moreover, Your grants from a particular Contributor are reinstated on an ongoing basis if such Contributor notifies You of the non-compliance by some reasonable means, this is the first time You have received notice of non-compliance with this License from such Contributor, and You become compliant prior to 30 days after Your receipt of the notice.5.2. If You initiate litigation against any entity by asserting a patent infringement claim (excluding declaratory judgment actions, counter-claims, and cross-claims) alleging that a Contributor Version directly or indirectly infringes any patent, then the rights granted to You by any and all Contributors for the Covered Software under Section 2.1 of this License shall terminate.5.3. In the event of termination under Sections 5.1 or 5.2 above, all end user license agreements (excluding distributors and resellers) which have been validly granted by You or Your distributors under this License prior to termination shall survive termination.6. Disclaimer of WarrantyCovered Software is provided under this License on an “as is” basis, without warranty of any kind, either expressed, implied, or statutory, including, without limitation, warranties that the Covered Software is free of defects, merchantable, fit for a particular purpose or non-infringing. The entire risk as to the quality and |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | performance of the Covered Software is with You. Should any Covered Software prove defective in any respect, You (not any Contributor) assume the cost of any necessary servicing, repair, or correction. This disclaimer of warranty constitutes an essential part of this License. No use of any Covered Software is authorized under this License except under this disclaimer.7. Limitation of LiabilityUnder no circumstances and under no legal theory, whether tort (including negligence), contract, or otherwise, shall any Contributor, or anyone who distributes Covered Software as permitted above, be liable to You for any direct, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages of any character including, without limitation, damages for lost profits, loss of goodwill, work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction, or any and all other commercial damages or losses, even if such party shall have been informed of the possibility of such damages. This limitation of liability shall not apply to liability for death or personal injury resulting from such party's negligence to the extent applicable law prohibits such limitation. Some jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so this exclusion and limitation may not apply to You.8. LitigationAny litigation relating to this License may be brought only in the courts of a jurisdiction where the defendant maintains its principal place of business and such litigation shall be governed by laws of that jurisdiction, without reference to its conflict-of-law provisions. Nothing in this Section shall prevent a party's ability to bring cross-claims or counter-claims.9. MiscellaneousThis License represents the complete agreement concerning the subject matter hereof. If any provision of this License is held to be unenforceable, such provision shall be reformed only to the extent necessary to make it enforceable. Any law or regulation which provides that the language of a contract shall be construed against the drafter shall not be used to construe this License against a Contributor.10. Versions of the License10.1. New VersionsMozilla Foundation is the license steward. Except as provided in Section 10.3, no one other than the license steward has the right to modify or publish new versions of this License. Each version will be given a distinguishing version number.10.2. Effect of New Versions |

Definitions. "License" shall mean the terms and conditions for use, reproduction, and distribution as defined by Sections 1 through 9 of this document. "Licensor" shall mean the copyright owner or entity authorized by the copyright owner that is granting the License. "Legal Entity" shall mean the union of the acting entity and all other entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with that entity. For the purposes of this definition, "control" means (i) the power, direct or indirect, to cause the direction or management of such entity, whether by contract or otherwise, or (ii) ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of the outstanding shares, or (iii) beneficial ownership of such entity. "You" (or "Your") shall mean an individual or Legal Entity exercising permissions granted by this License. "Source" form shall mean the preferred form for making modifications, including but not limited to software source code, documentation source, and configuration files. "Object" form shall mean any form resulting from mechanical transformation or translation of a Source form, including but not limited to compiled object code, generated documentation, and conversions to other media types. "Work" shall mean the work of authorship, whether in Source or Object form, made available under the License, as indicated by a copyright notice that is included in or attached to the work (an example is provided in the Appendix below). "Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether in Source or Object form, that is based on (or derived from) the Work and for which the editorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modifications represent, as a whole, an original work of authorship. For the purposes of this License, Derivative Works shall not include works that remain separable from, or merely link (or bind by name) to the interfaces of, the Work and Derivative Works thereof. "Contribution" shall mean any work of authorship, including the original version of the Work and any modifications or additions to that Work or Derivative Works thereof, that is intentionally submitted to Licensor for inclusion in the Work by the copyright owner or by an individual or Legal Entity authorized to submit on behalf of the copyright owner. For the purposes of this definition, "submitted" means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sent to the Licensor or its representatives, including but not limited to communication on electronic mailing lists, |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | source code control systems, and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, the Licensor for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, but excluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwise designated in writing by the copyright owner as "Not a Contribution." "Contributor" shall mean Licensor and any individual or Legal Entity on behalf of whom a Contribution has been received by Licensor and subsequently incorporated within the Work. 2. Grant of Copyright License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable copyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display, publicly perform, sublicense, and distribute the Work and such Derivative Works in Source or Object form. 3. Grant of Patent License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable (except as stated in this section) patent license to make, have made, use, offer to sell, sell, import, and otherwise transfer the Work, where such license applies only to those patent claims licensable by such Contributor that are necessarily infringed by their Contribution(s) alone or by combination of their Contribution(s) with the Work to which such Contribution(s) was submitted. If You institute patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Work or a Contribution incorporated within the Work constitutes direct or contributory patent infringement, then any patent licenses granted to You under this License for that Work shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed. 4. Redistribution. You may reproduce and distribute copies of the Work or Derivative Works thereof in any medium, with or without modifications, and in Source or Object form, provided that You meet the following conditions: (a) You must give any other recipients of the Work or Derivative Works a copy of this License; and (b) You must cause any modified files to carry prominent notices stating that You changed the files; and (c) You must retain, in the Source form of any Derivative Works that You distribute, all copyright, patent, trademark, and attribution notices from the Source form of the Work, excluding those notices that do not pertain to any part of the Derivative Works; and (d) If the Work includes a "NOTICE" text file as part of its distribution, then any Derivative Works that You distribute must include a readable copy of the attribution notices contained within such NOTICE file, excluding those notices that do not pertain to any part of the Derivative Works, in at least one of the following places: within a NOTICE text file distributed as part of the Derivative Works; within the Source form or |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | documentation, if provided along with the Derivative Works; or, within a display generated by the Derivative Works, if and wherever such third-party notices normally appear. The contents of the NOTICE file are for informational purposes only and do not modify the License. You may add Your own attribution notices within Derivative Works that You distribute, alongside or as an addendum to the NOTICE text from the Work, provided that such additional attribution notices cannot be construed as modifying the License. You may add Your own copyright statement to Your modifications and may provide additional or different license terms and conditions for use, reproduction, or distribution of Your modifications, or for any such Derivative Works as a whole, provided Your use, reproduction, and distribution of the Work otherwise complies with the conditions stated in this License. 5. Submission of Contributions. Unless You explicitly state otherwise, any Contribution intentionally submitted for inclusion in the Work by You to the Licensor shall be under the terms and conditions of this License, without any additional terms or conditions. Notwithstanding the above, nothing herein shall supersede or modify the terms of any separate license agreement you may have executed with Licensor regarding such Contributions. 6. Trademarks. This License does not grant permission to use the trade names, trademarks, service marks, or product names of the Licensor, except as required for reasonable and customary use in describing the origin of the Work and reproducing the content of the NOTICE file. 7. Disclaimer of Warranty. Unless required by applicable law or agreed to in writing, Licensor provides the Work (and each Contributor provides its Contributions) on an "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, either express or implied, including, without limitation, any warranties or conditions of TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. You are solely responsible for determining the appropriateness of using or redistributing the Work and assume any risks associated with Your exercise of permissions under this License. 8. Limitation of Liability. In no event and under no legal theory, whether in tort (including negligence), contract, or otherwise, unless required by applicable law (such as deliberate and grossly negligent acts) or agreed to in writing, shall any Contributor be liable to You for damages, including any direct, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages of any character arising as a result of this License or out of the use or inability to use the Work (including but not limited to damages for loss of goodwill, work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction, or any and all other commercial damages or losses), even if such Contributor has been advised of the possibility of such damages. 9. |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Accepting Warranty or Additional Liability. While redistributing the Work or Derivative Works thereof, You may choose to offer, and charge a fee for, acceptance of support, warranty, indemnity, or other liability obligations and/or rights consistent with this License. However, in accepting such obligations, You may act only on Your own behalf and on Your sole responsibility, not on behalf of any other Contributor, and only if You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold each Contributor harmless for any liability incurred by, or claims asserted against, such Contributor by reason of your accepting any such warranty or additional liability. END OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPENDIX: How to apply the Apache License to your work. To apply the Apache License to your work, attach the following boilerplate notice, with the fields enclosed by brackets "[]" replaced with your own identifying information. (Don't include the brackets!) The text should be enclosed in the appropriate comment syntax for the file format. We also recommend that a file or class name and description of purpose be included on the same "printed page" as the copyright notice for easier identification within third-party archives. If you or your agent or exclusive licensee institute or order or agree to the institution of patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that this implementation of Go or any code incorporated within this implementation of Go constitutes direct or contributory patent infringement, or inducement of patent infringement, then any patent rights granted to you under this License for this implementation of Go shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed. ---------- (separator) ---------- == Dependency golang.org/x/net == License Type Copyright 2009 The Go Authors. Definitions. "License" shall mean the terms and conditions for use, reproduction, and distribution as defined by Sections 1 through 9 of this document. "Licensor" shall mean the copyright owner or entity authorized by the copyright owner that is granting the License. "Legal Entity" shall mean the union of the acting entity and all other entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with that entity. For the purposes of this definition, "control" means (i) the power, direct or indirect, to cause the direction or management of such entity, whether by contract or otherwise, or (ii) ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of the outstanding shares, or (iii) beneficial ownership of such entity. "You" (or |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | "Your") shall mean an individual or Legal Entity exercising permissions granted by this License. "Source" form shall mean the preferred form for making modifications, including but not limited to software source code, documentation source, and configuration files. "Object" form shall mean any form resulting from mechanical transformation or translation of a Source form, including but not limited to compiled object code, generated documentation, and conversions to other media types. "Work" shall mean the work of authorship, whether in Source or Object form, made available under the License, as indicated by a copyright notice that is included in or attached to the work (an example is provided in the Appendix below). "Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether in Source or Object form, that is based on (or derived from) the Work and for which the editorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modifications represent, as a whole, an original work of authorship. For the purposes of this License, Derivative Works shall not include works that remain separable from, or merely link (or bind by name) to the interfaces of, the Work and Derivative Works thereof. "Contribution" shall mean any work of authorship, including the original version of the Work and any modifications or additions to that Work or Derivative Works thereof, that is intentionally submitted to Licensor for inclusion in the Work by the copyright owner or by an individual or Legal Entity authorized to submit on behalf of the copyright owner. For the purposes of this definition, "submitted" means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sent to the Licensor or its representatives, including but not limited to communication on electronic mailing lists, source code control systems, and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, the Licensor for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, but excluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwise designated in writing by the copyright owner as "Not a Contribution." "Contributor" shall mean Licensor and any individual or Legal Entity on behalf of whom a Contribution has been received by Licensor and subsequently incorporated within the Work. 2. Grant of Copyright License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable copyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display, publicly perform, sublicense, and distribute the Work and such Derivative Works in Source or Object form. 3. Grant of Patent License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable (except as stated in this section) patent license to make, have made, use, offer |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | to sell, sell, import, and otherwise transfer the Work, where such license applies only to those patent claims licensable by such Contributor that are necessarily infringed by their Contribution(s) alone or by combination of their Contribution(s) with the Work to which such Contribution(s) was submitted. If You institute patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Work or a Contribution incorporated within the Work constitutes direct or contributory patent infringement, then any patent licenses granted to You under this License for that Work shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed. 4. Redistribution. You may reproduce and distribute copies of the Work or Derivative Works thereof in any medium, with or without modifications, and in Source or Object form, provided that You meet the following conditions: (a) You must give any other recipients of the Work or Derivative Works a copy of this License; and (b) You must cause any modified files to carry prominent notices stating that You changed the files; and (c) You must retain, in the Source form of any Derivative Works that You distribute, all copyright, patent, trademark, and attribution notices from the Source form of the Work, excluding those notices that do not pertain to any part of the Derivative Works; and (d) If the Work includes a "NOTICE" text file as part of its distribution, then any Derivative Works that You distribute must include a readable copy of the attribution notices contained within such NOTICE file, excluding those notices that do not pertain to any part of the Derivative Works, in at least one of the following places: within a NOTICE text file distributed as part of the Derivative Works; within the Source form or documentation, if provided along with the Derivative Works; or, within a display generated by the Derivative Works, if and wherever such third-party notices normally appear. The contents of the NOTICE file are for informational purposes only and do not modify the License. You may add Your own attribution notices within Derivative Works that You distribute, alongside or as an addendum to the NOTICE text from the Work, provided that such additional attribution notices cannot be construed as modifying the License. You may add Your own copyright statement to Your modifications and may provide additional or different license terms and conditions for use, reproduction, or distribution of Your modifications, or for any such Derivative Works as a whole, provided Your use, reproduction, and distribution of the Work otherwise complies with the conditions stated in this License. 5. Submission of Contributions. Unless You explicitly state otherwise, any Contribution intentionally submitted for inclusion in the Work by You to the Licensor shall be under the terms and conditions of this License, without any additional terms or conditions. Notwithstanding the |

|---|---|---|
| | | above, nothing herein shall supersede or modify the terms of any separate license agreement you may have executed with Licensor regarding such Contributions. 6. Trademarks. This License does not grant permission to use the trade names, trademarks, service marks, or product names of the Licensor, except as required for reasonable and customary use in describing the origin of the Work and reproducing the content of the NOTICE file. 7. Disclaimer of Warranty. Unless required by applicable law or agreed to in writing, Licensor provides the Work (and each Contributor provides its Contributions) on an "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, either express or implied, including, without limitation, any warranties or conditions of TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. You are solely responsible for determining the appropriateness of using or redistributing the Work and assume any risks associated with Your exercise of permissions under this License. 8. Limitation of Liability. In no event and under no legal theory, whether in tort (including negligence), contract, or otherwise, unless required by applicable law (such as deliberate and grossly negligent acts) or agreed to in writing, shall any Contributor be liable to You for damages, including any direct, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages of any character arising as a result of this License or out of the use or inability to use the Work (including but not limited to damages for loss of goodwill, work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction, or any and all other commercial damages or losses), even if such Contributor has been advised of the possibility of such damages. 9. Accepting Warranty or Additional Liability. While redistributing the Work or Derivative Works thereof, You may choose to offer, and charge a fee for, acceptance of support, warranty, indemnity, or other liability obligations and/or rights consistent with this License. However, in accepting such obligations, You may act only on Your own behalf and on Your sole responsibility, not on behalf of any other Contributor, and only if You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold each Contributor harmless for any liability incurred by, or claims asserted against, such Contributor by reason of your accepting any such warranty or additional liability. "Legal Entity" shall mean the union of the acting entity and all other entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with that entity. For the purposes of this definition, "control" means (i) the power, direct or indirect, to cause the direction or management of such entity, whether by contract or otherwise, or (ii) ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of the outstanding shares, |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | or (iii) beneficial ownership of such entity. "You" (or "Your") shall mean an individual or Legal Entity exercising permissions granted by this License. "Source" form shall mean the preferred form for making modifications, including but not limited to software source code, documentation source, and configuration files. "Object" form shall mean any form resulting from mechanical transformation or translation of a Source form, including but not limited to compiled object code, generated documentation, and conversions to other media types. "Work" shall mean the work of authorship, whether in Source or Object form, made available under the License, as indicated by a copyright notice that is included in or attached to the work (an example is provided in the Appendix below). "Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether in Source or Object form, that is based on (or derived from) the Work and for which the editorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modifications represent, as a whole, an original work of authorship. For the purposes of this License, Derivative Works shall not include works that remain separable from, or merely link (or bind by name) to the interfaces of, the Work and Derivative Works thereof. "Contribution" shall mean any work of authorship, including the original version of the Work and any modifications or additions to that Work or Derivative Works thereof, that is intentionally submitted to Licensor for inclusion in the Work by the copyright owner or by an individual or Legal Entity authorized to submit on behalf of the copyright owner. For the purposes of this definition, "submitted" means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sent to the Licensor or its representatives, including but not limited to communication on electronic mailing lists, source code control systems, and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, the Licensor for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, but excluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwise designated in writing by the copyright owner as "Not a Contribution." "Contributor" shall mean Licensor and any individual or Legal Entity on behalf of whom a Contribution has been received by Licensor and subsequently incorporated within the Work. 2. Grant of Copyright License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable copyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display, publicly perform, sublicense, and distribute the Work and such Derivative Works in Source or Object form. 3. Grant of Patent License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable (except as stated in this |

|---|---|---|
| | | section) patent license to make, have made, use, offer to sell, sell, import, and otherwise transfer the Work, where such license applies only to those patent claims licensable by such Contributor that are necessarily infringed by their Contribution(s) alone or by combination of their Contribution(s) with the Work to which such Contribution(s) was submitted. If You institute patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Work or a Contribution incorporated within the Work constitutes direct or contributory patent infringement, then any patent licenses granted to You under this License for that Work shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed. 4. Redistribution. You may reproduce and distribute copies of the Work or Derivative Works thereof in any medium, with or without modifications, and in Source or Object form, provided that You meet the following conditions: (a) You must give any other recipients of the Work or Derivative Works a copy of this License; and (b) You must cause any modified files to carry prominent notices stating that You changed the files; and (c) You must retain, in the Source form of any Derivative Works that You distribute, all copyright, patent, trademark, and attribution notices from the Source form of the Work, excluding those notices that do not pertain to any part of the Derivative Works; and (d) If the Work includes a "NOTICE" text file as part of its distribution, then any Derivative Works that You distribute must include a readable copy of the attribution notices contained within such NOTICE file, excluding those notices that do not pertain to any part of the Derivative Works, in at least one of the following places: within a NOTICE text file distributed as part of the Derivative Works; within the Source form or documentation, if provided along with the Derivative Works; or, within a display generated by the Derivative Works, if and wherever such third-party notices normally appear. The contents of the NOTICE file are for informational purposes only and do not modify the License. You may add Your own attribution notices within Derivative Works that You distribute, alongside or as an addendum to the NOTICE text from the Work, provided that such additional attribution notices cannot be construed as modifying the License. You may add Your own copyright statement to Your modifications and may provide additional or different license terms and conditions for use, reproduction, or distribution of Your modifications, or for any such Derivative Works as a whole, provided Your use, reproduction, and distribution of the Work otherwise complies with the conditions stated in this License. 5. Submission of Contributions. Unless You explicitly state otherwise, any Contribution intentionally submitted for inclusion in the Work by You to the Licensor shall be under the terms and conditions of this License, without any |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | additional terms or conditions. Notwithstanding the above, nothing herein shall supersede or modify the terms of any separate license agreement you may have executed with Licensor regarding such Contributions. 6. Trademarks. This License does not grant permission to use the trade names, trademarks, service marks, or product names of the Licensor, except as required for reasonable and customary use in describing the origin of the Work and reproducing the content of the NOTICE file. 7. Disclaimer of Warranty. Unless required by applicable law or agreed to in writing, Licensor provides the Work (and each Contributor provides its Contributions) on an "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, either express or implied, including, without limitation, any warranties or conditions of TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. You are solely responsible for determining the appropriateness of using or redistributing the Work and assume any risks associated with Your exercise of permissions under this License. 8. Limitation of Liability. In no event and under no legal theory, whether in tort (including negligence), contract, or otherwise, unless required by applicable law (such as deliberate and grossly negligent acts) or agreed to in writing, shall any Contributor be liable to You for damages, including any direct, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages of any character arising as a result of this License or out of the use or inability to use the Work (including but not limited to damages for loss of goodwill, work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction, or any and all other commercial damages or losses), even if such Contributor has been advised of the possibility of such damages. 9. Accepting Warranty or Additional Liability. While redistributing the Work or Derivative Works thereof, You may choose to offer, and charge a fee for, acceptance of support, warranty, indemnity, or other liability obligations and/or rights consistent with this License. However, in accepting such obligations, You may act only on Your own behalf and on Your sole responsibility, not on behalf of any other Contributor, and only if You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold each Contributor harmless for any liability incurred by, or claims asserted against, such Contributor by reason of your accepting any such warranty or additional liability. Definitions."License" shall mean the terms and conditions for use, reproduction, and distribution as defined by Sections 1 through 9 of this document."Licensor" shall mean the copyright owner or entity authorized by the copyright owner that is granting the License."Legal Entity" shall mean the union of the acting entity and all other entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with that entity. For the purposes of this definition, "control" means (i) the power, direct or indirect, to cause the direction or management of such entity, whether by contract or otherwise, or (ii) ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of the outstanding shares, or (iii) beneficial ownership of such entity. |

| | | "You" (or "Your") shall mean an individual or Legal Entity exercising permissions granted by this License."Source" form shall mean the preferred form for making modifications, including but not limited to software source code, documentation source, and configuration files."Object" form shall mean any form resulting from mechanical transformation or translation of a Source form, including but not limited to compiled object code, generated documentation, and conversions to other media types."Work" shall mean the work of authorship, whether in Source or Object form, made available under the License, as indicated by a copyright notice that is included in or attached to the work (an example is provided in the Appendix below)."Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether in Source or Object form, that is based on (or derived from) the Work and for which the editorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modifications represent, as a whole, an original work of authorship. For the purposes of this License, Derivative Works shall not include works that remain separable from, or merely link (or bind by name) to the interfaces of, the Work and Derivative Works thereof."Contribution" shall mean any work of authorship, including the original version of the Work and any modifications or additions to that Work or Derivative Works thereof, that is intentionally submitted to Licensor for inclusion in the Work by the copyright owner or by an individual or Legal Entity authorized to submit on behalf of the copyright owner. For the purposes of this definition, "submitted" means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sent to the Licensor or its representatives, including but not limited to communication on electronic mailing lists, source code control systems, and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, the Licensor for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, but excluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwise designated in writing by the copyright owner as "Not a Contribution.""Contributor" shall mean Licensor and any individual or Legal Entity on behalf of whom a Contribution has been received by Licensor and subsequently incorporated within the Work.2. Grant of Patent License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable (except as stated in this section) patent license to make, have made, use, offer to sell, sell, import, and otherwise transfer the Work, where such license applies only to those patent claims licensable by such Contributor that are necessarily infringed by their Contribution(s) alone or by combination of their Contribution(s) with the Work to which such Contribution(s) was submitted. If You institute patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Work or a Contribution incorporated within the Work constitutes direct or contributory patent infringement, then any patent licenses granted to You under this License for that Work shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed.4. | | | TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR USE, REPRODUCTION, AND DISTRIBUTION1. Definitions."License" shall mean the terms and conditions for use, reproduction,and distribution as defined by Sections 1 through 9 of this document."Licensor" shall mean the copyright owner or entity authorized bythe copyright owner that is granting the License."Legal Entity" shall mean the union of the acting entity and allother entities that control, are controlled by, or are under commoncontrol with that entity. For the purposes of this definition,"control" means (i) the power, direct or indirect, to cause thedirection or management of such entity, whether by contract orotherwise, or (ii) ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of theoutstanding shares, or (iii) beneficial ownership of such entity."You" (or "Your") shall mean an individual or Legal Entityexercising permissions granted by this License."Source" form shall mean the preferred form for making modifications,including but not limited to software source code, documentationsource, and configuration files."Object" form shall mean any form resulting from mechanicaltransformation or translation of a Source form, including butnot limited to compiled object code, generated documentation,and conversions to other media types."Work" shall mean the work of authorship, whether in Source orObject form, made available under the License, as indicated by acopyright notice that is included in or attached to the work(an example is provided in the Appendix below)."Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | in Source or Objectform, that is based on (or derived from) the Work and for which theeditorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modificationsrepresent, as a whole, an original work of authorship. For the purposesof this License, Derivative Works shall not include works that remainseparable from, or merely link (or bind by name) to the interfaces of,the Work and Derivative Works thereof."Contribution" shall mean any work of authorship, includingthe original version of the Work and any modifications or additionsto that Work or Derivative Works thereof, that is intentionallysubmitted to Licensor for inclusion in the Work by the copyright owneror by an individual or Legal Entity authorized to submit on behalf ofthe copyright owner. For the purposes of this definition, "submitted"means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sentto the Licensor or its representatives, including but not limited tocommunication on electronic mailing lists, source code control systems,and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, theLicensor for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, butexcluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwisedesignated in writing by the copyright owner as "Not a Contribution.""Contributor" shall mean Licensor and any individual or Legal Entityon behalf of whom a Contribution has been received by Licensor andsubsequently incorporated within the Work.2. Grant of Copyright License. Subject to the terms and conditions ofthis License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual,worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocablecopyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of,publicly display, publicly perform, sublicense, and distribute the |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Work and such Derivative Works in Source or Object form.3. Grant of Patent License. Subject to the terms and conditions ofthis License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual,worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable(except as stated in this section) patent license to make, have made,use, offer to sell, sell, import, and otherwise transfer the Work,where such license applies only to those patent claims licensableby such Contributor that are necessarily infringed by theirContribution(s) alone or by combination of their Contribution(s)with the Work to which such Contribution(s) was submitted. If Youinstitute patent litigation against any entity (including across-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Workor a Contribution incorporated within the Work constitutes director contributory patent infringement, then any patent licensesgranted to You under this License for that Work shall terminateas of the date such litigation is filed.4. Redistribution. You may reproduce and distribute copies of theWork or Derivative Works thereof in any medium, with or withoutmodifications, and in Source or Object form, provided that Youmeet the following conditions:(a) You must give any other recipients of the Work orDerivative Works a copy of this License; and(b) You must cause any modified files to carry prominent noticesstating that You changed the files; and(c) You must retain, in the Source form of any Derivative Worksthat You distribute, all copyright, patent, trademark, andattribution notices from the Source form of the Work,excluding those notices that do not pertain to |

|---|---|---|
| | | any part ofthe Derivative Works; and(d) If the Work includes a "NOTICE" text file as part of itsdistribution, then any Derivative Works that You distribute mustinclude a readable copy of the attribution notices containedwithin such NOTICE file, excluding those notices that do notpertain to any part of the Derivative Works, in at least oneof the following places: within a NOTICE text file distributedas part of the Derivative Works; within the Source form ordocumentation, if provided along with the Derivative Works; or,within a display generated by the Derivative Works, if andwherever such third-party notices normally appear. The contentsof the NOTICE file are for informational purposes only anddo not modify the License. You may add Your own attributionnotices within Derivative Works that You distribute, alongsideor as an addendum to the NOTICE text from the Work, providedthat such additional attribution notices cannot be construedas modifying the License.You may add Your own copyright statement to Your modifications andmay provide additional or different license terms and conditionsfor use, reproduction, or distribution of Your modifications, orfor any such Derivative Works as a whole, provided Your use,reproduction, and distribution of the Work otherwise complies withthe conditions stated in this License.5. Submission of Contributions. Unless You explicitly state otherwise,any Contribution intentionally submitted for inclusion in the Workby You to the Licensor shall be under the terms and conditions ofthis License, without any additional terms or conditions.Notwithstanding the above, nothing herein shall |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | supersede or modifythe terms of any separate license agreement you may have executedwith Licensor regarding such Contributions.6. Trademarks. This License does not grant permission to use the tradenames, trademarks, service marks, or product names of the Licensor,except as required for reasonable and customary use in describing theorigin of the Work and reproducing the content of the NOTICE file.7. Disclaimer of Warranty. Unless required by applicable law oragreed to in writing, Licensor provides the Work (and eachContributor provides its Contributions) on an "AS IS" BASIS,WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, either express orimplied, including, without limitation, any warranties or conditionsof TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, or FITNESS FOR APARTICULAR PURPOSE. You are solely responsible for determining theappropriateness of using or redistributing the Work and assume anyrisks associated with Your exercise of permissions under this License.8. Limitation of Liability. In no event and under no legal theory,whether in tort (including negligence), contract, or otherwise,unless required by applicable law (such as deliberate and grosslynegligent acts) or agreed to in writing, shall any Contributor beliable to You for damages, including any direct, indirect, special,incidental, or consequential damages of any character arising as aresult of this License or out of the use or inability to use theWork (including but not limited to damages for loss of goodwill,work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction, or any and allother commercial damages or losses), even if such Contributorhas been advised of the possibility of such damages. |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | 9. Accepting Warranty or Additional Liability. While redistributingthe Work or Derivative Works thereof, You may choose to offer,and charge a fee for, acceptance of support, warranty, indemnity,or other liability obligations and/or rights consistent with thisLicense. However, in accepting such obligations, You may act onlyon Your own behalf and on Your sole responsibility, not on behalfof any other Contributor, and only if You agree to indemnify,defend, and hold each Contributor harmless for any liabilityincurred by, or claims asserted against, such Contributor by reasonof your accepting any such warranty or additional liability.END OF TERMS AND CONDITIONSAPPENDIX: How to apply the Apache License to your work.To apply the Apache License to your work, attach the followingboilerplate notice, with the fields enclosed by brackets "[]"replaced with your own identifying information. Definitions1.1. "Contributor" means each individual or legal entity that creates,contributes to the creation of, or owns Covered Software.1.2. "Contributor Version" means the combination of the Contributions ofothers (if any) used by a Contributor and that particular Contributor'sContribution.1.3. "Contribution" means Covered Software of a particular Contributor. |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | 1.4. "Covered Software" means Source Code Form to which the initialContributor has attached the notice in Exhibit A, the Executable Form of suchSource Code Form, and Modifications of such Source Code Form, in each caseincluding portions thereof.1.5. "Incompatible With Secondary Licenses" means(a) that the initial Contributor has attached the notice described in ExhibitB to the Covered Software; or(b) that the Covered Software was made available under the terms of version1.1 or earlier of the License, but not also under the terms of a SecondaryLicense.1.6. "Executable Form" means any form of the work other than Source Code Form.1.7. "Larger Work" means a work that combines Covered Software with othermaterial, in a separate file or files, that is not Covered Software.1.8. "License" means this document.1.9. "Licensable" means having the right to grant, to the maximum extentpossible, whether at the time of the initial grant or subsequently, any andall of the rights conveyed by this License.1.10. "Modifications" means any of the following:(a) any file in Source Code Form that results from an addition to, deletionfrom, or modification of the contents of Covered Software; or(b) any new file in Source Code Form that contains any Covered Software.1.11. "Patent Claims" of a Contributor means any patent claim(s), includingwithout limitation, method, process, and apparatus claims, in any patentLicensable by such Contributor that would be infringed, but for the grant ofthe License, by the making, using, selling, offering for sale, having made,import, or transfer of either its Contributions or its |

"Secondary License" means either the GNU General Public License, Version2.0, the GNU Lesser General Public License, Version 2.1, the GNU AfferoGeneral Public License, Version 3.0, or any later versions of those licenses.1.13. "Source Code Form" means the form of the work preferred for makingmodifications.1.14. "You" (or "Your") means an individual or a legal entity exercisingrights under this License. For legal entities, "You" includes any entity thatcontrols, is controlled by, or is under common control with You. For purposesof this definition, "control" means (a) the power, direct or indirect, tocause the direction or management of such entity, whether by contract orotherwise, or (b) ownership of more than fifty percent (50%) of theoutstanding shares or beneficial ownership of such entity.2. License Grants and Conditions2.1. GrantsEach Contributor hereby grants You a world-wide, royalty-free, non-exclusivelicense:(a) under intellectual property rights (other than patent or trademark)Licensable by such Contributor to use, reproduce, make available, modify,display, perform, distribute, and otherwise exploit its Contributions, eitheron an unmodified basis, with Modifications, or as part of a Larger Work; and(b) under Patent Claims of such Contributor to make, use, sell, offer forsale, have made, import, and otherwise transfer either its Contributions orits Contributor Version.2.2. Effective DateThe licenses granted in Section 2.1 with respect to any Contribution becomeeffective for each Contribution on the date the |

No additional rights or licenses will be impliedfrom thedistribution or licensing of Covered Software under thisLicense.Notwithstanding Section 2.1(b) above, no patentlicense is granted by aContributor:(a) for any code that a Contributor has removed fromCovered Software; or(b) for infringements caused by: (i) Your and any otherthird party'smodifications of Covered Software, or (ii) thecombination of itsContributions with other software (except as part of itsContributor Version);or(c) under Patent Claims infringed by Covered Softwarein the absence of itsContributions.This License does not grant any rights in thetrademarks, service marks, orlogos of any Contributor (except as may be necessaryto comply with the noticerequirements in Section 3.4).2.4. Subsequent LicensesNo Contributor makes additional grants as a result ofYour choice todistribute the Covered Software under a subsequentversion of this License(see Section 10.2) or under the terms of a SecondaryLicense (if permittedunder the terms of Section 3.3).2.5. RepresentationEach Contributor represents that the Contributorbelieves its Contributionsare its original creation(s) or it has sufficient rights togrant the rightsto its Contributions conveyed by this License.2.6. Fair Use |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | This License is not intended to limit any rights You have under applicablecopyright doctrines of fair use, fair dealing, or other equivalents.2.7. ConditionsSections 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, and 3.4 are conditions of the licenses granted inSection 2.1.3. Responsibilities3.1. Distribution of Source FormAll distribution of Covered Software in Source Code Form, including anyModifications that You create or to which You contribute, must be under theterms of this License. You must inform recipients that the Source Code Form ofthe Covered Software is governed by the terms of this License, and how theycan obtain a copy of this License. You may not attempt to alter or restrictthe recipients' rights in the Source Code Form.3.2. Distribution of Executable FormIf You distribute Covered Software in Executable Form then:(a) such Covered Software must also be made available in Source Code Form, asdescribed in Section 3.1, and You must inform recipients of the ExecutableForm how they can obtain a copy of such Source Code Form by reasonable meansin a timely manner, at a charge no more than the cost of distribution to therecipient; and(b) You may distribute such Executable Form under the terms of this License,or sublicense it under different terms, provided that the license for theExecutable Form does not attempt to limit or alter the recipients' rightsin the Source Code Form under this License.3.3. Distribution of a Larger WorkYou may create and distribute a Larger Work under terms of Your choice,provided that You also comply with the requirements of this License for the |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Covered Software. If the Larger Work is a combination of Covered Software witha work governed by one or more Secondary Licenses, and the Covered Software isnot Incompatible With Secondary Licenses, this License permits You toadditionally distribute such Covered Software under the terms of suchSecondary License(s), so that the recipient of the Larger Work may, at theiroption, further distribute the Covered Software under the terms of either thisLicense or such Secondary License(s).3.4. NoticesYou may not remove or alter the substance of any license notices (includingcopyright notices, patent notices, disclaimers of warranty, or limitations ofliability) contained within the Source Code Form of the Covered Software,except that You may alter any license notices to the extent required to remedyknown factual inaccuracies.3.5. Application of Additional TermsYou may choose to offer, and to charge a fee for, warranty, support, indemnityor liability obligations to one or more recipients of Covered Software.However, You may do so only on Your own behalf, and not on behalf of anyContributor. You must make it absolutely clear that any such warranty,support, indemnity, or liability obligation is offered by You alone, and Youhereby agree to indemnify every Contributor for any liability incurred by suchContributor as a result of warranty, support, indemnity or liability terms Youoffer. You may include additional disclaimers of warranty and limitations ofliability specific to any jurisdiction.4. Inability to Comply Due to Statute or RegulationIf it is impossible for You to comply with any of the terms of this Licensewith respect to some or all of the Covered Software due to statute, judicialorder, or regulation then You must: (a) comply with the terms of this Licenseto the maximum extent possible; and (b) describe the limitations and the codethey affect. Such description must be placed in a text |

|---|---|---|
| | | file included with alldistributions of the Covered Software under this License. Except to the extentprohibited by statute or regulation, such description must be sufficientlydetailed for a recipient of ordinary skill to be able to understand it.5. Termination5.1. The rights granted under this License will terminate automatically if Youfail to comply with any of its terms. However, if You become compliant, thenthe rights granted under this License from a particular Contributor arereinstated (a) provisionally, unless and until such Contributor explicitly andfinally terminates Your grants, and (b) on an ongoing basis, if suchContributor fails to notify You of the non-compliance by some reasonable meansprior to 60 days after You have come back into compliance. Moreover, Yourgrants from a particular Contributor are reinstated on an ongoing basis ifsuch Contributor notifies You of the non-compliance by some reasonable means,this is the first time You have received notice of non-compliance with thisLicense from such Contributor, and You become compliant prior to 30 days afterYour receipt of the notice.5.2. If You initiate litigation against any entity by asserting a patentinfringement claim (excluding declaratory judgment actions, counter-claims,and cross-claims) alleging that a Contributor Version directly or indirectlyinfringes any patent, then the rights granted to You by any and allContributors for the Covered Software under Section 2.1 of this License shallterminate.5.3. In the event of termination under Sections 5.1 or 5.2 above, all end userlicense agreements (excluding distributors and resellers) which have beenvalidly granted by You or Your distributors under this License prior totermination shall survive termination.6. Disclaimer of WarrantyCovered Software is provided under this License on an |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | "as is" basis, withoutwarranty of any kind, either expressed, implied, or statutory, including,without limitation, warranties that the Covered Software is free of defects,merchantable, fit for a particular purpose or non-infringing. The entire riskas to the quality and performance of the Covered Software is with You. Shouldany Covered Software prove defective in any respect, You (not any Contributor)assume the cost of any necessary servicing, repair, or correction. Thisdisclaimer of warranty constitutes an essential part of this License. No useof any Covered Software is authorized under this License except under thisdisclaimer.7. Limitation of LiabilityUnder no circumstances and under no legal theory, whether tort (includingnegligence), contract, or otherwise, shall any Contributor, or anyone whodistributes Covered Software as permitted above, be liable to You for anydirect, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages of anycharacter including, without limitation, damages for lost profits, loss ofgoodwill, work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction, or any and all othercommercial damages or losses, even if such party shall have been informed ofthe possibility of such damages. This limitation of liability shall not applyto liability for death or personal injury resulting from such party'snegligence to the extent applicable law prohibits such limitation. Somejurisdictions do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental orconsequential damages, so this exclusion and limitation may not apply to You.8. LitigationAny litigation relating to this License may be brought only in the courts of ajurisdiction where the defendant maintains its principal place of business andsuch litigation shall be governed by laws of that jurisdiction, withoutreference to its conflict-of-law provisions. Nothing in this Section shallprevent a party's ability to bring cross-claims or counter-claims. |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | 9. MiscellaneousThis License represents the complete agreement concerning the subject matterhereof. If any provision of this License is held to be unenforceable, suchprovision shall be reformed only to the extent necessary to make itenforceable. Any law or regulation which provides that the language of acontract shall be construed against the drafter shall not be used to construethis License against a Contributor.10. Versions of the License10.1. New VersionsMozilla Foundation is the license steward. Except as provided in Section 10.3,no one other than the license steward has the right to modify or publish newversions of this License. Each version will be given a distinguishing versionnumber.10.2. Effect of New VersionsYou may distribute the Covered Software under the terms of the version of theLicense under which You originally received the Covered Software, or under theterms of any subsequent version published by the license steward.10.3. Modified VersionsIf you create software not governed by this License, and you want to create anew license for such software, you may create and use a modified version ofthis License if you rename the license and remove any references to the nameof the license steward (except to note that such modified license differs fromthis License).10.4. Distributing Source Code Form that is Incompatible With SecondaryLicensesIf You choose to distribute Source Code Form that is Incompatible WithSecondary Licenses under the terms of this version of the License, the noticedescribed in Exhibit B of this License must be |

Cryptography

Content may contain encryption software. The country in which you are currently may have restrictions on the import, possession, and use, and/or re-export to another country, of encryption software. BEFORE using any encryption software, please check the country's laws, regulations and policies concerning the import, possession, or use, and re-export of encryption software, to see if this is permitted.

| Oracle | angus-mail | Licensing InformationCopyright: Oracle License: EPL 2.0 + GPL v.2 with CPE ./LICENSE.md # Eclipse Public License - v 2.0 THE ACCOMPANYING PROGRAM IS PROVIDED UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS ECLIPSE PUBLIC LICENSE ("AGREEMENT"). ANY USE, REPRODUCTION OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM CONSTITUTES RECIPIENT'S ACCEPTANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT. 1. DEFINITIONS "Contribution" means: a) in the case of the initial Contributor, the initial content Distributed under this Agreement, and b) in the case of each subsequent Contributor: i) changes to the Program, and ii) additions to the Program; where such changes and/or additions to the Program originate from and are Distributed by that particular Contributor. A Contribution "originates" from a Contributor if it was added to the Program by such Contributor itself or anyone acting on such Contributor's behalf. Contributions do not include changes or additions to the Program that are not Modified Works. "Contributor" means any person or entity that Distributes the Program. "Licensed Patents" mean patent claims licensable by a Contributor which are necessarily infringed by the use or sale of its Contribution alone or when combined with the Program. "Program" means the Contributions Distributed in accordance with this Agreement. "Recipient" means anyone who receives the Program under this Agreement or any Secondary License (as applicable), including Contributors. "Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether in |

|---|---|---|
| | | Source Code or other form, that is based on (or derived from) the Program and for which the editorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modifications represent, as a whole, an original work of authorship. "Modified Works" shall mean any work in Source Code or other form that results from an addition to, deletion from, or modification of the contents of the Program, including, for purposes of clarity any new file in Source Code form that contains any contents of the Program. Modified Works shall not include works that contain only declarations, interfaces, types, classes, structures, or files of the Program solely in each case in order to link to, bind by name, or subclass the Program or Modified Works thereof. "Distribute" means the acts of a) distributing or b) making available in any manner that enables the transfer of a copy. "Source Code" means the form of a Program preferred for making modifications, including but not limited to software source code, documentation source, and configuration files. "Secondary License" means either the GNU General Public License, Version 2.0, or any later versions of that license, including any exceptions or additional permissions as identified by the initial Contributor. 2. GRANT OF RIGHTS a) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor hereby grants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display, publicly perform, Distribute and sublicense the Contribution of such Contributor, if any, and such Derivative Works. b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor hereby grants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free patent license under Licensed Patents to make, use, sell, offer to sell, import and otherwise transfer the Contribution of such Contributor, if any, in Source Code or other form. This patent license shall apply to the combination of the Contribution and the Program if, at the time the Contribution is added by the Contributor, such addition of the Contribution causes such combination to be covered by the Licensed Patents. The patent license shall not apply to any other combinations which include the Contribution. No hardware per se is licensed hereunder. c) Recipient understands that although each Contributor grants the licenses to its Contributions set forth herein, no assurances are provided by any Contributor that the Program does not infringe the patent or other intellectual property rights of any other entity. Each Contributor disclaims any liability to Recipient for claims brought by any other entity based on infringement of intellectual property rights or otherwise. As a condition to exercising the rights and licenses granted hereunder, each Recipient hereby assumes sole responsibility to secure any other intellectual property rights needed, if any. For example, if a third party patent license is required to allow |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Recipient to Distribute the Program, it is Recipient's responsibility to acquire that license before distributing the Program. d) Each Contributor represents that to its knowledge it has sufficient copyright rights in its Contribution, if any, to grant the copyright license set forth in this Agreement. e) Notwithstanding the terms of any Secondary License, no Contributor makes additional grants to any Recipient (other than those set forth in this Agreement) as a result of such Recipient's receipt of the Program under the terms of a Secondary License (if permitted under the terms of Section 3). 3. REQUIREMENTS 3.1 If a Contributor Distributes the Program in any form, then: a) the Program must also be made available as Source Code, in accordance with section 3.2, and the Contributor must accompany the Program with a statement that the Source Code for the Program is available under this Agreement, and informs Recipients how to obtain it in a reasonable manner on or through a medium customarily used for software exchange; and b) the Contributor may Distribute the Program under a license different than this Agreement, provided that such license: i) effectively disclaims on behalf of all other Contributors all warranties and conditions, express and implied, including warranties or conditions of title and non-infringement, and implied warranties or conditions of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose; ii) effectively excludes on behalf of all other Contributors all liability for damages, including direct, indirect, special, incidental and consequential damages, such as lost profits; iii) does not attempt to limit or alter the recipients' rights in the Source Code under section 3.2; and iv) requires any subsequent distribution of the Program by any party to be under a license that satisfies the requirements of this section 3. 3.2 When the Program is Distributed as Source Code: a) it must be made available under this Agreement, or if the Program (i) is combined with other material in a separate file or files made available under a Secondary License, and (ii) the initial Contributor attached to the Source Code the notice described in Exhibit A of this Agreement, then the Program may be made available under the terms of such Secondary Licenses, and b) a copy of this Agreement must be included with each copy of the Program. 3.3 Contributors may not remove or alter any copyright, patent, trademark, attribution notices, disclaimers of warranty, or limitations of liability ("notices") contained within the Program from any copy of the Program which they Distribute, provided that Contributors may add their own appropriate notices. 4. COMMERCIAL DISTRIBUTION Commercial distributors of software may accept certain responsibilities with respect to end users, business partners and the like. While this license is intended to facilitate the commercial use of the Program, the Contributor who includes the Program in a commercial |

|---|---|---|
| | | product offering should do so in a manner which does not create potential liability for other Contributors. Therefore, if a Contributor includes the Program in a commercial product offering, such Contributor ("Commercial Contributor") hereby agrees to defend and indemnify every other Contributor ("Indemnified Contributor") against any losses, damages and costs (collectively "Losses") arising from claims, lawsuits and other legal actions brought by a third party against the Indemnified Contributor to the extent caused by the acts or omissions of such Commercial Contributor in connection with its distribution of the Program in a commercial product offering. The obligations in this section do not apply to any claims or Losses relating to any actual or alleged intellectual property infringement. In order to qualify, an Indemnified Contributor must: a) promptly notify the Commercial Contributor in writing of such claim, and b) allow the Commercial Contributor to control, and cooperate with the Commercial Contributor in, the defense and any related settlement negotiations. The Indemnified Contributor may participate in any such claim at its own expense. For example, a Contributor might include the Program in a commercial product offering, Product X. That Contributor is then a Commercial Contributor. If that Commercial Contributor then makes performance claims, or offers warranties related to Product X, those performance claims and warranties are such Commercial Contributor's responsibility alone. Under this section, the Commercial Contributor would have to defend claims against the other Contributors related to those performance claims and warranties, and if a court requires any other Contributor to pay any damages as a result, the Commercial Contributor must pay those damages. 5. NO WARRANTY EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE PROGRAM IS PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. Each Recipient is solely responsible for determining the appropriateness of using and distributing the Program and assumes all risks associated with its exercise of rights under this Agreement, including but not limited to the risks and costs of program errors, compliance with applicable laws, damage to or loss of data, programs or equipment, and unavailability or interruption of operations. 6. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NEITHER RECIPIENT NOR ANY CONTRIBUTORS SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LOST PROFITS), HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THE USE OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM OR THE EXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS GRANTED HEREUNDER, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. 7. GENERAL If any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, it shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the terms of this Agreement, and without further action by the parties hereto, such provision shall be reformed to the minimum extent necessary to make such provision valid and enforceable. If Recipient institutes patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Program itself (excluding combinations of the Program with other software or hardware) infringes such Recipient's patent(s), then such Recipient's rights granted under Section 2(b) shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed. All Recipient's rights under this Agreement shall terminate if it fails to comply with any of the material terms or conditions of this Agreement and does not cure such failure in a reasonable period of time after becoming aware of such noncompliance. If all Recipient's rights under this Agreement terminate, Recipient agrees to cease use and distribution of the Program as soon as reasonably practicable. However, Recipient's obligations under this Agreement and any licenses granted by Recipient relating to the Program shall continue and survive. Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute copies of this Agreement, but in order to avoid inconsistency the Agreement is copyrighted and may only be modified in the following manner. The Agreement Steward reserves the right to publish new versions (including revisions) of this Agreement from time to time. No one other than the Agreement Steward has the right to modify this Agreement. The Eclipse Foundation is the initial Agreement Steward. The Eclipse Foundation may assign the responsibility to serve as the Agreement Steward to a suitable separate entity. Each new version of the Agreement will be given a distinguishing version number. The Program (including Contributions) may always be Distributed subject to the version of the Agreement under which it was received. In addition, after a new version of the Agreement is published, Contributor may elect to Distribute the Program (including its Contributions) under the new version. Except as expressly stated in Sections 2(a) and 2(b) above, Recipient receives no rights or licenses to the intellectual property of any Contributor |

|---|---|---|
| | | under this Agreement, whether expressly, by implication, estoppel or otherwise. All rights in the Program not expressly granted under this Agreement are reserved. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to be enforceable by any entity that is not a Contributor or Recipient. No third-party beneficiary rights are created under this Agreement. Exhibit A - Form of Secondary Licenses Notice "This Source Code may also be made available under the following Secondary Licenses when the conditions for such availability set forth in the Eclipse Public License, v. 2.0 are satisfied: {name license(s), version(s), and exceptions or additional permissions here}." Simply including a copy of this Agreement, including this Exhibit A is not sufficient to license the Source Code under Secondary Licenses. If it is not possible or desirable to put the notice in a particular file, then You may include the notice in a location (such as a LICENSE file in a relevant directory) where a recipient would be likely to look for such a notice. You may add additional accurate notices of copyright ownership. --- ## The GNU General Public License (GPL) Version 2, June 1991 Copyright (C) 1989, 1991 Free Software Foundation, Inc. 51 Franklin Street, Fifth Floor Boston, MA 02110-1335 USA Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute verbatim copies of this license document, but changing it is not allowed. Preamble The licenses for most software are designed to take away your freedom to share and change it. By contrast, the GNU General Public License is intended to guarantee your freedom to share and change free software--to make sure the software is free for all its users. This General Public License applies to most of the Free Software Foundation's software and to any other program whose authors commit to using it. (Some other Free Software Foundation software is covered by the GNU Library General Public License instead.) You can apply it to your programs, too. When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom, not price. Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that you have the freedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge for this service if you wish), that you receive source code or can get it if you want it, that you can change the software or use pieces of it in new free programs; and that you know you can do these things. To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbid anyone to deny you these rights or to ask you to surrender the rights. These restrictions translate to certain responsibilities for you if you distribute copies of the software, or if you modify it. For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whether gratis or for a fee, you must give the recipients all the rights that you have. You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get the source code. And you must show them these terms so they know their rights. We protect your rights with two steps: (1) copyright the |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | software, and (2) offer you this license which gives you legal permission to copy, distribute and/or modify the software. Also, for each author's protection and ours, we want to make certain that everyone understands that there is no warranty for this free software. If the software is modified by someone else and passed on, we want its recipients to know that what they have is not the original, so that any problems introduced by others will not reflect on the original authors' reputations. Finally, any free program is threatened constantly by software patents. We wish to avoid the danger that redistributors of a free program will individually obtain patent licenses, in effect making the program proprietary. To prevent this, we have made it clear that any patent must be licensed for everyone's free use or not licensed at all. The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution and modification follow. TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION 0. This License applies to any program or other work which contains a notice placed by the copyright holder saying it may be distributed under the terms of this General Public License. The "Program", below, refers to any such program or work, and a "work based on the Program" means either the Program or any derivative work under copyright law: that is to say, a work containing the Program or a portion of it, either verbatim or with modifications and/or translated into another language. (Hereinafter, translation is included without limitation in the term "modification".) Each licensee is addressed as "you". Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are not covered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act of running the Program is not restricted, and the output from the Program is covered only if its contents constitute a work based on the Program (independent of having been made by running the Program). Whether that is true depends on what the Program does. 1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Program's source code as you receive it, in any medium, provided that you conspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy an appropriate copyright notice and disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all the notices that refer to this License and to the absence of any warranty; and give any other recipients of the Program a copy of this License along with the Program. You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy, and you may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee. 2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Program or any portion of it, thus forming a work based on the Program, and copy and distribute such modifications or work under the terms of Section 1 above, provided that you also meet all of these conditions: a) You must cause the modified files to carry prominent notices stating that you changed the files and the date of any change. b) You must cause |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | any work that you distribute or publish, that in whole or in part contains or is derived from the Program or any part thereof, to be licensed as a whole at no charge to all third parties under the terms of this License. c) If the modified program normally reads commands interactively when run, you must cause it, when started running for such interactive use in the most ordinary way, to print or display an announcement including an appropriate copyright notice and a notice that there is no warranty (or else, saying that you provide a warranty) and that users may redistribute the program under these conditions, and telling the user how to view a copy of this License. (Exception: if the Program itself is interactive but does not normally print such an announcement, your work based on the Program is not required to print an announcement.) These requirements apply to the modified work as a whole. If identifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Program, and can be reasonably considered independent and separate works in themselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to those sections when you distribute them as separate works. But when you distribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work based on the Program, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms of this License, whose permissions for other licensees extend to the entire whole, and thus to each and every part regardless of who wrote it. Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contest your rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is to exercise the right to control the distribution of derivative or collective works based on the Program. In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Program with the Program (or with a work based on the Program) on a volume of a storage or distribution medium does not bring the other work under the scope of this License. 3. You may copy and distribute the Program (or a work based on it, under Section 2) in object code or executable form under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above provided that you also do one of the following: a) Accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readable source code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or, b) Accompany it with a written offer, valid for at least three years, to give any third party, for a charge no more than your cost of physically performing source distribution, a complete machine-readable copy of the corresponding source code, to be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or, c) Accompany it with the information you received as to the offer to distribute corresponding source code. (This alternative is allowed only for noncommercial distribution and only if you received the program in object code or executable |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | form with such an offer, in accord with Subsection b above.) The source code for a work means the preferred form of the work for making modifications to it. For an executable work, complete source code means all the source code for all modules it contains, plus any associated interface definition files, plus the scripts used to control compilation and installation of the executable. However, as a special exception, the source code distributed need not include anything that is normally distributed (in either source or binary form) with the major components (compiler, kernel, and so on) of the operating system on which the executable runs, unless that component itself accompanies the executable. If distribution of executable or object code is made by offering access to copy from a designated place, then offering equivalent access to copy the source code from the same place counts as distribution of the source code, even though third parties are not compelled to copy the source along with the object code. 4. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, or distribute the Program except as expressly provided under this License. Any attempt otherwise to copy, modify, sublicense or distribute the Program is void, and will automatically terminate your rights under this License. However, parties who have received copies, or rights, from you under this License will not have their licenses terminated so long as such parties remain in full compliance. 5. You are not required to accept this License, since you have not signed it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify or distribute the Program or its derivative works. These actions are prohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, by modifying or distributing the Program (or any work based on the Program), you indicate your acceptance of this License to do so, and all its terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifying the Program or works based on it. 6. Each time you redistribute the Program (or any work based on the Program), the recipient automatically receives a license from the original licensor to copy, distribute or modify the Program subject to these terms and conditions. You may not impose any further restrictions on the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein. You are not responsible for enforcing compliance by third parties to this License. 7. If, as a consequence of a court judgment or allegation of patent infringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues), conditions are imposed on you (whether by court order, agreement or otherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do not excuse you from the conditions of this License. If you cannot distribute so as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under this License and any other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence you may not distribute the Program at all. For example, if a patent license would not permit |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | royalty-free redistribution of the Program by all those who receive copies directly or indirectly through you, then the only way you could satisfy both it and this License would be to refrain entirely from distribution of the Program. If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable under any particular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended to apply and the section as a whole is intended to apply in other circumstances. It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe any patents or other property right claims or to contest validity of any such claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting the integrity of the free software distribution system, which is implemented by public license practices. Many people have made generous contributions to the wide range of software distributed through that system in reliance on consistent application of that system; it is up to the author/donor to decide if he or she is willing to distribute software through any other system and a licensee cannot impose that choice. This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed to be a consequence of the rest of this License. 8. If the distribution and/or use of the Program is restricted in certain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, the original copyright holder who places the Program under this License may add an explicit geographical distribution limitation excluding those countries, so that distribution is permitted only in or among countries not thus excluded. In such case, this License incorporates the limitation as if written in the body of this License. 9. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or new versions of the General Public License from time to time. Such new versions will be similar in spirit to the present version, but may differ in detail to address new problems or concerns. Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Program specifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "any later version", you have the option of following the terms and conditions either of that version or of any later version published by the Free Software Foundation. If the Program does not specify a version number of this License, you may choose any version ever published by the Free Software Foundation. 10. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Program into other free programs whose distribution conditions are different, write to the author to ask for permission. For software which is copyrighted by the Free Software Foundation, write to the Free Software Foundation; we sometimes make exceptions for this. Our decision will be guided by the two goals of preserving the free status of all derivatives of our free software and of promoting the sharing and reuse of software generally. NO WARRANTY 11. BECAUSE THE PROGRAM IS LICENSED FREE OF CHARGE, THERE IS NO WARRANTY FOR THE PROGRAM, TO THE EXTENT |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. EXCEPT WHEN OTHERWISE STATED IN WRITING THE COPYRIGHT HOLDERS AND/OR OTHER PARTIES PROVIDE THE PROGRAM "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. THE ENTIRE RISK AS TO THE QUALITY AND PERFORMANCE OF THE PROGRAM IS WITH YOU. SHOULD THE PROGRAM PROVE DEFECTIVE, YOU ASSUME THE COST OF ALL NECESSARY SERVICING, REPAIR OR CORRECTION. 12. IN NO EVENT UNLESS REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW OR AGREED TO IN WRITING WILL ANY COPYRIGHT HOLDER, OR ANY OTHER PARTY WHO MAY MODIFY AND/OR REDISTRIBUTE THE PROGRAM AS PERMITTED ABOVE, BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR DAMAGES, INCLUDING ANY GENERAL, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE THE PROGRAM (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO LOSS OF DATA OR DATA BEING RENDERED INACCURATE OR LOSSES SUSTAINED BY YOU OR THIRD PARTIES OR A FAILURE OF THE PROGRAM TO OPERATE WITH ANY OTHER PROGRAMS), EVEN IF SUCH HOLDER OR OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. END OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS How to Apply These Terms to Your New Programs If you develop a new program, and you want it to be of the greatest possible use to the public, the best way to achieve this is to make it free software which everyone can redistribute and change under these terms. To do so, attach the following notices to the program. It is safest to attach them to the start of each source file to most effectively convey the exclusion of warranty; and each file should have at least the "copyright" line and a pointer to where the full notice is found. One line to give the program's name and a brief idea of what it does. Copyright (C) <year> <name of author> This program is free software; you can redistribute it and/or modify it under the terms of the GNU General Public License as published by the Free Software Foundation; either version 2 of the License, or (at your option) any later version. This program is distributed in the hope that it will be useful, but WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY; without even the implied warranty of MERCHANTABILITY or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. See the GNU General Public License for more details. You should have received a copy of the GNU General Public License along with this program; if not, write to the Free Software Foundation, Inc., 51 Franklin Street, Fifth Floor, Boston, MA 02110-1335 USA Also add |

| | | |

| | | information on how to contact you by electronic and paper mail. If the program is interactive, make it output a short notice like this when it starts in an interactive mode: Gnomovision version 69, Copyright (C) year name of author Gnomovision comes with ABSOLUTELY NO WARRANTY; for details type `show w'. This is free software, and you are welcome to redistribute it under certain conditions; type `show c' for details. The hypothetical commands `show w' and `show c' should show the appropriate parts of the General Public License. Of course, the commands you use may be called something other than `show w' and `show c'; they could even be mouse-clicks or menu items--whatever suits your program. You should also get your employer (if you work as a programmer) or your school, if any, to sign a "copyright disclaimer" for the program, if necessary. Here is a sample; alter the names: Yoyodyne, Inc., hereby disclaims all copyright interest in the program `Gnomovision' (which makes passes at compilers) written by James Hacker. signature of Ty Coon, 1 April 1989 Ty Coon, President of Vice This General Public License does not permit incorporating your program into proprietary programs. If your program is a subroutine library, you may consider it more useful to permit linking proprietary applications with the library. If this is what you want to do, use the GNU Library General Public License instead of this License. --- ## CLASSPATH EXCEPTION Linking this library statically or dynamically with other modules is making a combined work based on this library. Thus, the terms and conditions of the GNU General Public License version 2 cover the whole combination. As a special exception, the copyright holders of this library give you permission to link this library with independent modules to produce an executable, regardless of the license terms of these independent modules, and to copy and distribute the resulting executable under terms of your choice, provided that you also meet, for each linked independent module, the terms and conditions of the license of that module. An independent module is a module which is not derived from or based on this library. If you modify this library, you may extend this exception to your version of the library, but you are not obligated to do so. If you do not wish to do so, delete this exception statement from your version. ---------- Separator ---------- ./NOTICE.md # Notices for Jakarta Mail This content is produced and maintained by the Jakarta Mail project. * Project home: https://projects.eclipse.org/projects/ee4j.mail ## Trademarks Jakarta Mail is a trademark of the Eclipse Foundation. ## Copyright All content is the property of the respective authors or their employers. (Some other Free Software Foundation software is covered by the GNU Library General Public License instead.) You can apply it to your programs, too. When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom, not price. Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that you have the freedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge for this service if you wish), that you receive source code or can get it if you want it, that you can change the software or use pieces of it in new free programs; and that you know you can do these things. To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbid anyone to deny |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | you these rights or to ask you to surrender the rights. These restrictions translate to certain responsibilities for you if you distribute copies of the software, or if you modify it. For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whether gratis or for a fee, you must give the recipients all the rights that you have. You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get the source code. And you must show them these terms so they know their rights. We protect your rights with two steps: (1) copyright the software, and (2) offer you this license which gives you legal permission to copy, distribute and/or modify the software. Also, for each author's protection and ours, we want to make certain that everyone understands that there is no warranty for this free software. If the software is modified by someone else and passed on, we want its recipients to know that what they have is not the original, so that any problems introduced by others will not reflect on the original authors' reputations. Finally, any free program is threatened constantly by software patents. We wish to avoid the danger that redistributors of a free program will individually obtain patent licenses, in effect making the program proprietary. To prevent this, we have made it clear that any patent must be licensed for everyone's free use or not licensed at all. The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution and modification follow. TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION 0. This License applies to any program or other work which contains a notice placed by the copyright holder saying it may be distributed under the terms of this General Public License. The "Program", below, refers to any such program or work, and a "work based on the Program" means either the Program or any derivative work under copyright law: that is to say, a work containing the Program or a portion of it, either verbatim or with modifications and/or translated into another language. (Hereinafter, translation is included without limitation in the term "modification".) Each licensee is addressed as "you". Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are not covered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act of running the Program is not restricted, and the output from the Program is covered only if its contents constitute a work based on the Program (independent of having been made by running the Program). Whether that is true depends on what the Program does. 1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Program's source code as you receive it, in any medium, provided that you conspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy an appropriate copyright notice and disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all the notices that refer to this License and to the absence of any warranty; and give any other recipients of the Program a copy of this License along with the Program. You may charge a fee |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | for the physical act of transferring a copy, and you may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee. 2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Program or any portion of it, thus forming a work based on the Program, and copy and distribute such modifications or work under the terms of Section 1 above, provided that you also meet all of these conditions: a) You must cause the modified files to carry prominent notices stating that you changed the files and the date of any change. b) You must cause any work that you distribute or publish, that in whole or in part contains or is derived from the Program or any part thereof, to be licensed as a whole at no charge to all third parties under the terms of this License. c) If the modified program normally reads commands interactively when run, you must cause it, when started running for such interactive use in the most ordinary way, to print or display an announcement including an appropriate copyright notice and a notice that there is no warranty (or else, saying that you provide a warranty) and that users may redistribute the program under these conditions, and telling the user how to view a copy of this License. (Exception: if the Program itself is interactive but does not normally print such an announcement, your work based on the Program is not required to print an announcement.) These requirements apply to the modified work as a whole. If identifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Program, and can be reasonably considered independent and separate works in themselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to those sections when you distribute them as separate works. But when you distribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work based on the Program, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms of this License, whose permissions for other licensees extend to the entire whole, and thus to each and every part regardless of who wrote it. Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contest your rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is to exercise the right to control the distribution of derivative or collective works based on the Program. In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Program with the Program (or with a work based on the Program) on a volume of a storage or distribution medium does not bring the other work under the scope of this License. 3. You may copy and distribute the Program (or a work based on it, under Section 2) in object code or executable form under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above provided that you also do one of the following: a) Accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readable source code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or, b) Accompany it with a written offer, valid for at least three years, to give any |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | third party, for a charge no more than your cost of physically performing source distribution, a complete machine-readable copy of the corresponding source code, to be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or, c) Accompany it with the information you received as to the offer to distribute corresponding source code. (This alternative is allowed only for noncommercial distribution and only if you received the program in object code or executable form with such an offer, in accord with Subsection b above.) The source code for a work means the preferred form of the work for making modifications to it. For an executable work, complete source code means all the source code for all modules it contains, plus any associated interface definition files, plus the scripts used to control compilation and installation of the executable. However, as a special exception, the source code distributed need not include anything that is normally distributed (in either source or binary form) with the major components (compiler, kernel, and so on) of the operating system on which the executable runs, unless that component itself accompanies the executable. If distribution of executable or object code is made by offering access to copy from a designated place, then offering equivalent access to copy the source code from the same place counts as distribution of the source code, even though third parties are not compelled to copy the source along with the object code. 4. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, or distribute the Program except as expressly provided under this License. Any attempt otherwise to copy, modify, sublicense or distribute the Program is void, and will automatically terminate your rights under this License. However, parties who have received copies, or rights, from you under this License will not have their licenses terminated so long as such parties remain in full compliance. 5. You are not required to accept this License, since you have not signed it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify or distribute the Program or its derivative works. These actions are prohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, by modifying or distributing the Program (or any work based on the Program), you indicate your acceptance of this License to do so, and all its terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifying the Program or works based on it. 6. Each time you redistribute the Program (or any work based on the Program), the recipient automatically receives a license from the original licensor to copy, distribute or modify the Program subject to these terms and conditions. You may not impose any further restrictions on the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein. You are not responsible for enforcing compliance by third parties to this License. 7. If, as a consequence of a court |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | judgment or allegation of patent infringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues), conditions are imposed on you (whether by court order, agreement or otherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do not excuse you from the conditions of this License. If you cannot distribute so as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under this License and any other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence you may not distribute the Program at all. For example, if a patent license would not permit royalty-free redistribution of the Program by all those who receive copies directly or indirectly through you, then the only way you could satisfy both it and this License would be to refrain entirely from distribution of the Program. If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable under any particular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended to apply and the section as a whole is intended to apply in other circumstances. It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe any patents or other property right claims or to contest validity of any such claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting the integrity of the free software distribution system, which is implemented by public license practices. Many people have made generous contributions to the wide range of software distributed through that system in reliance on consistent application of that system; it is up to the author/donor to decide if he or she is willing to distribute software through any other system and a licensee cannot impose that choice. This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed to be a consequence of the rest of this License. 8. If the distribution and/or use of the Program is restricted in certain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, the original copyright holder who places the Program under this License may add an explicit geographical distribution limitation excluding those countries, so that distribution is permitted only in or among countries not thus excluded. In such case, this License incorporates the limitation as if written in the body of this License. 9. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or new versions of the General Public License from time to time. Such new versions will be similar in spirit to the present version, but may differ in detail to address new problems or concerns. Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Program specifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "any later version", you have the option of following the terms and conditions either of that version or of any later version published by the Free Software Foundation. If the Program does not specify a version number of this License, you may choose any version ever published by the Free Software Foundation. 10. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Program into other free programs whose distribution conditions are |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | different, write to the author to ask for permission. For software which is copyrighted by the Free Software Foundation, write to the Free Software Foundation; we sometimes make exceptions for this. Our decision will be guided by the two goals of preserving the free status of all derivatives of our free software and of promoting the sharing and reuse of software generally. NO WARRANTY 11. BECAUSE THE PROGRAM IS LICENSED FREE OF CHARGE, THERE IS NO WARRANTY FOR THE PROGRAM, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. EXCEPT WHEN OTHERWISE STATED IN WRITING THE COPYRIGHT HOLDERS AND/OR OTHER PARTIES PROVIDE THE PROGRAM "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. THE ENTIRE RISK AS TO THE QUALITY AND PERFORMANCE OF THE PROGRAM IS WITH YOU. SHOULD THE PROGRAM PROVE DEFECTIVE, YOU ASSUME THE COST OF ALL NECESSARY SERVICING, REPAIR OR CORRECTION. 12. IN NO EVENT UNLESS REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW OR AGREED TO IN WRITING WILL ANY COPYRIGHT HOLDER, OR ANY OTHER PARTY WHO MAY MODIFY AND/OR REDISTRIBUTE THE PROGRAM AS PERMITTED ABOVE, BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR DAMAGES, INCLUDING ANY GENERAL, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE THE PROGRAM (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO LOSS OF DATA OR DATA BEING RENDERED INACCURATE OR LOSSES SUSTAINED BY YOU OR THIRD PARTIES OR A FAILURE OF THE PROGRAM TO OPERATE WITH ANY OTHER PROGRAMS), EVEN IF SUCH HOLDER OR OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. END OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS How to Apply These Terms to Your New Programs If you develop a new program, and you want it to be of the greatest possible use to the public, the best way to achieve this is to make it free software which everyone can redistribute and change under these terms. To do so, attach the following notices to the program. It is safest to attach them to the start of each source file to most effectively convey the exclusion of warranty; and each file should have at least the "copyright" line and a pointer to where the full notice is found. One line to give the program's name and a brief idea of what it does. Copyright (C) <year> <name of author> This program is free software; you can redistribute it and/or modify it under the terms of the GNU General Public License as published by the Free Software Foundation; either version 2 of the License, or (at your option) any later |

|---|---|---|
| | | version. This program is distributed in the hope that it will be useful, but WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY; without even the implied warranty of MERCHANTABILITY or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. See the GNU General Public License for more details. You should have received a copy of the GNU General Public License along with this program; if not, write to the Free Software Foundation, Inc., 59 Temple Place, Suite 330, Boston, MA 02111-1307 USA Also add information on how to contact you by electronic and paper mail. If the program is interactive, make it output a short notice like this when it starts in an interactive mode: Gnomovision version 69, Copyright (C) year name of author Gnomovision comes with ABSOLUTELY NO WARRANTY; for details type 'show w'. This is free software, and you are welcome to redistribute it under certain conditions; type 'show c' for details. The hypothetical commands 'show w' and 'show c' should show the appropriate parts of the General Public License. Of course, the commands you use may be called something other than 'show w' and 'show c'; they could even be mouse-clicks or menu items--whatever suits your program. You should also get your employer (if you work as a programmer) or your school, if any, to sign a "copyright disclaimer" for the program, if necessary. Here is a sample; alter the names: Yoyodyne, Inc., hereby disclaims all copyright interest in the program 'Gnomovision' (which makes passes at compilers) written by James Hacker. signature of Ty Coon, 1 April 1989 Ty Coon, President of Vice This General Public License does not permit incorporating your program into proprietary programs. If your program is a subroutine library, you may consider it more useful to permit linking proprietary applications with the library. If this is what you want to do, use the GNU Library General Public License instead of this License. "CLASSPATH" EXCEPTION TO THE GPL Certain source files distributed by Oracle America and/or its affiliates are subject to the following clarification and special exception to the GPL, but only where Oracle has expressly included in the particular source file's header the words "Oracle designates this particular file as subject to the "Classpath" exception as provided by Oracle in the LICENSE file that accompanied this code." Linking this library statically or dynamically with other modules is making a combined work based on this library. Thus, the terms and conditions of the GNU General Public License cover the whole combination. As a special exception, the copyright holders of this library give you permission to link this library with independent modules to produce an executable, regardless of the license terms of these independent modules, and to copy and distribute the resulting executable under terms of your choice, provided that you also meet, for each linked |

|---|---|---|
| | | independent module, the terms and conditions of the license of that module. An independent module is a module which is not derived from or based on this library. If you modify this library, you may extend this exception to your version of the library, but you are not obligated to do so. If you do not wish to do so, delete this exception statement from your version. ---------- Separator ---------- https://www.eclipse.org/legal/epl-2.0/ "Eclipse Public License - v 2.0 THE ACCOMPANYING PROGRAM IS PROVIDED UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS ECLIPSE PUBLIC LICENSE (“AGREEMENT”). ANY USE, REPRODUCTION OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM CONSTITUTES RECIPIENT'S ACCEPTANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT. 1. DEFINITIONS “Contribution” means: a) in the case of the initial Contributor, the initial content Distributed under this Agreement, and b) in the case of each subsequent Contributor: i) changes to the Program, and ii) additions to the Program; where such changes and/or additions to the Program originate from and are Distributed by that particular Contributor. A Contribution “originates” from a Contributor if it was added to the Program by such Contributor itself or anyone acting on such Contributor's behalf. Contributions do not include changes or additions to the Program that are not Modified Works. “Contributor” means any person or entity that Distributes the Program. “Licensed Patents” mean patent claims licensable by a Contributor which are necessarily infringed by the use or sale of its Contribution alone or when combined with the Program. “Program” means the Contributions Distributed in accordance with this Agreement. “Recipient” means anyone who receives the Program under this Agreement or any Secondary License (as applicable), including Contributors. “Derivative Works” shall mean any work, whether in Source Code or other form, that is based on (or derived from) the Program and for which the editorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modifications represent, as a whole, an original work of authorship. “Modified Works” shall mean any work in Source Code or other form that results from an addition to, deletion from, or modification of the contents of the Program, including, for purposes of clarity any new file in Source Code form that contains any contents of the Program. Modified Works shall not include works that contain only declarations, interfaces, types, classes, structures, or files of the Program solely in each case in order to link to, bind by name, or subclass the Program or Modified Works thereof. “Distribute” means the acts of a) distributing or b) making available in any manner that enables the transfer of a copy. “Source Code” means the form of a Program preferred for making modifications, including but not limited to software source code, documentation source, and configuration files. “Secondary License” |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | means either the GNU General Public License, Version 2.0, or any later versions of that license, including any exceptions or additional permissions as identified by the initial Contributor. 2. GRANT OF RIGHTS a) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor hereby grants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display, publicly perform, Distribute and sublicense the Contribution of such Contributor, if any, and such Derivative Works. b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor hereby grants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free patent license under Licensed Patents to make, use, sell, offer to sell, import and otherwise transfer the Contribution of such Contributor, if any, in Source Code or other form. This patent license shall apply to the combination of the Contribution and the Program if, at the time the Contribution is added by the Contributor, such addition of the Contribution causes such combination to be covered by the Licensed Patents. The patent license shall not apply to any other combinations which include the Contribution. No hardware per se is licensed hereunder. c) Recipient understands that although each Contributor grants the licenses to its Contributions set forth herein, no assurances are provided by any Contributor that the Program does not infringe the patent or other intellectual property rights of any other entity. Each Contributor disclaims any liability to Recipient for claims brought by any other entity based on infringement of intellectual property rights or otherwise. As a condition to exercising the rights and licenses granted hereunder, each Recipient hereby assumes sole responsibility to secure any other intellectual property rights needed, if any. For example, if a third party patent license is required to allow Recipient to Distribute the Program, it is Recipient's responsibility to acquire that license before distributing the Program. d) Each Contributor represents that to its knowledge it has sufficient copyright rights in its Contribution, if any, to grant the copyright license set forth in this Agreement. e) Notwithstanding the terms of any Secondary License, no Contributor makes additional grants to any Recipient (other than those set forth in this Agreement) as a result of such Recipient's receipt of the Program under the terms of a Secondary License (if permitted under the terms of Section 3). 3. REQUIREMENTS 3.1 If a Contributor Distributes the Program in any form, then: a) the Program must also be made available as Source Code, in accordance with section 3.2, and the Contributor must accompany the Program with a statement that the Source Code for the Program is available under this Agreement, and informs Recipients how to obtain it in a reasonable manner on or through a medium customarily used for software exchange; and b) the Contributor may |

|---|---|---|
| | | Distribute the Program under a license different than this Agreement, provided that such license: i) effectively disclaims on behalf of all other Contributors all warranties and conditions, express and implied, including warranties or conditions of title and non-infringement, and implied warranties or conditions of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose; ii) effectively excludes on behalf of all other Contributors all liability for damages, including direct, indirect, special, incidental and consequential damages, such as lost profits; iii) does not attempt to limit or alter the recipients' rights in the Source Code under section 3.2; and iv) requires any subsequent distribution of the Program by any party to be under a license that satisfies the requirements of this section 3. 3.2 When the Program is Distributed as Source Code: a) it must be made available under this Agreement, or if the Program (i) is combined with other material in a separate file or files made available under a Secondary License, and (ii) the initial Contributor attached to the Source Code the notice described in Exhibit A of this Agreement, then the Program may be made available under the terms of such Secondary Licenses, and b) a copy of this Agreement must be included with each copy of the Program. 3.3 Contributors may not remove or alter any copyright, patent, trademark, attribution notices, disclaimers of warranty, or limitations of liability ('notices') contained within the Program from any copy of the Program which they Distribute, provided that Contributors may add their own appropriate notices. 4. COMMERCIAL DISTRIBUTION Commercial distributors of software may accept certain responsibilities with respect to end users, business partners and the like. While this license is intended to facilitate the commercial use of the Program, the Contributor who includes the Program in a commercial product offering should do so in a manner which does not create potential liability for other Contributors. Therefore, if a Contributor includes the Program in a commercial product offering, such Contributor ("Commercial Contributor") hereby agrees to defend and indemnify every other Contributor ("Indemnified Contributor") against any losses, damages and costs (collectively "Losses") arising from claims, lawsuits and other legal actions brought by a third party against the Indemnified Contributor to the extent caused by the acts or omissions of such Commercial Contributor in connection with its distribution of the Program in a commercial product offering. The obligations in this section do not apply to any claims or Losses relating to any actual or alleged intellectual property infringement. In order to qualify, an Indemnified Contributor must: a) promptly notify the Commercial Contributor in writing of such claim, and b) allow the Commercial Contributor to control, and cooperate with the Commercial Contributor in, the defense and any related settlement |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | negotiations. The Indemnified Contributor may participate in any such claim at its own expense. For example, a Contributor might include the Program in a commercial product offering, Product X. That Contributor is then a Commercial Contributor. If that Commercial Contributor then makes performance claims, or offers warranties related to Product X, those performance claims and warranties are such Commercial Contributor's responsibility alone. Under this section, the Commercial Contributor would have to defend claims against the other Contributors related to those performance claims and warranties, and if a court requires any other Contributor to pay any damages as a result, the Commercial Contributor must pay those damages. 5. NO WARRANTY EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE PROGRAM IS PROVIDED ON AN “AS IS” BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. Each Recipient is solely responsible for determining the appropriateness of using and distributing the Program and assumes all risks associated with its exercise of rights under this Agreement, including but not limited to the risks and costs of program errors, compliance with applicable laws, damage to or loss of data, programs or equipment, and unavailability or interruption of operations. 6. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NEITHER RECIPIENT NOR ANY CONTRIBUTORS SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LOST PROFITS), HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THE USE OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM OR THE EXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS GRANTED HEREUNDER, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. 7. GENERAL If any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, it shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the terms of this Agreement, and without further action by the parties hereto, such provision shall be reformed to the minimum extent necessary to make such provision valid and enforceable. If Recipient institutes patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Program itself (excluding combinations of the Program with other software or hardware) infringes such Recipient's patent(s), then such Recipient's rights granted under Section 2(b) shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed. All Recipient's rights under this Agreement shall terminate if it fails to comply with any of the material terms or conditions of this Agreement and does not cure such failure in a reasonable period of time after becoming aware of such noncompliance. If all Recipient's rights under this Agreement terminate, Recipient agrees to cease use and distribution of the Program as soon as reasonably practicable. However, Recipient's obligations under this Agreement and any licenses granted by Recipient relating to the Program shall continue and survive. Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute copies of this Agreement, but in order to avoid inconsistency the Agreement is copyrighted and may only be modified in the following manner. The Agreement Steward reserves the right to publish new versions (including revisions) of this Agreement from time to time. No one other than the Agreement Steward has the right to modify this Agreement. The Eclipse Foundation is the initial Agreement Steward. The Eclipse Foundation may assign the responsibility to serve as the Agreement Steward to a suitable separate entity. Each new version of the Agreement will be given a distinguishing version number. The Program (including Contributions) may always be Distributed subject to the version of the Agreement under which it was received. In addition, after a new version of the Agreement is published, Contributor may elect to Distribute the Program (including its Contributions) under the new version. Except as expressly stated in Sections 2(a) and 2(b) above, Recipient receives no rights or licenses to the intellectual property of any Contributor under this Agreement, whether expressly, by implication, estoppel or otherwise. All rights in the Program not expressly granted under this Agreement are reserved. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to be enforceable by any entity that is not a Contributor or Recipient. No third-party beneficiary rights are created under this Agreement. Exhibit A – Form of Secondary Licenses Notice “This Source Code may also be made available under the following Secondary Licenses when the conditions for such availability set forth in the Eclipse Public License, v. 2.0 are satisfied: {name license(s), version(s), and exceptions or additional permissions here}.” Simply including a copy of this Agreement, including this Exhibit A is not sufficient to license the Source Code under Secondary Licenses. If it is not possible or desirable to put the notice in a particular file, then You may include the notice in a location (such as a LICENSE file in a relevant directory) where a recipient would be likely to look for such a notice. You may add additional accurate |

ConditionsSections 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, and 3.4 are conditions of the licenses grantedin Section 2.1.3. Responsibilities----------3.1. Distribution of Source FormAll distribution of Covered Software in Source Code Form, including anyModifications that You create or to which You contribute, must be underthe terms of this License. You must inform recipients that the SourceCode Form of the Covered Software is governed by the terms of thisLicense, and how they can obtain a copy of this License. You may notattempt to alter or restrict the recipients' rights in the Source CodeForm.3.2. Distribution of Executable FormIf You distribute Covered Software in Executable Form then:(a) such Covered Software must also be made available in Source Code |

|---|---|---|
| | | Form, as described in Section 3.1, and You must inform recipients ofthe Executable Form how they can obtain a copy of such Source CodeForm by reasonable means in a timely manner, at a charge no morethan the cost of distribution to the recipient; and(b) You may distribute such Executable Form under the terms of thisLicense, or sublicense it under different terms, provided that thelicense for the Executable Form does not attempt to limit or alterthe recipients' rights in the Source Code Form under this License.3.3. Distribution of a Larger WorkYou may create and distribute a Larger Work under terms of Your choice,provided that You also comply with the requirements of this License forthe Covered Software. If the Larger Work is a combination of CoveredSoftware with a work governed by one or more Secondary Licenses, and theCovered Software is not Incompatible With Secondary Licenses, thisLicense permits You to additionally distribute such Covered Softwareunder the terms of such Secondary License(s), so that the recipient ofthe Larger Work may, at their option, further distribute the CoveredSoftware under the terms of either this License or such SecondaryLicense(s).3.4. NoticesYou may not remove or alter the substance of any license notices(including copyright notices, patent notices, disclaimers of warranty,or limitations of liability) contained within the Source Code Form ofthe Covered Software, except that You may alter any license notices tothe extent required to remedy known factual inaccuracies.3.5. Application of Additional TermsYou may choose to offer, and to charge a fee for, warranty, support, |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | indemnity or liability obligations to one or more recipients of CoveredSoftware. However, You may do so only on Your own behalf, and not onbehalf of any Contributor. You must make it absolutely clear that anysuch warranty, support, indemnity, or liability obligation is offered byYou alone, and You hereby agree to indemnify every Contributor for anyliability incurred by such Contributor as a result of warranty, support,indemnity or liability terms You offer. You may include additionaldisclaimers of warranty and limitations of liability specific to anyjurisdiction.4. Inability to Comply Due to Statute or Regulation---------- ----------If it is impossible for You to comply with any of the terms of thisLicense with respect to some or all of the Covered Software due tostatute, judicial order, or regulation then You must: (a) comply withthe terms of this License to the maximum extent possible; and (b)describe the limitations and the code they affect. Such description mustbe placed in a text file included with all distributions of the CoveredSoftware under this License. Except to the extent prohibited by statuteor regulation, such description must be sufficiently detailed for arecipient of ordinary skill to be able to understand it.5. Termination---------- ----------5.1. The rights granted under this License will terminate automaticallyif You fail to comply with any of its terms. However, if You becomecompliant, then the rights granted under this License from a particularContributor are reinstated (a) provisionally, unless and until suchContributor explicitly and finally terminates Your grants, and (b) on anongoing basis, if such Contributor fails to notify You of thenon-compliance by some reasonable means prior to 60 days after You have |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | come back into compliance. Moreover, Your grants from a particularContributor are reinstated on an ongoing basis if such Contributornotifies You of the non-compliance by some reasonable means, this is thefirst time You have received notice of non-compliance with this Licensefrom such Contributor, and You become compliant prior to 30 days afterYour receipt of the notice.5.2. If You initiate litigation against any entity by asserting a patentinfringement claim (excluding declaratory judgment actions,counter-claims, and cross-claims) alleging that a Contributor Versiondirectly or indirectly infringes any patent, then the rights granted toYou by any and all Contributors for the Covered Software under Section2.1 of this License shall terminate.5.3. In the event of termination under Sections 5.1 or 5.2 above, allend user license agreements (excluding distributors and resellers) whichhave been validly granted by You or Your distributors under this Licenseprior to termination shall survive termination.  6. | | | TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR USE, REPRODUCTION, AND DISTRIBUTION1. Definitions."License" shall mean the terms and conditions for use, reproduction,and distribution as defined by Sections 1 through 9 of this document."Licensor" shall mean the copyright owner or entity authorized bythe copyright owner that is granting the License."Legal Entity" shall mean the union of the acting entity and allother entities that control, are controlled by, or are under commoncontrol with that entity. For the purposes of this definition,"control" means (i) the power, direct or indirect, to cause thedirection or management of such entity, whether by contract orotherwise, or (ii) ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of theoutstanding shares, or (iii) beneficial ownership of such entity."You" (or "Your") shall mean an individual or Legal Entityexercising permissions granted by this License."Source" form shall mean the preferred form for making modifications,including but not limited to software source code, documentationsource, and configuration files."Object" form shall mean any form resulting from mechanicaltransformation or translation of a Source form, including butnot limited to compiled object code, generated documentation,and conversions to other media types."Work" shall mean the work of authorship, whether in Source orObject form, made available under the License, as indicated by acopyright notice that is included in or attached to the work(an example is provided in the Appendix below)."Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | in Source or Objectform, that is based on (or derived from) the Work and for which theeditorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modificationsrepresent, as a whole, an original work of authorship. For the purposesof this License, Derivative Works shall not include works that remainseparable from, or merely link (or bind by name) to the interfaces of,the Work and Derivative Works thereof."Contribution" shall mean any work of authorship, includingthe original version of the Work and any modifications or additionsto that Work or Derivative Works thereof, that is intentionallysubmitted to Licensor for inclusion in the Work by the copyright owneror by an individual or Legal Entity authorized to submit on behalf ofthe copyright owner. For the purposes of this definition, "submitted"means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sentto the Licensor or its representatives, including but not limited tocommunication on electronic mailing lists, source code control systems,and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, theLicensor for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, butexcluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwisedesignated in writing by the copyright owner as "Not a Contribution.""Contributor" shall mean Licensor and any individual or Legal Entityon behalf of whom a Contribution has been received by Licensor andsubsequently incorporated within the Work.2. Grant of Copyright License. Subject to the terms and conditions ofthis License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual,worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocablecopyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of,publicly display, publicly perform, sublicense, and distribute the |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Work and such Derivative Works in Source or Object form.3. Grant of Patent License. Subject to the terms and conditions ofthis License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual,worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable(except as stated in this section) patent license to make, have made,use, offer to sell, sell, import, and otherwise transfer the Work,where such license applies only to those patent claims licensableby such Contributor that are necessarily infringed by theirContribution(s) alone or by combination of their Contribution(s)with the Work to which such Contribution(s) was submitted. If Youinstitute patent litigation against any entity (including across-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Workor a Contribution incorporated within the Work constitutes director contributory patent infringement, then any patent licensesgranted to You under this License for that Work shall terminateas of the date such litigation is filed.4. Redistribution. You may reproduce and distribute copies of theWork or Derivative Works thereof in any medium, with or withoutmodifications, and in Source or Object form, provided that Youmeet the following conditions:(a) You must give any other recipients of the Work orDerivative Works a copy of this License; and(b) You must cause any modified files to carry prominent noticesstating that You changed the files; and(c) You must retain, in the Source form of any Derivative Worksthat You distribute, all copyright, patent, trademark, andattribution notices from the Source form of the Work,excluding those notices that do not pertain to |

|---|---|---|
| | | any part ofthe Derivative Works; and(d) If the Work includes a "NOTICE" text file as part of itsdistribution, then any Derivative Works that You distribute mustinclude a readable copy of the attribution notices containedwithin such NOTICE file, excluding those notices that do notpertain to any part of the Derivative Works, in at least oneof the following places: within a NOTICE text file distributedas part of the Derivative Works; within the Source form ordocumentation, if provided along with the Derivative Works; or,within a display generated by the Derivative Works, if andwherever such third-party notices normally appear. The contentsof the NOTICE file are for informational purposes only anddo not modify the License. You may add Your own attributionnotices within Derivative Works that You distribute, alongsideor as an addendum to the NOTICE text from the Work, providedthat such additional attribution notices cannot be construedas modifying the License.You may add Your own copyright statement to Your modifications andmay provide additional or different license terms and conditionsfor use, reproduction, or distribution of Your modifications, orfor any such Derivative Works as a whole, provided Your use,reproduction, and distribution of the Work otherwise complies withthe conditions stated in this License.5. Submission of Contributions. Unless You explicitly state otherwise,any Contribution intentionally submitted for inclusion in the Workby You to the Licensor shall be under the terms and conditions ofthis License, without any additional terms or conditions.Notwithstanding the above, nothing herein shall |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | supersede or modifythe terms of any separate license agreement you may have executedwith Licensor regarding such Contributions.6. Trademarks. This License does not grant permission to use the tradenames, trademarks, service marks, or product names of the Licensor,except as required for reasonable and customary use in describing theorigin of the Work and reproducing the content of the NOTICE file.7. Disclaimer of Warranty. Unless required by applicable law oragreed to in writing, Licensor provides the Work (and eachContributor provides its Contributions) on an "AS IS" BASIS,WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, either express orimplied, including, without limitation, any warranties or conditionsof TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, or FITNESS FOR APARTICULAR PURPOSE. You are solely responsible for determining theappropriateness of using or redistributing the Work and assume anyrisks associated with Your exercise of permissions under this License.8. Limitation of Liability. In no event and under no legal theory,whether in tort (including negligence), contract, or otherwise,unless required by applicable law (such as deliberate and grosslynegligent acts) or agreed to in writing, shall any Contributor beliable to You for damages, including any direct, indirect, special,incidental, or consequential damages of any character arising as aresult of this License or out of the use or inability to use theWork (including but not limited to damages for loss of goodwill,work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction, or any and allother commercial damages or losses), even if such Contributorhas been advised of the possibility of such damages. |

| | | |

| | | 9. Accepting Warranty or Additional Liability. While redistributingthe Work or Derivative Works thereof, You may choose to offer,and charge a fee for, acceptance of support, warranty, indemnity,or other liability obligations and/or rights consistent with thisLicense. However, in accepting such obligations, You may act onlyon Your own behalf and on Your sole responsibility, not on behalfof any other Contributor, and only if You agree to indemnify,defend, and hold each Contributor harmless for any liabilityincurred by, or claims asserted against, such Contributor by reasonof your accepting any such warranty or additional liability.END OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS====================This project includes Public Suffix List copied from <https://publicsuffix.org/list/effective_tld_names.dat> licensed under the terms of the Mozilla Public License, v. 2.0Full license text: <http://mozilla.org/MPL/2.0/>Mozilla Public License Version 2.0==========1. ANY USE, REPRODUCTION OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM CONSTITUTES RECIPIENT'S ACCEPTANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT.1. DEFINITIONS“Contribution” means:a) in the case of the initial Contributor, the initial content Distributed under this Agreement, andb) in the case of each subsequent Contributor:i) changes to the Program, andii) additions to the Program;where such changes and/or additions to the Program originate from and are Distributed by that particular Contributor. A Contribution “originates” from a Contributor if it was added to the Program by such Contributor itself or anyone acting on such Contributor's behalf. Contributions do not include changes or additions to the Program that are not Modified Works.“Contributor” means any person or entity that Distributes the Program. |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | “Licensed Patents” mean patent claims licensable by a Contributor which are necessarily infringed by the use or sale of its Contribution alone or when combined with the Program.“Program” means the Contributions Distributed in accordance with this Agreement.“Recipient” means anyone who receives the Program under this Agreement or any Secondary License (as applicable), including Contributors.“Derivative Works” shall mean any work, whether in Source Code or other form, that is based on (or derived from) the Program and for which the editorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modifications represent, as a whole, an original work of authorship.“Modified Works” shall mean any work in Source Code or other form that results from an addition to, deletion from, or modification of the contents of the Program, including, for purposes of clarity any new file in Source Code form that contains any contents of the Program. Modified Works shall not include works that contain only declarations, interfaces, types, classes, structures, or files of the Program solely in each case in order to link to, bind by name, or subclass the Program or Modified Works thereof.“Distribute” means the acts of a) distributing or b) making available in any manner that enables the transfer of a copy.“Source Code” means the form of a Program preferred for making modifications, including but not limited to software source code, documentation source, and configuration files.“Secondary License” means either the GNU General Public License, Version 2.0, or any later versions of that license, including any exceptions or additional permissions as identified by the initial Contributor.2. GRANT OF RIGHTSa) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor hereby grants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display, publicly perform, Distribute and sublicense the Contribution of such Contributor, if any, and such Derivative Works.b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor hereby grants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free patent license under Licensed Patents to make, use, sell, offer to sell, import and |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | otherwise transfer the Contribution of such Contributor, if any, in Source Code or other form. This patent license shall apply to the combination of the Contribution and the Program if, at the time the Contribution is added by the Contributor, such addition of the Contribution causes such combination to be covered by the Licensed Patents. The patent license shall not apply to any other combinations which include the Contribution. No hardware per se is licensed hereunder.c) Recipient understands that although each Contributor grants the licenses to its Contributions set forth herein, no assurances are provided by any Contributor that the Program does not infringe the patent or other intellectual property rights of any other entity. Each Contributor disclaims any liability to Recipient for claims brought by any other entity based on infringement of intellectual property rights or otherwise. As a condition to exercising the rights and licenses granted hereunder, each Recipient hereby assumes sole responsibility to secure any other intellectual property rights needed, if any. For example, if a third party patent license is required to allow Recipient to Distribute the Program, it is Recipient's responsibility to acquire that license before distributing the Program.d) Each Contributor represents that to its knowledge it has sufficient copyright rights in its Contribution, if any, to grant the copyright license set forth in this Agreement.e) Notwithstanding the terms of any Secondary License, no Contributor makes additional grants to any Recipient (other than those set forth in this Agreement) as a result of such Recipient's receipt of the Program under the terms of a Secondary License (if permitted under the terms of Section 3).3. REQUIREMENTS3.1 If a Contributor Distributes the Program in any form, then:a) the Program must also be made available as Source Code, in accordance with section 3.2, and the Contributor must accompany the Program with a statement that the Source Code for the Program is available under this Agreement, and informs Recipients how to obtain it in a reasonable manner on or through a medium customarily used for software exchange; andb) the Contributor may Distribute the Program under a license different than this Agreement, provided that such license:i) effectively disclaims on behalf of all other Contributors all warranties and conditions, express and implied, including warranties or conditions of title and non-infringement, and implied warranties or conditions of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose; |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | ii) effectively excludes on behalf of all other Contributors all liability for damages, including direct, indirect, special, incidental and consequential damages, such as lost profits;iii) does not attempt to limit or alter the recipients' rights in the Source Code under section 3.2; andiv) requires any subsequent distribution of the Program by any party to be under a license that satisfies the requirements of this section 3.3.2 When the Program is Distributed as Source Code:a) it must be made available under this Agreement, or if the Program (i) is combined with other material in a separate file or files made available under a Secondary License, and (ii) the initial Contributor attached to the Source Code the notice described in Exhibit A of this Agreement, then the Program may be made available under the terms of such Secondary Licenses, andb) a copy of this Agreement must be included with each copy of the Program.3.3 Contributors may not remove or alter any copyright, patent, trademark, attribution notices, disclaimers of warranty, or limitations of liability ('notices') contained within the Program from any copy of the Program which they Distribute, provided that Contributors may add their own appropriate notices.4. COMMERCIAL DISTRIBUTIONCommercial distributors of software may accept certain responsibilities with respect to end users, business partners and the like. While this license is intended to facilitate the commercial use of the Program, the Contributor who includes the Program in a commercial product offering should do so in a manner which does not create potential liability for other Contributors. Therefore, if a Contributor includes the Program in a commercial product offering, such Contributor ("Commercial Contributor") hereby agrees to defend and indemnify every other Contributor ("Indemnified Contributor") against any losses, damages and costs (collectively "Losses") arising from claims, lawsuits and other legal actions brought by a third party against the Indemnified Contributor to the extent caused by the acts or omissions of such Commercial Contributor in connection with its distribution of the Program in a commercial product offering. The obligations in this section do not apply to any claims or Losses relating to any actual or alleged intellectual property infringement. In order to qualify, an Indemnified Contributor must: a) promptly notify the Commercial Contributor in writing of such claim, and b) allow the Commercial Contributor to control, and cooperate with the Commercial Contributor in, the defense and any related settlement negotiations. The Indemnified Contributor may participate in any such claim at its own expense. |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | For example, a Contributor might include the Program in a commercial product offering, Product X. That Contributor is then a Commercial Contributor. If that Commercial Contributor then makes performance claims, or offers warranties related to Product X, those performance claims and warranties are such Commercial Contributor's responsibility alone. Under this section, the Commercial Contributor would have to defend claims against the other Contributors related to those performance claims and warranties, and if a court requires any other Contributor to pay any damages as a result, the Commercial Contributor must pay those damages.5. NO WARRANTYEXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE PROGRAM IS PROVIDED ON AN “AS IS” BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. Each Recipient is solely responsible for determining the appropriateness of using and distributing the Program and assumes all risks associated with its exercise of rights under this Agreement, including but not limited to the risks and costs of program errors, compliance with applicable laws, damage to or loss of data, programs or equipment, and unavailability or interruption of operations.6. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITYEXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NEITHER RECIPIENT NOR ANY CONTRIBUTORS SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LOST PROFITS), HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THE USE OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM OR THE EXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS GRANTED HEREUNDER, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.7. GENERALIf any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, it shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the terms of this Agreement, and without further action by |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | the parties hereto, such provision shall be reformed to the minimum extent necessary to make such provision valid and enforceable.If Recipient institutes patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Program itself (excluding combinations of the Program with other software or hardware) infringes such Recipient's patent(s), then such Recipient's rights granted under Section 2(b) shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed.All Recipient's rights under this Agreement shall terminate if it fails to comply with any of the material terms or conditions of this Agreement and does not cure such failure in a reasonable period of time after becoming aware of such noncompliance. If all Recipient's rights under this Agreement terminate, Recipient agrees to cease use and distribution of the Program as soon as reasonably practicable. However, Recipient's obligations under this Agreement and any licenses granted by Recipient relating to the Program shall continue and survive.Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute copies of this Agreement, but in order to avoid inconsistency the Agreement is copyrighted and may only be modified in the following manner. The Agreement Steward reserves the right to publish new versions (including revisions) of this Agreement from time to time. No one other than the Agreement Steward has the right to modify this Agreement. The Eclipse Foundation is the initial Agreement Steward. The Eclipse Foundation may assign the responsibility to serve as the Agreement Steward to a suitable separate entity. Each new version of the Agreement will be given a distinguishing version number. The Program (including Contributions) may always be Distributed subject to the version of the Agreement under which it was received. In addition, after a new version of the Agreement is published, Contributor may elect to Distribute the Program (including its Contributions) under the new version.Except as expressly stated in Sections 2(a) and 2(b) above, Recipient receives no rights or licenses to the intellectual property of any Contributor under this Agreement, whether expressly, by implication, estoppel or otherwise. All rights in the Program not expressly granted under this Agreement are reserved. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to be enforceable by any entity that is not a Contributor or Recipient. No third-party beneficiary rights are created under this Agreement.Exhibit A – Form of Secondary Licenses Notice |

For the purposesof this License, Derivative Works shall not include works that remainseparable from, or merely link (or bind by name) to the interfaces of,the Work and Derivative Works thereof."Contribution" shall mean any work of authorship, includingthe original version of the Work and any modifications or additionsto that Work or Derivative Works thereof, that is intentionallysubmitted to Licensor for inclusion in the Work by the copyright owneror by an individual or Legal Entity authorized to submit on behalf ofthe copyright owner. For the purposes of this definition, "submitted"means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sentto the Licensor or its representatives, including but not limited tocommunication on electronic mailing lists, source code control systems,and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, theLicensor for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, butexcluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwisedesignated in writing by the copyright owner as "Not a Contribution.""Contributor" shall mean Licensor and any individual or Legal Entityon behalf of whom a Contribution has been received by Licensor andsubsequently incorporated within the Work.2. Submission of Contributions. Unless You explicitly state otherwise,any Contribution intentionally submitted for inclusion in the Workby You to the Licensor shall be under the terms and conditions ofthis License, without any additional terms or conditions.Notwithstanding the above, nothing herein shall supersede or modifythe terms of any separate license agreement you may have executedwith Licensor regarding such Contributions.6. Limitation of Liability. In no event and under no legal theory,whether in tort (including negligence), contract, or otherwise,unless required by applicable law (such as deliberate and grosslynegligent acts) or agreed to in writing, shall any Contributor beliable to You for damages, including any direct, indirect, special,incidental, or consequential damages of any character arising as aresult of this License or out of the use or inability to use theWork (including but not limited to damages for loss of goodwill,work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction, or any and allother commercial damages or losses), even if such Contributorhas been advised of the possibility of such damages.9. Accepting Warranty or Additional Liability. While redistributingthe Work or Derivative Works thereof, You may choose to offer,and charge a fee for, acceptance of support, warranty, indemnity,or other liability obligations and/or rights consistent with thisLicense. However, in accepting such obligations, You may act onlyon Your own behalf and on Your sole responsibility, not on behalfof any other Contributor, and only if You agree to indemnify,defend, and hold each Contributor harmless for any liabilityincurred by, or claims asserted against, such Contributor by reasonof your accepting any such warranty or additional liability. |

For the purposes of this License, DerivativeWorks shall not include works that remain separable from, or merely link (orbind by name) to the interfaces of, the Work and Derivative Works thereof."Contribution" shall mean any work of authorship, including the originalversion of the Work and any modifications or additions to that Work orDerivative Works thereof, that is intentionally submitted to Licensor forinclusion in the Work by the copyright owner or by an individual or LegalEntity authorized to submit on behalf of the copyright owner. For the purposesof this definition, "submitted" means any form of electronic, verbal, orwritten communication sent to the Licensor or its representatives, includingbut not limited to communication on electronic mailing lists, source codecontrol systems, and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalfof, the Licensor for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, butexcluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwise designatedin writing by the copyright owner as "Not a Contribution." |

Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable copyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display, publicly perform, sublicense, and distribute the Work and such Derivative Works in Source or Object form.3. Grant of Patent License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable (except as stated in this section) patent license to make, have made, use, offer to sell, sell, import, and otherwise transfer the Work, where such license applies only to those patent claims licensable by such Contributor that are necessarily infringed by their Contribution(s) alone or by combination of their Contribution(s) with the Work to which such Contribution(s) was submitted. If You institute patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Work or a Contribution incorporated within the Work constitutes direct or contributory patent infringement, then any patent licenses granted to You under this License for that Work shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed.4. Definitions."License" shall mean the terms and conditions for use, reproduction,and distribution as defined by Sections 1 through 9 of this document."Licensor" shall mean the copyright owner or entity authorized bythe copyright owner that is granting the License."Legal Entity" shall mean the union of the acting entity and allother entities that control, are controlled by, or are under commoncontrol with that entity. For the purposes of this definition,"control" means (i) the power, direct or indirect, to cause thedirection or management of such entity, whether by contract orotherwise, or (ii) ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of theoutstanding shares, or (iii) beneficial ownership of such entity."You" (or "Your") shall mean an individual or Legal Entityexercising permissions granted by this License."Source" form shall mean the preferred form for making modifications,including but not limited to software source code, documentationsource, and configuration files."Object" form shall mean any form resulting from mechanicaltransformation or translation of a Source form, including butnot limited to compiled object code, generated documentation,and conversions to other media types."Work" shall mean the work of authorship, whether in Source orObject form, made available under the License, as indicated by a |

For the purposesof this License, Derivative Works shall not include works that remainseparable from, or merely link (or bind by name) to the interfaces of,the Work and Derivative Works thereof."Contribution" shall mean any work of authorship, includingthe original version of the Work and any modifications or additionsto that Work or Derivative Works thereof, that is intentionallysubmitted to Licensor for inclusion in the Work by the copyright owneror by an individual or Legal Entity authorized to submit on behalf ofthe copyright owner. For the purposes of this definition, "submitted"means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sentto the Licensor or its representatives, including but not limited tocommunication on electronic mailing lists, source code control systems,and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, theLicensor for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, butexcluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwisedesignated in writing by the copyright owner as "Not a Contribution.""Contributor" shall mean Licensor and any individual or Legal Entityon behalf of whom a Contribution has been received by Licensor andsubsequently incorporated within the Work.2. "Contributor Version" means the combination of the Contributions ofothers (if any) used by a Contributor and that particular Contributor'sContribution.1.3. "Contribution" means Covered Software of a particular Contributor.1.4. "Covered Software" means Source Code Form to which the initialContributor has attached the notice in Exhibit A, the Executable Form of suchSource Code Form, and Modifications of such Source |

|---|---|---|
| | | Code Form, in each caseincluding portions thereof.1.5. "Incompatible With Secondary Licenses" means(a) that the initial Contributor has attached the notice described in ExhibitB to the Covered Software; or(b) that the Covered Software was made available under the terms of version1.1 or earlier of the License, but not also under the terms of a SecondaryLicense.1.6. "Executable Form" means any form of the work other than Source Code Form.1.7. "Larger Work" means a work that combines Covered Software with othermaterial, in a separate file or files, that is not Covered Software.1.8. "License" means this document.1.9. "Licensable" means having the right to grant, to the maximum extentpossible, whether at the time of the initial grant or subsequently, any andall of the rights conveyed by this License.1.10. "Modifications" means any of the following:(a) any file in Source Code Form that results from an addition to, deletionfrom, or modification of the contents of Covered Software; or(b) any new file in Source Code Form that contains any Covered Software.1.11. "Patent Claims" of a Contributor means any patent claim(s), includingwithout limitation, method, process, and apparatus claims, in any patentLicensable by such Contributor that would be infringed, but for the grant ofthe License, by the making, using, selling, offering for sale, having made,import, or transfer of either its Contributions or its Contributor Version.1.12. "Secondary License" means either the GNU General Public License, Version2.0, the GNU Lesser General Public License, Version 2.1, the GNU Affero |

| | | General Public License, Version 3.0, or any later versions of those licenses.1.13. "Source Code Form" means the form of the work preferred for makingmodifications.1.14. "You" (or "Your") means an individual or a legal entity exercisingrights under this License. For legal entities, "You" includes any entity thatcontrols, is controlled by, or is under common control with You. For purposesof this definition, "control" means (a) the power, direct or indirect, tocause the direction or management of such entity, whether by contract orotherwise, or (b) ownership of more than fifty percent (50%) of theoutstanding shares or beneficial ownership of such entity.2. | | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Sections 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, and 3.4 are conditions of the licenses granted inSection 2.1.3. Responsibilities3.1. Distribution of Source FormAll distribution of Covered Software in Source Code Form, including anyModifications that You create or to which You contribute, must be under theterms of this License. You must inform recipients that the Source Code Form ofthe Covered Software is governed by the terms of this License, and how theycan obtain a copy of this License. You may not attempt to alter or restrictthe recipients' rights in the Source Code Form.3.2. Distribution of Executable FormIf You distribute Covered Software in Executable Form then:(a) such Covered Software must also be made available in Source Code Form, asdescribed in Section 3.1, and You must inform recipients of the ExecutableForm how they can obtain a copy of such Source Code Form by reasonable meansin a timely manner, at a charge no more than the cost of distribution to therecipient; and(b) You may distribute such Executable Form under the terms of this License,or sublicense it under different terms, provided that the license for theExecutable Form does not attempt to limit or alter the recipients' rightsin the Source Code Form under this License.3.3. Distribution of a Larger WorkYou may create and distribute a Larger Work under terms of Your choice,provided that You also comply with the requirements of this License for theCovered Software. If the Larger Work is a combination of Covered Software witha work governed by one or more Secondary Licenses, and the Covered Software isnot Incompatible With Secondary Licenses, this License permits You to |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | additionally distribute such Covered Software under the terms of suchSecondary License(s), so that the recipient of the Larger Work may, at theiroption, further distribute the Covered Software under the terms of either thisLicense or such Secondary License(s).3.4. NoticesYou may not remove or alter the substance of any license notices (includingcopyright notices, patent notices, disclaimers of warranty, or limitations ofliability) contained within the Source Code Form of the Covered Software,except that You may alter any license notices to the extent required to remedyknown factual inaccuracies.3.5. Application of Additional TermsYou may choose to offer, and to charge a fee for, warranty, support, indemnityor liability obligations to one or more recipients of Covered Software.However, You may do so only on Your own behalf, and not on behalf of anyContributor. You must make it absolutely clear that any such warranty,support, indemnity, or liability obligation is offered by You alone, and Youhereby agree to indemnify every Contributor for any liability incurred by suchContributor as a result of warranty, support, indemnity or liability terms Youoffer. You may include additional disclaimers of warranty and limitations ofliability specific to any jurisdiction.4. Inability to Comply Due to Statute or RegulationIf it is impossible for You to comply with any of the terms of this Licensewith respect to some or all of the Covered Software due to statute, judicialorder, or regulation then You must: (a) comply with the terms of this Licenseto the maximum extent possible; and (b) describe the limitations and the codethey affect. Such description must be placed in a text file included with alldistributions of the Covered Software under this License. Except to the extentprohibited by statute or regulation, such description must be sufficientlydetailed for a recipient of ordinary skill to be able to |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | understand it.5. Termination5.1. The rights granted under this License will terminate automatically if Youfail to comply with any of its terms. However, if You become compliant, thenthe rights granted under this License from a particular Contributor arereinstated (a) provisionally, unless and until such Contributor explicitly andfinally terminates Your grants, and (b) on an ongoing basis, if suchContributor fails to notify You of the non-compliance by some reasonable meansprior to 60 days after You have come back into compliance. Moreover, Yourgrants from a particular Contributor are reinstated on an ongoing basis ifsuch Contributor notifies You of the non-compliance by some reasonable means,this is the first time You have received notice of non-compliance with thisLicense from such Contributor, and You become compliant prior to 30 days afterYour receipt of the notice.5.2. If You initiate litigation against any entity by asserting a patentinfringement claim (excluding declaratory judgment actions, counter-claims,and cross-claims) alleging that a Contributor Version directly or indirectlyinfringes any patent, then the rights granted to You by any and allContributors for the Covered Software under Section 2.1 of this License shallterminate.5.3. In the event of termination under Sections 5.1 or 5.2 above, all end userlicense agreements (excluding distributors and resellers) which have beenvalidly granted by You or Your distributors under this License prior totermination shall survive termination.6. Disclaimer of WarrantyCovered Software is provided under this License on an "as is" basis, withoutwarranty of any kind, either expressed, implied, or statutory, including,without limitation, warranties that the Covered Software is free of defects,merchantable, fit for a particular purpose or non- |

| | | infringing. The entire riskas to the quality and performance of the Covered Software is with You. Shouldany Covered Software prove defective in any respect, You (not any Contributor)assume the cost of any necessary servicing, repair, or correction. Thisdisclaimer of warranty constitutes an essential part of this License. No useof any Covered Software is authorized under this License except under thisdisclaimer.7. Limitation of LiabilityUnder no circumstances and under no legal theory, whether tort (includingnegligence), contract, or otherwise, shall any Contributor, or anyone whodistributes Covered Software as permitted above, be liable to You for anydirect, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages of anycharacter including, without limitation, damages for lost profits, loss ofgoodwill, work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction, or any and all othercommercial damages or losses, even if such party shall have been informed ofthe possibility of such damages. This limitation of liability shall not applyto liability for death or personal injury resulting from such party'snegligence to the extent applicable law prohibits such limitation. Somejurisdictions do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental orconsequential damages, so this exclusion and limitation may not apply to You.8. LitigationAny litigation relating to this License may be brought only in the courts of ajurisdiction where the defendant maintains its principal place of business andsuch litigation shall be governed by laws of that jurisdiction, withoutreference to its conflict-of-law provisions. Nothing in this Section shallprevent a party's ability to bring cross-claims or counter-claims.9. MiscellaneousThis License represents the complete agreement concerning the subject matterhereof. If any provision of this License is held to be unenforceable, such |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | provision shall be reformed only to the extent necessary to make itenforceable. Any law or regulation which provides that the language of acontract shall be construed against the drafter shall not be used to construethis License against a Contributor.10. Versions of the License10.1. New VersionsMozilla Foundation is the license steward. Except as provided in Section 10.3,no one other than the license steward has the right to modify or publish newversions of this License. Each version will be given a distinguishing versionnumber.10.2. Effect of New VersionsYou may distribute the Covered Software under the terms of the version of theLicense under which You originally received the Covered Software, or under theterms of any subsequent version published by the license steward.10.3. Modified VersionsIf you create software not governed by this License, and you want to create anew license for such software, you may create and use a modified version ofthis License if you rename the license and remove any references to the nameof the license steward (except to note that such modified license differs fromthis License).10.4. | | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | copies of this license document, but changing it is not allowed.Preamble The licenses for most software are designed to take away yourfreedom to share and change it. By contrast, the GNU General PublicLicense is intended to guarantee your freedom to share and change freesoftware--to make sure the software is free for all its users. ThisGeneral Public License applies to most of the Free SoftwareFoundation's software and to any other program whose authors commit tousing it. (Some other Free Software Foundation software is covered bythe GNU Lesser General Public License instead.) You can apply it toyour programs, too. When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom, notprice. Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that youhave the freedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge forthis service if you wish), that you receive source code or can get itif you want it, that you can change the software or use pieces of itin new free programs; and that you know you can do these things. To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbidanyone to deny you these rights or to ask you to surrender the rights.These restrictions translate to certain responsibilities for you if youdistribute copies of the software, or if you modify it. For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whethergratis or for a fee, you must give the recipients all the rights thatyou have. You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get thesource code. And you must show them these terms so they know theirrights. We protect your rights with two steps: (1) copyright |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | the software, and(2) offer you this license which gives you legal permission to copy,distribute and/or modify the software.Also, for each author's protection and ours, we want to make certainthat everyone understands that there is no warranty for this freesoftware. If the software is modified by someone else and passed on, wewant its recipients to know that what they have is not the original, sothat any problems introduced by others will not reflect on the originalauthors' reputations.Finally, any free program is threatened constantly by softwarepatents. We wish to avoid the danger that redistributors of a freeprogram will individually obtain patent licenses, in effect making theprogram proprietary. To prevent this, we have made it clear that anypatent must be licensed for everyone's free use or not licensed at all.The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution andmodification follow.GNU GENERAL PUBLIC LICENSETERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION0. This License applies to any program or other work which containsa notice placed by the copyright holder saying it may be distributedunder the terms of this General Public License. The "Program", below,refers to any such program or work, and a "work based on the Program"means either the Program or any derivative work under copyright law:that is to say, a work containing the Program or a portion of it,either verbatim or with modifications and/or translated into anotherlanguage. (Hereinafter, translation is included without limitation inthe term "modification".) Each licensee is addressed as "you".Activities other than copying, distribution and |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | modification are notcovered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act ofrunning the Program is not restricted, and the output from the Programis covered only if its contents constitute a work based on theProgram (independent of having been made by running the Program).Whether that is true depends on what the Program does.1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Program'ssource code as you receive it, in any medium, provided that youconspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy an appropriatecopyright notice and disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all thenotices that refer to this License and to the absence of any warranty;and give any other recipients of the Program a copy of this Licensealong with the Program.You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy, andyou may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee.2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Program or any portionof it, thus forming a work based on the Program, and copy anddistribute such modifications or work under the terms of Section 1above, provided that you also meet all of these conditions:a) You must cause the modified files to carry prominent noticesstating that you changed the files and the date of any change.b) You must cause any work that you distribute or publish, that inwhole or in part contains or is derived from the Program or anypart thereof, to be licensed as a whole at no charge to all thirdparties under the terms of this License.c) If the modified program normally reads commands interactivelywhen run, you must cause it, when started running |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | for suchinteractive use in the most ordinary way, to print or display anannouncement including an appropriate copyright notice and anotice that there is no warranty (or else, saying that you providea warranty) and that users may redistribute the program underthese conditions, and telling the user how to view a copy of thisLicense. (Exception: if the Program itself is interactive butdoes not normally print such an announcement, your work based onthe Program is not required to print an announcement.)These requirements apply to the modified work as a whole. Ifidentifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Program,and can be reasonably considered independent and separate works inthemselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to thosesections when you distribute them as separate works. But when youdistribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work basedon the Program, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms ofthis License, whose permissions for other licensees extend to theentire whole, and thus to each and every part regardless of who wrote it.Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contestyour rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is toexercise the right to control the distribution of derivative orcollective works based on the Program.In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Programwith the Program (or with a work based on the Program) on a volume ofa storage or distribution medium does not bring the other work underthe scope of this License.3. You may copy and distribute the Program (or a work based on it,under Section 2) in object code or executable form |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | under the terms ofSections 1 and 2 above provided that you also do one of the following:a) Accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readablesource code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,b) Accompany it with a written offer, valid for at least threeyears, to give any third party, for a charge no more than yourcost of physically performing source distribution, a completemachine-readable copy of the corresponding source code, to bedistributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a mediumcustomarily used for software interchange; or,c) Accompany it with the information you received as to the offerto distribute corresponding source code. (This alternative isallowed only for noncommercial distribution and only if youreceived the program in object code or executable form with suchan offer, in accord with Subsection b above.)The source code for a work means the preferred form of the work formaking modifications to it. For an executable work, complete sourcecode means all the source code for all modules it contains, plus anyassociated interface definition files, plus the scripts used tocontrol compilation and installation of the executable. However, as aspecial exception, the source code distributed need not includeanything that is normally distributed (in either source or binaryform) with the major components (compiler, kernel, and so on) of theoperating system on which the executable runs, unless that componentitself accompanies the executable.If distribution of executable or object code is made by offeringaccess to copy from a designated place, then offering |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | equivalentaccess to copy the source code from the same place counts asdistribution of the source code, even though third parties are notcompelled to copy the source along with the object code.4. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, or distribute the Programexcept as expressly provided under this License. Any attemptotherwise to copy, modify, sublicense or distribute the Program isvoid, and will automatically terminate your rights under this License.However, parties who have received copies, or rights, from you underthis License will not have their licenses terminated so long as suchparties remain in full compliance.5. You are not required to accept this License, since you have notsigned it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify ordistribute the Program or its derivative works. These actions areprohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, bymodifying or distributing the Program (or any work based on theProgram), you indicate your acceptance of this License to do so, andall its terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifyingthe Program or works based on it.6. Each time you redistribute the Program (or any work based on theProgram), the recipient automatically receives a license from theoriginal licensor to copy, distribute or modify the Program subject tothese terms and conditions. You may not impose any furtherrestrictions on the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein.You are not responsible for enforcing compliance by third parties tothis License.7. If, as a consequence of a court judgment or allegation of patentinfringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues), |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | conditions are imposed on you (whether by court order, agreement orotherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do notexcuse you from the conditions of this License. If you cannotdistribute so as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under thisLicense and any other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence youmay not distribute the Program at all. For example, if a patentlicense would not permit royalty-free redistribution of the Program byall those who receive copies directly or indirectly through you, thenthe only way you could satisfy both it and this License would be torefrain entirely from distribution of the Program.If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable underany particular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended toapply and the section as a whole is intended to apply in othercircumstances.It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe anypatents or other property right claims or to contest validity of anysuch claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting theintegrity of the free software distribution system, which isimplemented by public license practices. Many people have madegenerous contributions to the wide range of software distributedthrough that system in reliance on consistent application of thatsystem; it is up to the author/donor to decide if he or she is willingto distribute software through any other system and a licensee cannotimpose that choice.This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed tobe a consequence of the rest of this License.8. If the distribution and/or use of the Program is restricted incertain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, the |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | original copyright holder who places the Program under this Licensemay add an explicit geographical distribution limitation excludingthose countries, so that distribution is permitted only in or amongcountries not thus excluded. In such case, this License incorporatesthe limitation as if written in the body of this License.9. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or new versionsof the General Public License from time to time. Such new versions willbe similar in spirit to the present version, but may differ in detail toaddress new problems or concerns.Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Programspecifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "anylater version", you have the option of following the terms and conditionseither of that version or of any later version published by the FreeSoftware Foundation. If the Program does not specify a version number ofthis License, you may choose any version ever published by the Free SoftwareFoundation.10. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Program into other freeprograms whose distribution conditions are different, write to the authorto ask for permission. For software which is copyrighted by the FreeSoftware Foundation, write to the Free Software Foundation; we sometimesmake exceptions for this. Our decision will be guided by the two goalsof preserving the free status of all derivatives of our free software andof promoting the sharing and reuse of software generally.NO WARRANTY11. It also countsas the successor of the GNU Library Public License, version 2, hencethe version number 2.1.]PreambleThe licenses for most software are designed to take away yourfreedom to share and change it. By contrast, the GNU General PublicLicenses are intended to guarantee your freedom to share and changefree software--to make sure the software is free for all its users.This license, the Lesser General Public License, applies to somespecially designated software packages--typically libraries--of theFree Software Foundation and other authors who decide to use it. Youcan use it too, but we suggest you first think carefully |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | about whetherthis license or the ordinary General Public License is the betterstrategy to use in any particular case, based on the explanations below.When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom of use,not price. Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure thatyou have the freedom to distribute copies of free software (and chargefor this service if you wish); that you receive source code or can getit if you want it; that you can change the software and use pieces ofit in new free programs; and that you are informed that you can dothese things.To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbiddistributors to deny you these rights or to ask you to surrender theserights. These restrictions translate to certain responsibilities foryou if you distribute copies of the library or if you modify it.For example, if you distribute copies of the library, whether gratisor for a fee, you must give the recipients all the rights that we gaveyou. You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get the sourcecode. If you link other code with the library, you must providecomplete object files to the recipients, so that they can relink themwith the library after making changes to the library and recompilingit. And you must show them these terms so they know their rights.We protect your rights with a two-step method: (1) we copyright thelibrary, and (2) we offer you this license, which gives you legalpermission to copy, distribute and/or modify the library.To protect each distributor, we want to make it very clear thatthere is no warranty for the free library. Also, if the library ismodified by someone else and passed on, the recipients should knowthat what they have is not the original version, so that the originalauthor's reputation will not be affected by problems that might beintroduced by others. |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Finally, software patents pose a constant threat to the existence ofany free program. We wish to make sure that a company cannoteffectively restrict the users of a free program by obtaining arestrictive license from a patent holder. Therefore, we insist thatany patent license obtained for a version of the library must beconsistent with the full freedom of use specified in this license.Most GNU software, including some libraries, is covered by theordinary GNU General Public License. This license, the GNU LesserGeneral Public License, applies to certain designated libraries, andis quite different from the ordinary General Public License. We usethis license for certain libraries in order to permit linking thoselibraries into non-free programs.When a program is linked with a library, whether statically or usinga shared library, the combination of the two is legally speaking acombined work, a derivative of the original library. The ordinaryGeneral Public License therefore permits such linking only if theentire combination fits its criteria of freedom. The Lesser GeneralPublic License permits more lax criteria for linking other code withthe library.We call this license the "Lesser" General Public License because itdoes Less to protect the user's freedom than the ordinary GeneralPublic License. It also provides other free software developers Lessof an advantage over competing non-free programs. These disadvantagesare the reason we use the ordinary General Public License for manylibraries. However, the Lesser license provides advantages in certainspecial circumstances.For example, on rare occasions, there may be a special need toencourage the widest possible use of a certain library, so that it becomesa de-facto standard. To achieve this, non-free programs must be |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | allowed to use the library. A more frequent case is that a freelibrary does the same job as widely used non-free libraries. In thiscase, there is little to gain by limiting the free library to freesoftware only, so we use the Lesser General Public License.In other cases, permission to use a particular library in non-freeprograms enables a greater number of people to use a large body offree software. For example, permission to use the GNU C Library innon-free programs enables many more people to use the whole GNUoperating system, as well as its variant, the GNU/Linux operatingsystem.Although the Lesser General Public License is Less protective of theusers' freedom, it does ensure that the user of a program that islinked with the Library has the freedom and the wherewithal to runthat program using a modified version of the Library.The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution andmodification follow. Pay close attention to the difference between a"work based on the library" and a "work that uses the library". Theformer contains code derived from the library, whereas the latter mustbe combined with the library in order to run.GNU LESSER GENERAL PUBLIC LICENSETERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION0. This License Agreement applies to any software library or otherprogram which contains a notice placed by the copyright holder orother authorized party saying it may be distributed under the terms ofthis Lesser General Public License (also called "this License").Each licensee is addressed as "you".A "library" means a collection of software functions and/or dataprepared so as to be conveniently linked with application programs(which use some of those functions and data) to form executables.The "Library", below, refers to any such software library or work |

|---|---|---|
| | | which has been distributed under these terms. A "work based on theLibrary" means either the Library or any derivative work undercopyright law: that is to say, a work containing the Library or aportion of it, either verbatim or with modifications and/or translatedstraightforwardly into another language. (Hereinafter, translation isincluded without limitation in the term "modification".)"Source code" for a work means the preferred form of the work formaking modifications to it. For a library, complete source code meansall the source code for all modules it contains, plus any associatedinterface definition files, plus the scripts used to control compilationand installation of the library.Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are notcovered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act ofrunning a program using the Library is not restricted, and output fromsuch a program is covered only if its contents constitute a work basedon the Library (independent of the use of the Library in a tool forwriting it). Whether that is true depends on what the Library doesand what the program that uses the Library does.1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Library'scomplete source code as you receive it, in any medium, provided thatyou conspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy anappropriate copyright notice and disclaimer of warranty; keep intactall the notices that refer to this License and to the absence of anywarranty; and distribute a copy of this License along with theLibrary.You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy,and you may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for afee.2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Library or any portionof it, thus forming a work based on the Library, and |

|---|---|---|
| | | copy anddistribute such modifications or work under the terms of Section 1above, provided that you also meet all of these conditions:a) The modified work must itself be a software library.b) You must cause the files modified to carry prominent noticesstating that you changed the files and the date of any change.c) You must cause the whole of the work to be licensed at nocharge to all third parties under the terms of this License.d) If a facility in the modified Library refers to a function or atable of data to be supplied by an application program that usesthe facility, other than as an argument passed when the facilityis invoked, then you must make a good faith effort to ensure that,in the event an application does not supply such function ortable, the facility still operates, and performs whatever part ofits purpose remains meaningful.(For example, a function in a library to compute square roots hasa purpose that is entirely well-defined independent of theapplication. Therefore, Subsection 2d requires that anyapplication-supplied function or table used by this function mustbe optional: if the application does not supply it, the squareroot function must still compute square roots.)These requirements apply to the modified work as a whole. Ifidentifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Library,and can be reasonably considered independent and separate works inthemselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to thosesections when you distribute them as separate works. But when youdistribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work basedon the Library, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms ofthis License, whose permissions for other licensees extend to theentire whole, and thus to each and every part |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | regardless of who wroteit.Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contestyour rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is toexercise the right to control the distribution of derivative orcollective works based on the Library.In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Librarywith the Library (or with a work based on the Library) on a volume ofa storage or distribution medium does not bring the other work underthe scope of this License.3. You may opt to apply the terms of the ordinary GNU General PublicLicense instead of this License to a given copy of the Library. To dothis, you must alter all the notices that refer to this License, sothat they refer to the ordinary GNU General Public License, version 2,instead of to this License. (If a newer version than version 2 of theordinary GNU General Public License has appeared, then you can specifythat version instead if you wish.) Do not make any other change inthese notices.Once this change is made in a given copy, it is irreversible forthat copy, so the ordinary GNU General Public License applies to allsubsequent copies and derivative works made from that copy.This option is useful when you wish to copy part of the code ofthe Library into a program that is not a library.4. You may copy and distribute the Library (or a portion orderivative of it, under Section 2) in object code or executable formunder the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above provided that you accompanyit with the complete corresponding machine-readable source code, whichmust be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on amedium customarily used for software interchange.If distribution of object code is made by offering access to copyfrom a designated place, then offering equivalent access to copy the |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | source code from the same place satisfies the requirement todistribute the source code, even though third parties are notcompelled to copy the source along with the object code.5. A program that contains no derivative of any portion of theLibrary, but is designed to work with the Library by being compiled orlinked with it, is called a "work that uses the Library". Such awork, in isolation, is not a derivative work of the Library, andtherefore falls outside the scope of this License.However, linking a "work that uses the Library" with the Librarycreates an executable that is a derivative of the Library (because itcontains portions of the Library), rather than a "work that uses thelibrary". The executable is therefore covered by this License.Section 6 states terms for distribution of such executables.When a "work that uses the Library" uses material from a header filethat is part of the Library, the object code for the work may be aderivative work of the Library even though the source code is not.Whether this is true is especially significant if the work can belinked without the Library, or if the work is itself a library. Thethreshold for this to be true is not precisely defined by law.If such an object file uses only numerical parameters, datastructure layouts and accessors, and small macros and small inlinefunctions (ten lines or less in length), then the use of the objectfile is unrestricted, regardless of whether it is legally a derivativework. (Executables containing this object code plus portions of theLibrary will still fall under Section 6.)Otherwise, if the work is a derivative of the Library, you maydistribute the object code for the work under the terms of Section 6.Any executables containing that work also fall under Section 6,whether or not they are linked directly with the Library itself. |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | 6. As an exception to the Sections above, you may also combine orlink a "work that uses the Library" with the Library to produce awork containing portions of the Library, and distribute that workunder terms of your choice, provided that the terms permitmodification of the work for the customer's own use and reverseengineering for debugging such modifications.You must give prominent notice with each copy of the work that theLibrary is used in it and that the Library and its use are covered bythis License. You must supply a copy of this License. If the workduring execution displays copyright notices, you must include thecopyright notice for the Library among them, as well as a referencedirecting the user to the copy of this License. Also, you must do oneof these things:a) Accompany the work with the complete correspondingmachine-readable source code for the Library including whateverchanges were used in the work (which must be distributed underSections 1 and 2 above); and, if the work is an executable linkedwith the Library, with the complete machine-readable "work thatuses the Library", as object code and/or source code, so that theuser can modify the Library and then relink to produce a modifiedexecutable containing the modified Library. (It is understoodthat the user who changes the contents of definitions files in theLibrary will not necessarily be able to recompile the applicationto use the modified definitions.)b) Use a suitable shared library mechanism for linking with theLibrary. A suitable mechanism is one that (1) uses at run time acopy of the library already present on the user's computer system,rather than copying library functions into the executable, and (2)will operate properly with a modified version of the library, if |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | the user installs one, as long as the modified version isinterface-compatible with the version that the work was made with.c) Accompany the work with a written offer, valid for atleast three years, to give the same user the materialsspecified in Subsection 6a, above, for a charge no morethan the cost of performing this distribution.d) If distribution of the work is made by offering access to copyfrom a designated place, offer equivalent access to copy the abovespecified materials from the same place.e) Verify that the user has already received a copy of thesematerials or that you have already sent this user a copy.For an executable, the required form of the "work that uses theLibrary" must include any data and utility programs needed forreproducing the executable from it. However, as a special exception,the materials to be distributed need not include anything that isnormally distributed (in either source or binary form) with the majorcomponents (compiler, kernel, and so on) of the operating system onwhich the executable runs, unless that component itself accompaniesthe executable.It may happen that this requirement contradicts the licenserestrictions of other proprietary libraries that do not normallyaccompany the operating system. Such a contradiction means you cannotuse both them and the Library together in an executable that youdistribute.7. You may place library facilities that are a work based on theLibrary side-by-side in a single library together with other libraryfacilities not covered by this License, and distribute such a combinedlibrary, provided that the separate distribution of the work based onthe Library and of the other library facilities is otherwise permitted, and provided that you do these two things:a) Accompany the combined library with a copy of |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | the same workbased on the Library, uncombined with any other libraryfacilities. This must be distributed under the terms of theSections above.b) Give prominent notice with the combined library of the factthat part of it is a work based on the Library, and explainingwhere to find the accompanying uncombined form of the same work.8. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, link with, or distributethe Library except as expressly provided under this License. Anyattempt otherwise to copy, modify, sublicense, link with, ordistribute the Library is void, and will automatically terminate yourrights under this License. However, parties who have received copies,or rights, from you under this License will not have their licensesterminated so long as such parties remain in full compliance.9. You are not required to accept this License, since you have notsigned it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify ordistribute the Library or its derivative works. These actions areprohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, bymodifying or distributing the Library (or any work based on theLibrary), you indicate your acceptance of this License to do so, andall its terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifyingthe Library or works based on it.10. Each time you redistribute the Library (or any work based on theLibrary), the recipient automatically receives a license from theoriginal licensor to copy, distribute, link with or modify the Librarysubject to these terms and conditions. You may not impose any furtherrestrictions on the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein.You are not responsible for enforcing compliance by third parties withthis License.11. If, as a consequence of a court judgment or |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | allegation of patentinfringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues),conditions are imposed on you (whether by court order, agreement orotherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do notexcuse you from the conditions of this License.  If you cannotdistribute so as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under thisLicense and any other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence youmay not distribute the Library at all.  For example, if a patentlicense would not permit royalty-free redistribution of the Library byall those who receive copies directly or indirectly through you, thenthe only way you could satisfy both it and this License would be torefrain entirely from distribution of the Library.If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable under anyparticular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended to apply,and the section as a whole is intended to apply in other circumstances.It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe anypatents or other property right claims or to contest validity of anysuch claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting theintegrity of the free software distribution system which isimplemented by public license practices.  Many people have madegenerous contributions to the wide range of software distributedthrough that system in reliance on consistent application of thatsystem; it is up to the author/donor to decide if he or she is willingto distribute software through any other system and a licensee cannotimpose that choice.This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed tobe a consequence of the rest of this License.  12. If the distribution and/or use of the Library is restricted incertain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, theoriginal copyright holder who places the Library under this License may add |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | an explicit geographical distribution limitation excluding those countries,so that distribution is permitted only in or among countries not thusexcluded. In such case, this License incorporates the limitation as ifwritten in the body of this License.13. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or newversions of the Lesser General Public License from time to time.Such new versions will be similar in spirit to the present version,but may differ in detail to address new problems or concerns.Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Libraryspecifies a version number of this License which applies to it and"any later version", you have the option of following the terms andconditions either of that version or of any later version published bythe Free Software Foundation. If the Library does not specify alicense version number, you may choose any version ever published bythe Free Software Foundation.14. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Library into other freeprograms whose distribution conditions are incompatible with these,write to the author to ask for permission. For software which iscopyrighted by the Free Software Foundation, write to the FreeSoftware Foundation; we sometimes make exceptions for this. Ourdecision will be guided by the two goals of preserving the free statusof all derivatives of our free software and of promoting the sharingand reuse of software generally.NO WARRANTY15.      END OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS

           How to Apply These Terms to Your New Libraries
  If you develop a new library, and you want it to be of the greatest possible use to the public, we recommend making it free software that everyone can redistribute and change.  You can do so by permitting redistribution under these terms (or, alternatively, under the terms of the ordinary General Public License).
  To apply these terms, attach the following notices to the library.  It is safest to attach them to the start of each source file to most effectively convey the exclusion of warranty; and each file should have at least the
"copyright" line and a pointer to where the full notice is found.
    <one line to give the library's name and a brief idea of what it does.>
    Copyright (C) <year>  <name of author>
    This library is free software; you can redistribute it and/or modify it under the terms of the GNU Lesser General Public
    License as published by the Free Software
Foundation; either

| | | "Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether in Source Code or otherform, that is based on (or derived from) the Program and for which theeditorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modificationsrepresent, as a whole, an original work of authorship."Modified Works" shall mean any work in Source Code or other form thatresults from an addition to, deletion from, or modification of thecontents of the Program, including, for purposes of clarity any new filein Source Code form that contains any contents of the Program. ModifiedWorks shall not include works that contain only declarations,interfaces, types, classes, structures, or files of the Program solelyin each case in order to link to, bind by name, or subclass the Programor Modified Works thereof."Distribute" means the acts of a) distributing or b) making availablein any manner that enables the transfer of a copy."Source Code" means the form of a Program preferred for makingmodifications, including but not limited to software source code,documentation source, and configuration files."Secondary License" means either the GNU General Public License,Version 2.0, or any later versions of that license, including anyexceptions or additional permissions as identified by the initialContributor.2. GRANT OF RIGHTSa) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor herebygrants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyrightlicense to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display,publicly perform, Distribute and sublicense the Contribution of suchContributor, if any, and such Derivative Works.b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor hereby |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | grants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free patentlicense under Licensed Patents to make, use, sell, offer to sell,import and otherwise transfer the Contribution of such Contributor,if any, in Source Code or other form. This patent license shallapply to the combination of the Contribution and the Program if, atthe time the Contribution is added by the Contributor, such additionof the Contribution causes such combination to be covered by theLicensed Patents. The patent license shall not apply to any othercombinations which include the Contribution. No hardware per se islicensed hereunder.c) Recipient understands that although each Contributor grants thelicenses to its Contributions set forth herein, no assurances areprovided by any Contributor that the Program does not infringe thepatent or other intellectual property rights of any other entity.Each Contributor disclaims any liability to Recipient for claimsbrought by any other entity based on infringement of intellectualproperty rights or otherwise. As a condition to exercising therights and licenses granted hereunder, each Recipient herebyassumes sole responsibility to secure any other intellectualproperty rights needed, if any. For example, if a third partypatent license is required to allow Recipient to Distribute theProgram, it is Recipient's responsibility to acquire that licensebefore distributing the Program.d) Each Contributor represents that to its knowledge it hassufficient copyright rights in its Contribution, if any, to grantthe copyright license set forth in this Agreement.e) Notwithstanding the terms of any Secondary License, noContributor makes additional grants to any Recipient (other than |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | those set forth in this Agreement) as a result of such Recipient'sreceipt of the Program under the terms of a Secondary License(if permitted under the terms of Section 3).3. REQUIREMENTS3.1 If a Contributor Distributes the Program in any form, then:a) the Program must also be made available as Source Code, inaccordance with section 3.2, and the Contributor must accompanythe Program with a statement that the Source Code for the Programis available under this Agreement, and informs Recipients how toobtain it in a reasonable manner on or through a medium customarilyused for software exchange; andb) the Contributor may Distribute the Program under a licensedifferent than this Agreement, provided that such license:i) effectively disclaims on behalf of all other Contributors allwarranties and conditions, express and implied, includingwarranties or conditions of title and non-infringement, andimplied warranties or conditions of merchantability and fitnessfor a particular purpose;ii) effectively excludes on behalf of all other Contributors allliability for damages, including direct, indirect, special,incidental and consequential damages, such as lost profits;iii) does not attempt to limit or alter the recipients' rightsin the Source Code under section 3.2; andiv) requires any subsequent distribution of the Program by anyparty to be under a license that satisfies the requirementsof this section 3.3.2 When the Program is Distributed as Source Code: |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | a) it must be made available under this Agreement, or if theProgram (i) is combined with other material in a separate file orfiles made available under a Secondary License, and (ii) the initialContributor attached to the Source Code the notice described inExhibit A of this Agreement, then the Program may be made availableunder the terms of such Secondary Licenses, andb) a copy of this Agreement must be included with each copy ofthe Program.3.3 Contributors may not remove or alter any copyright, patent,trademark, attribution notices, disclaimers of warranty, or limitationsof liability ("notices") contained within the Program from any copy ofthe Program which they Distribute, provided that Contributors may addtheir own appropriate notices.4. COMMERCIAL DISTRIBUTIONCommercial distributors of software may accept certain responsibilitieswith respect to end users, business partners and the like. While thislicense is intended to facilitate the commercial use of the Program,the Contributor who includes the Program in a commercial productoffering should do so in a manner which does not create potentialliability for other Contributors. Therefore, if a Contributor includesthe Program in a commercial product offering, such Contributor("Commercial Contributor") hereby agrees to defend and indemnify everyother Contributor ("Indemnified Contributor") against any losses,damages and costs (collectively "Losses") arising from claims, lawsuitsand other legal actions brought by a third party against the IndemnifiedContributor to the extent caused by the acts or omissions of suchCommercial Contributor in connection with its distribution of the Programin a commercial product offering. The obligations in this section do not |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | apply to any claims or Losses relating to any actual or allegedintellectual property infringement. In order to qualify, an IndemnifiedContributor must: a) promptly notify the Commercial Contributor inwriting of such claim, and b) allow the Commercial Contributor to control,and cooperate with the Commercial Contributor in, the defense and anyrelated settlement negotiations. The Indemnified Contributor mayparticipate in any such claim at its own expense.For example, a Contributor might include the Program in a commercialproduct offering, Product X. That Contributor is then a CommercialContributor. If that Commercial Contributor then makes performanceclaims, or offers warranties related to Product X, those performanceclaims and warranties are such Commercial Contributor's responsibilityalone. Under this section, the Commercial Contributor would have todefend claims against the other Contributors related to those performanceclaims and warranties, and if a court requires any other Contributor topay any damages as a result, the Commercial Contributor must paythose damages.5. NO WARRANTYEXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENTPERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE PROGRAM IS PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS"BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS ORIMPLIED INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OFTITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULARPURPOSE. Each Recipient is solely responsible for determining theappropriateness of using and distributing the Program and assumes allrisks associated with its exercise of rights under this Agreement,including but not limited to the risks and costs of program errors,compliance with applicable laws, damage to or loss of data, programs |

DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITYEXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NEITHER RECIPIENT NOR ANY CONTRIBUTORS SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LOST PROFITS), HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THE USE OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM OR THE EXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS GRANTED HEREUNDER, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.7. GENERALIf any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, it shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the terms of this Agreement, and without further action by the parties hereto, such provision shall be reformed to the minimum extent necessary to make such provision valid and enforceable.If Recipient institutes patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Program itself (excluding combinations of the Program with other software or hardware) infringes such Recipient's patent(s), then such Recipient's rights granted under Section 2(b) shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed.All Recipient's rights under this Agreement shall terminate if it fails to comply with any of the material terms or conditions of this Agreement and does not cure such failure in a reasonable period of time after becoming aware of such noncompliance. If all Recipient's rights under this Agreement terminate, Recipient |

The Agreement Stewardreserves the right to publish new versions (including revisions) ofthis Agreement from time to time. No one other than the AgreementSteward has the right to modify this Agreement. The Eclipse Foundationis the initial Agreement Steward. The Eclipse Foundation may assign theresponsibility to serve as the Agreement Steward to a suitable separateentity. Each new version of the Agreement will be given a distinguishingversion number. The Program (including Contributions) may always beDistributed subject to the version of the Agreement under which it wasreceived. In addition, after a new version of the Agreement is published,Contributor may elect to Distribute the Program (including itsContributions) under the new version.Except as expressly stated in Sections 2(a) and 2(b) above, Recipientreceives no rights or licenses to the intellectual property of anyContributor under this Agreement, whether expressly, by implication,estoppel or otherwise. For the purposesof this License, Derivative Works shall not include works that remainseparable from, or merely link (or bind by name) to the interfaces of,the Work and Derivative Works thereof."Contribution" shall mean any work of authorship, includingthe original version of the Work and any modifications or additionsto that Work or Derivative Works thereof, that is intentionallysubmitted to Licensor for inclusion in the Work by the copyright owneror by an individual or Legal Entity authorized to submit on behalf ofthe copyright owner. Grant of Copyright License. Subject to the terms and conditions ofthis License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual,worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocablecopyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of,publicly display, publicly perform, sublicense, and distribute theWork and such Derivative Works in Source or Object form.3. | | | the Modifications made by that particular Contributor.1.3. "Covered Software" means (a) the Original Software, or (b)Modifications, or (c) the combination of files containing OriginalSoftware with files containing Modifications, in each case includingportions thereof.1.4. "Executable" means the Covered Software in any form other thanSource Code.1.5. "Initial Developer" means the individual or entity that firstmakes Original Software available under this License.1.6. "Larger Work" means a work which combines Covered Software orportions thereof with code not governed by the terms of this License.1.7. "License" means this document.1.8. "Licensable" means having the right to grant, to the maximumextent possible, whether at the time of the initial grant orsubsequently acquired, any and all of the rights conveyed herein.1.9. "Modifications" means the Source Code and Executable form ofany of the following:A. Any file that results from an addition to, deletion from ormodification of the contents of a file containing Original Softwareor previous Modifications;B. Any new file that contains any part of the Original Software orprevious Modification; orC. Any new file that is contributed or otherwise made availableunder the terms of this License.1.10. "Original Software" means the Source Code and Executable formof computer software code that is originally released under this |

| | | License.1.11. "Patent Claims" means any patent claim(s), now owned orhereafter acquired, including without limitation, method, process,and apparatus claims, in any patent Licensable by grantor.1.12. "Source Code" means (a) the common form of computer softwarecode in which modifications are made and (b) associateddocumentation included in or with such code.1.13. "You" (or "Your") means an individual or a legal entityexercising rights under, and complying with all of the terms of,this License. For legal entities, "You" includes any entity whichcontrols, is controlled by, or is under common control with You. Forpurposes of this definition, "control" means (a) the power, director indirect, to cause the direction or management of such entity,whether by contract or otherwise, or (b) ownership of more thanfifty percent (50%) of the outstanding shares or beneficialownership of such entity.2. Required Notices.You must include a notice in each of Your Modifications thatidentifies You as the Contributor of the Modification. You may notremove or alter any copyright, patent or trademark notices containedwithin the Covered Software, or any notices of licensing or anydescriptive text giving attribution to any Contributor or theInitial Developer.3.4. Application of Additional Terms.You may not offer or impose any terms on any Covered Software inSource Code form that alters or restricts the applicable version ofthis License or the recipients' rights hereunder. You may choose tooffer, and to charge a fee for, warranty, support, indemnity orliability obligations to one or more recipients of Covered Software.However, you may do so only on Your own behalf, and not on behalf ofthe Initial Developer or any Contributor. You hereby agree to indemnify the Initial Developer andevery Contributor for any liability incurred by the InitialDeveloper or such Contributor as a result of any such terms You offer.3.6. Larger Works.You may create a Larger Work by combining Covered Software withother code not governed by the terms of this License and distributethe Larger Work as a single product. In such a case, You must makesure the requirements of this License are fulfilled for the CoveredSoftware.4. Versions of the License.4.1. New Versions.Oracle is the initial license steward and may publish revised and/ornew versions of this License from time to time. Effect of New Versions.You may always continue to use, distribute or otherwise make theCovered Software available under the terms of the version of theLicense under which You originally received the Covered Software. Ifthe Initial Developer includes a notice in the Original Softwareprohibiting it from being distributed or otherwise |

Otherwise, You may also choose to use, distribute orotherwise make the Covered Software available under the terms of anysubsequent version of the License published by the license steward.4.3. Modified Versions.When You are an Initial Developer and You want to create a newlicense for Your Original Software, You may create and use amodified version of this License if You: (a) rename the license andremove any references to the name of the license steward (except tonote that the license differs from this License); and (b) otherwisemake it clear that the license contains terms which differ from thisLicense.5. By contrast, the GNU General Public License isintended to guarantee your freedom to share and change free software--tomake sure the software is free for all its users. This General PublicLicense applies to most of the Free Software |

|---|---|---|
| | | Foundation's software andto any other program whose authors commit to using it. (Some other FreeSoftware Foundation software is covered by the GNU Library GeneralPublic License instead.) You can apply it to your programs, too.When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom, not price.Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that you have thefreedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge for thisservice if you wish), that you receive source code or can get it if youwant it, that you can change the software or use pieces of it in newfree programs; and that you know you can do these things.To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbid anyoneto deny you these rights or to ask you to surrender the rights. Theserestrictions translate to certain responsibilities for you if youdistribute copies of the software, or if you modify it.For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whether gratisor for a fee, you must give the recipients all the rights that you have.You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get the source code.And you must show them these terms so they know their rights.We protect your rights with two steps: (1) copyright the software, and(2) offer you this license which gives you legal permission to copy,distribute and/or modify the software.Also, for each author's protection and ours, we want to make certainthat everyone understands that there is no warranty for this freesoftware. If the software is modified by someone else and passed on, wewant its recipients to know that what they have is not the original, sothat any problems introduced by others will not reflect on the originalauthors' reputations. |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Finally, any free program is threatened constantly by software patents.We wish to avoid the danger that redistributors of a free program willindividually obtain patent licenses, in effect making the programproprietary. To prevent this, we have made it clear that any patent mustbe licensed for everyone's free use or not licensed at all.The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution andmodification follow.TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION0. This License applies to any program or other work which contains anotice placed by the copyright holder saying it may be distributed underthe terms of this General Public License. The "Program", below, refersto any such program or work, and a "work based on the Program" meanseither the Program or any derivative work under copyright law: that isto say, a work containing the Program or a portion of it, eitherverbatim or with modifications and/or translated into another language.(Hereinafter, translation is included without limitation in the term"modification".) Each licensee is addressed as "you".Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are notcovered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act of runningthe Program is not restricted, and the output from the Program iscovered only if its contents constitute a work based on the Program(independent of having been made by running the Program). Whether thatis true depends on what the Program does.1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Program's sourcecode as you receive it, in any medium, provided that you conspicuouslyand appropriately publish on each copy an appropriate copyright noticeand disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all the notices that refer to |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | this License and to the absence of any warranty; and give any otherrecipients of the Program a copy of this License along with the Program.You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy, andyou may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee.2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Program or any portion ofit, thus forming a work based on the Program, and copy and distributesuch modifications or work under the terms of Section 1 above, providedthat you also meet all of these conditions:a) You must cause the modified files to carry prominent noticesstating that you changed the files and the date of any change.b) You must cause any work that you distribute or publish, that inwhole or in part contains or is derived from the Program or any partthereof, to be licensed as a whole at no charge to all third partiesunder the terms of this License.c) If the modified program normally reads commands interactivelywhen run, you must cause it, when started running for suchinteractive use in the most ordinary way, to print or display anannouncement including an appropriate copyright notice and a noticethat there is no warranty (or else, saying that you provide awarranty) and that users may redistribute the program under theseconditions, and telling the user how to view a copy of this License.(Exception: if the Program itself is interactive but does notnormally print such an announcement, your work based on the Programis not required to print an announcement.)These requirements apply to the modified work as a whole. Ifidentifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Program, andcan be reasonably considered independent and |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | separate works inthemselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to thosesections when you distribute them as separate works. But when youdistribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work based onthe Program, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms of thisLicense, whose permissions for other licensees extend to the entirewhole, and thus to each and every part regardless of who wrote it.Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contestyour rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is toexercise the right to control the distribution of derivative orcollective works based on the Program.In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Programwith the Program (or with a work based on the Program) on a volume of astorage or distribution medium does not bring the other work under thescope of this License.3. You may copy and distribute the Program (or a work based on it,under Section 2) in object code or executable form under the terms ofSections 1 and 2 above provided that you also do one of the following:a) Accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readablesource code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections 1and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,b) Accompany it with a written offer, valid for at least threeyears, to give any third party, for a charge no more than your costof physically performing source distribution, a completemachine-readable copy of the corresponding source code, to bedistributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a mediumcustomarily used for software interchange; or, |

|---|---|---|
| | | c) Accompany it with the information you received as to the offer todistribute corresponding source code. (This alternative is allowedonly for noncommercial distribution and only if you received theprogram in object code or executable form with such an offer, inaccord with Subsection b above.)The source code for a work means the preferred form of the work formaking modifications to it. For an executable work, complete source codemeans all the source code for all modules it contains, plus anyassociated interface definition files, plus the scripts used to controlcompilation and installation of the executable. However, as a specialexception, the source code distributed need not include anything that isnormally distributed (in either source or binary form) with the majorcomponents (compiler, kernel, and so on) of the operating system onwhich the executable runs, unless that component itself accompanies theexecutable.If distribution of executable or object code is made by offering accessto copy from a designated place, then offering equivalent access to copythe source code from the same place counts as distribution of the sourcecode, even though third parties are not compelled to copy the sourcealong with the object code.4. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, or distribute the Programexcept as expressly provided under this License. Any attempt otherwiseto copy, modify, sublicense or distribute the Program is void, and willautomatically terminate your rights under this License. However, partieswho have received copies, or rights, from you under this License willnot have their licenses terminated so long as such parties remain infull compliance.5. You are not required to accept this License, since you have not |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | signed it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify ordistribute the Program or its derivative works. These actions areprohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, bymodifying or distributing the Program (or any work based on theProgram), you indicate your acceptance of this License to do so, and allits terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifying theProgram or works based on it.6. Each time you redistribute the Program (or any work based on theProgram), the recipient automatically receives a license from theoriginal licensor to copy, distribute or modify the Program subject tothese terms and conditions. You may not impose any further restrictionson the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein. You are notresponsible for enforcing compliance by third parties to this License.7. If, as a consequence of a court judgment or allegation of patentinfringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues),conditions are imposed on you (whether by court order, agreement orotherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do notexcuse you from the conditions of this License. If you cannot distributeso as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under this License andany other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence you may notdistribute the Program at all. For example, if a patent license wouldnot permit royalty-free redistribution of the Program by all those whoreceive copies directly or indirectly through you, then the only way youcould satisfy both it and this License would be to refrain entirely fromdistribution of the Program.If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable underany particular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended toapply and the section as a whole is intended to apply |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | in othercircumstances.It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe anypatents or other property right claims or to contest validity of anysuch claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting theintegrity of the free software distribution system, which is implementedby public license practices. Many people have made generouscontributions to the wide range of software distributed through thatsystem in reliance on consistent application of that system; it is up tothe author/donor to decide if he or she is willing to distributesoftware through any other system and a licensee cannot impose that choice.This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed to bea consequence of the rest of this License.8. If the distribution and/or use of the Program is restricted incertain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, theoriginal copyright holder who places the Program under this License mayadd an explicit geographical distribution limitation excluding thosecountries, so that distribution is permitted only in or among countriesnot thus excluded. In such case, this License incorporates thelimitation as if written in the body of this License.9. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or newversions of the General Public License from time to time. Such newversions will be similar in spirit to the present version, but maydiffer in detail to address new problems or concerns.Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Programspecifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "anylater version", you have the option of following the terms andconditions either of that version or of any later version published by |

If you wish to incorporate parts of the Program into other freeprograms whose distribution conditions are different, write to theauthor to ask for permission. For software which is copyrighted by theFree Software Foundation, write to the Free Software Foundation; wesometimes make exceptions for this. Some of those programs are providedunder licenses deemed incompatible with the GPLv2 by the Free SoftwareFoundation and others. For example, the package includes programslicensed under the Apache License, Version 2.0. Such programs arelicensed to you under their original licenses.Oracle facilitates your further distribution of this package by addingthe Classpath Exception to the necessary parts of its GPLv2 code, whichpermits you to use that code in combination with other independentmodules not licensed under the GPLv2. However, note that this wouldnot permit you to commingle code under an incompatible license withOracle's GPLv2 licensed code by, for example, cutting and pasting suchcode into a file also containing Oracle's GPLv2 licensed code and thendistributing the result. Additionally, if you were to remove theClasspath Exception from any of the files to which it applies anddistribute the result, you would likely be required to license some orall of the other code in that distribution under the GPLv2 as well, andsince the GPLv2 is incompatible with the license terms of some itemsincluded in the distribution by Oracle, removing the ClasspathException could therefore effectively compromise your ability tofurther distribute the package.Proceed with caution and we recommend that you obtain the advice of alawyer skilled in open source matters before removing the ClasspathException or making modifications to this package which maysubsequently be redistributed and/or involve the use of |

|---|---|---|
| | | and ii) additions to the Program; where such changes and/or additions to the Program originate from and are Distributed by that particular Contributor. A Contribution "originates" from a Contributor if it was added to the Program by such Contributor itself or anyone acting on such Contributor's behalf. Contributions do not include changes or additions to the Program that are not Modified Works. "Contributor" means any person or entity that Distributes the Program. "Licensed Patents" mean patent claims licensable by a Contributor which are necessarily infringed by the use or sale of its Contribution alone or when combined with the Program. "Program" means the Contributions Distributed in accordance with this Agreement. "Recipient" means anyone who receives the Program under this Agreement or any Secondary License (as applicable), including Contributors. "Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether in Source Code or other form, that is based on (or derived from) the Program and for which the editorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modifications represent, as a whole, an original work of authorship. "Modified Works" shall mean any work in Source Code or other form that results from an addition to, deletion from, or modification of the contents of the Program, including, for purposes of clarity any new file in Source Code form that contains any contents of the Program. Modified Works shall not include works that contain only declarations, interfaces, types, classes, structures, or files of the Program solely in each case in order to link to, bind by name, or subclass the Program or Modified Works thereof. "Distribute" means the acts of a) distributing or b) making available in any manner that enables the transfer of a copy. "Source Code" means the form of a Program preferred for making modifications, including but not limited to software source code, documentation source, and configuration files. "Secondary License" means either the GNU General Public License, Version 2.0, or any later versions of that license, including any exceptions or additional permissions as identified by the initial Contributor. 2. GRANT OF RIGHTS a) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor hereby grants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display, publicly perform, Distribute and sublicense the Contribution of such Contributor, if any, and such Derivative Works. b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor hereby grants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free patent license under Licensed Patents to make, use, sell, offer to sell, import and otherwise transfer the Contribution of such Contributor, if any, in Source Code or other form. This patent license shall apply to the combination of the Contribution and the Program if, at the time the |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Contribution is added by the Contributor, such addition of the Contribution causes such combination to be covered by the Licensed Patents. The patent license shall not apply to any other combinations which include the Contribution. No hardware per se is licensed hereunder. c) Recipient understands that although each Contributor grants the licenses to its Contributions set forth herein, no assurances are provided by any Contributor that the Program does not infringe the patent or other intellectual property rights of any other entity. Each Contributor disclaims any liability to Recipient for claims brought by any other entity based on infringement of intellectual property rights or otherwise. As a condition to exercising the rights and licenses granted hereunder, each Recipient hereby assumes sole responsibility to secure any other intellectual property rights needed, if any. For example, if a third party patent license is required to allow Recipient to Distribute the Program, it is Recipient's responsibility to acquire that license before distributing the Program. d) Each Contributor represents that to its knowledge it has sufficient copyright rights in its Contribution, if any, to grant the copyright license set forth in this Agreement. e) Notwithstanding the terms of any Secondary License, no Contributor makes additional grants to any Recipient (other than those set forth in this Agreement) as a result of such Recipient's receipt of the Program under the terms of a Secondary License (if permitted under the terms of Section 3). 3. REQUIREMENTS 3.1 If a Contributor Distributes the Program in any form, then: a) the Program must also be made available as Source Code, in accordance with section 3.2, and the Contributor must accompany the Program with a statement that the Source Code for the Program is available under this Agreement, and informs Recipients how to obtain it in a reasonable manner on or through a medium customarily used for software exchange; and b) the Contributor may Distribute the Program under a license different than this Agreement, provided that such license: i) effectively disclaims on behalf of all other Contributors all warranties and conditions, express and implied, including warranties or conditions of title and non-infringement, and implied warranties or conditions of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose; ii) effectively excludes on behalf of all other Contributors all liability for damages, including direct, indirect, special, incidental and consequential damages, such as lost profits; iii) does not attempt to limit or alter the recipients' rights in the Source Code under section 3.2; and iv) requires any subsequent distribution of the Program by any party to be under a license that satisfies the requirements of this section 3. 3.2 When the Program is Distributed as Source Code: a) it must be made available under this Agreement, or if the Program (i) is combined with other material in a |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | separate file or files made available under a Secondary License, and (ii) the initial Contributor attached to the Source Code the notice described in Exhibit A of this Agreement, then the Program may be made available under the terms of such Secondary Licenses, and b) a copy of this Agreement must be included with each copy of the Program. 3.3 Contributors may not remove or alter any copyright, patent, trademark, attribution notices, disclaimers of warranty, or limitations of liability ("notices") contained within the Program from any copy of the Program which they Distribute, provided that Contributors may add their own appropriate notices. 4. COMMERCIAL DISTRIBUTION Commercial distributors of software may accept certain responsibilities with respect to end users, business partners and the like. While this license is intended to facilitate the commercial use of the Program, the Contributor who includes the Program in a commercial product offering should do so in a manner which does not create potential liability for other Contributors. Therefore, if a Contributor includes the Program in a commercial product offering, such Contributor ("Commercial Contributor") hereby agrees to defend and indemnify every other Contributor ("Indemnified Contributor") against any losses, damages and costs (collectively "Losses") arising from claims, lawsuits and other legal actions brought by a third party against the Indemnified Contributor to the extent caused by the acts or omissions of such Commercial Contributor in connection with its distribution of the Program in a commercial product offering. The obligations in this section do not apply to any claims or Losses relating to any actual or alleged intellectual property infringement. In order to qualify, an Indemnified Contributor must: a) promptly notify the Commercial Contributor in writing of such claim, and b) allow the Commercial Contributor to control, and cooperate with the Commercial Contributor in, the defense and any related settlement negotiations. The Indemnified Contributor may participate in any such claim at its own expense. For example, a Contributor might include the Program in a commercial product offering, Product X. That Contributor is then a Commercial Contributor. If that Commercial Contributor then makes performance claims, or offers warranties related to Product X, those performance claims and warranties are such Commercial Contributor's responsibility alone. Under this section, the Commercial Contributor would have to defend claims against the other Contributors related to those performance claims and warranties, and if a court requires any other Contributor to pay any damages as a result, the Commercial Contributor must pay those damages. 5. NO WARRANTY EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE PROGRAM IS PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. Each Recipient is solely responsible for determining the appropriateness of using and distributing the Program and assumes all risks associated with its exercise of rights under this Agreement, including but not limited to the risks and costs of program errors, compliance with applicable laws, damage to or loss of data, programs or equipment, and unavailability or interruption of operations. 6. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NEITHER RECIPIENT NOR ANY CONTRIBUTORS SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LOST PROFITS), HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THE USE OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM OR THE EXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS GRANTED HEREUNDER, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. 7. GENERAL If any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, it shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the terms of this Agreement, and without further action by the parties hereto, such provision shall be reformed to the minimum extent necessary to make such provision valid and enforceable. If Recipient institutes patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Program itself (excluding combinations of the Program with other software or hardware) infringes such Recipient's patent(s), then such Recipient's rights granted under Section 2(b) shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed. All Recipient's rights under this Agreement shall terminate if it fails to comply with any of the material terms or conditions of this Agreement and does not cure such failure in a reasonable period of time after becoming aware of such noncompliance. If all Recipient's rights under this Agreement terminate, Recipient agrees to cease use and distribution of the Program as soon as reasonably practicable. However, Recipient's obligations under this Agreement and any licenses granted by Recipient relating to the Program shall continue and survive. Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute copies of this Agreement, but in order to avoid inconsistency the Agreement is copyrighted and may only be modified in |

| | | the following manner. The Agreement Steward reserves the right to publish new versions (including revisions) of this Agreement from time to time. No one other than the Agreement Steward has the right to modify this Agreement. The Eclipse Foundation is the initial Agreement Steward. The Eclipse Foundation may assign the responsibility to serve as the Agreement Steward to a suitable separate entity. Each new version of the Agreement will be given a distinguishing version number. The Program (including Contributions) may always be Distributed subject to the version of the Agreement under which it was received. In addition, after a new version of the Agreement is published, Contributor may elect to Distribute the Program (including its Contributions) under the new version. Except as expressly stated in Sections 2(a) and 2(b) above, Recipient receives no rights or licenses to the intellectual property of any Contributor under this Agreement, whether expressly, by implication, estoppel or otherwise. All rights in the Program not expressly granted under this Agreement are reserved. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to be enforceable by any entity that is not a Contributor or Recipient. No third-party beneficiary rights are created under this Agreement. Exhibit A - Form of Secondary Licenses Notice "This Source Code may also be made available under the following Secondary Licenses when the conditions for such availability set forth in the Eclipse Public License, v. 2.0 are satisfied: {name license(s), version(s), and exceptions or additional permissions here}." Simply including a copy of this Agreement, including this Exhibit A is not sufficient to license the Source Code under Secondary Licenses. If it is not possible or desirable to put the notice in a particular file, then You may include the notice in a location (such as a LICENSE file in a relevant directory) where a recipient would be likely to look for such a notice. You may add additional accurate notices of copyright ownership. --- ## The GNU General Public License (GPL) Version 2, June 1991 Copyright (C) 1989, 1991 Free Software Foundation, Inc. 51 Franklin Street, Fifth Floor Boston, MA 02110-1335 USA Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute verbatim copies of this license document, but changing it is not allowed. Preamble The licenses for most software are designed to take away your freedom to share and change it. By contrast, the GNU General Public License is intended to guarantee your freedom to share and change free software--to make sure the software is free for all its users. This General Public License applies to most of the Free Software Foundation's software and to any other program whose authors commit to using it. (Some other Free Software Foundation software is covered by the GNU Library General Public License instead.) You can apply it to your programs, too. When we speak of free software, |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | we are referring to freedom, not price. Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that you have the freedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge for this service if you wish), that you receive source code or can get it if you want it, that you can change the software or use pieces of it in new free programs; and that you know you can do these things. To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbid anyone to deny you these rights or to ask you to surrender the rights. These restrictions translate to certain responsibilities for you if you distribute copies of the software, or if you modify it. For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whether gratis or for a fee, you must give the recipients all the rights that you have. You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get the source code. And you must show them these terms so they know their rights. We protect your rights with two steps: (1) copyright the software, and (2) offer you this license which gives you legal permission to copy, distribute and/or modify the software. Also, for each author's protection and ours, we want to make certain that everyone understands that there is no warranty for this free software. If the software is modified by someone else and passed on, we want its recipients to know that what they have is not the original, so that any problems introduced by others will not reflect on the original authors' reputations. Finally, any free program is threatened constantly by software patents. We wish to avoid the danger that redistributors of a free program will individually obtain patent licenses, in effect making the program proprietary. To prevent this, we have made it clear that any patent must be licensed for everyone's free use or not licensed at all. The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution and modification follow. TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION 0. This License applies to any program or other work which contains a notice placed by the copyright holder saying it may be distributed under the terms of this General Public License. The "Program", below, refers to any such program or work, and a "work based on the Program" means either the Program or any derivative work under copyright law: that is to say, a work containing the Program or a portion of it, either verbatim or with modifications and/or translated into another language. (Hereinafter, translation is included without limitation in the term "modification".) Each licensee is addressed as "you". Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are not covered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act of running the Program is not restricted, and the output from the Program is covered only if its contents constitute a work based on the Program (independent of having been made by running the Program). Whether that is true depends on what the Program does. 1. You may copy and |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | distribute verbatim copies of the Program's source code as you receive it, in any medium, provided that you conspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy an appropriate copyright notice and disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all the notices that refer to this License and to the absence of any warranty; and give any other recipients of the Program a copy of this License along with the Program. You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy, and you may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee. 2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Program or any portion of it, thus forming a work based on the Program, and copy and distribute such modifications or work under the terms of Section 1 above, provided that you also meet all of these conditions: a) You must cause the modified files to carry prominent notices stating that you changed the files and the date of any change. b) You must cause any work that you distribute or publish, that in whole or in part contains or is derived from the Program or any part thereof, to be licensed as a whole at no charge to all third parties under the terms of this License. c) If the modified program normally reads commands interactively when run, you must cause it, when started running for such interactive use in the most ordinary way, to print or display an announcement including an appropriate copyright notice and a notice that there is no warranty (or else, saying that you provide a warranty) and that users may redistribute the program under these conditions, and telling the user how to view a copy of this License. (Exception: if the Program itself is interactive but does not normally print such an announcement, your work based on the Program is not required to print an announcement.) These requirements apply to the modified work as a whole. If identifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Program, and can be reasonably considered independent and separate works in themselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to those sections when you distribute them as separate works. But when you distribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work based on the Program, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms of this License, whose permissions for other licensees extend to the entire whole, and thus to each and every part regardless of who wrote it. Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contest your rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is to exercise the right to control the distribution of derivative or collective works based on the Program. In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Program with the Program (or with a work based on the Program) on a volume of a storage or distribution medium does not bring the other work under the scope of this License. 3. You may copy and distribute the Program (or a work based on it, under |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Section 2) in object code or executable form under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above provided that you also do one of the following: a) Accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readable source code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or, b) Accompany it with a written offer, valid for at least three years, to give any third party, for a charge no more than your cost of physically performing source distribution, a complete machine-readable copy of the corresponding source code, to be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or, c) Accompany it with the information you received as to the offer to distribute corresponding source code. (This alternative is allowed only for noncommercial distribution and only if you received the program in object code or executable form with such an offer, in accord with Subsection b above.) The source code for a work means the preferred form of the work for making modifications to it. For an executable work, complete source code means all the source code for all modules it contains, plus any associated interface definition files, plus the scripts used to control compilation and installation of the executable. However, as a special exception, the source code distributed need not include anything that is normally distributed (in either source or binary form) with the major components (compiler, kernel, and so on) of the operating system on which the executable runs, unless that component itself accompanies the executable. If distribution of executable or object code is made by offering access to copy from a designated place, then offering equivalent access to copy the source code from the same place counts as distribution of the source code, even though third parties are not compelled to copy the source along with the object code. 4. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, or distribute the Program except as expressly provided under this License. Any attempt otherwise to copy, modify, sublicense or distribute the Program is void, and will automatically terminate your rights under this License. However, parties who have received copies, or rights, from you under this License will not have their licenses terminated so long as such parties remain in full compliance. 5. You are not required to accept this License, since you have not signed it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify or distribute the Program or its derivative works. These actions are prohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, by modifying or distributing the Program (or any work based on the Program), you indicate your acceptance of this License to do so, and all its terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifying the Program or works based on it. 6. Each time you redistribute the Program (or any |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | work based on the Program), the recipient automatically receives a license from the original licensor to copy, distribute or modify the Program subject to these terms and conditions. You may not impose any further restrictions on the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein. You are not responsible for enforcing compliance by third parties to this License. 7. If, as a consequence of a court judgment or allegation of patent infringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues), conditions are imposed on you (whether by court order, agreement or otherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do not excuse you from the conditions of this License. If you cannot distribute so as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under this License and any other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence you may not distribute the Program at all. For example, if a patent license would not permit royalty-free redistribution of the Program by all those who receive copies directly or indirectly through you, then the only way you could satisfy both it and this License would be to refrain entirely from distribution of the Program. If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable under any particular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended to apply and the section as a whole is intended to apply in other circumstances. It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe any patents or other property right claims or to contest validity of any such claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting the integrity of the free software distribution system, which is implemented by public license practices. Many people have made generous contributions to the wide range of software distributed through that system in reliance on consistent application of that system; it is up to the author/donor to decide if he or she is willing to distribute software through any other system and a licensee cannot impose that choice. This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed to be a consequence of the rest of this License. 8. If the distribution and/or use of the Program is restricted in certain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, the original copyright holder who places the Program under this License may add an explicit geographical distribution limitation excluding those countries, so that distribution is permitted only in or among countries not thus excluded. In such case, this License incorporates the limitation as if written in the body of this License. 9. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or new versions of the General Public License from time to time. Such new versions will be similar in spirit to the present version, but may differ in detail to address new problems or concerns. Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Program specifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "any |

|---|---|---|
| | | later version", you have the option of following the terms and conditions either of that version or of any later version published by the Free Software Foundation. If the Program does not specify a version number of this License, you may choose any version ever published by the Free Software Foundation. 10. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Program into other free programs whose distribution conditions are different, write to the author to ask for permission. For software which is copyrighted by the Free Software Foundation, write to the Free Software Foundation; we sometimes make exceptions for this. Our decision will be guided by the two goals of preserving the free status of all derivatives of our free software and of promoting the sharing and reuse of software generally. NO WARRANTY 11. BECAUSE THE PROGRAM IS LICENSED FREE OF CHARGE, THERE IS NO WARRANTY FOR THE PROGRAM, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. EXCEPT WHEN OTHERWISE STATED IN WRITING THE COPYRIGHT HOLDERS AND/OR OTHER PARTIES PROVIDE THE PROGRAM "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. THE ENTIRE RISK AS TO THE QUALITY AND PERFORMANCE OF THE PROGRAM IS WITH YOU. SHOULD THE PROGRAM PROVE DEFECTIVE, YOU ASSUME THE COST OF ALL NECESSARY SERVICING, REPAIR OR CORRECTION. 12. IN NO EVENT UNLESS REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW OR AGREED TO IN WRITING WILL ANY COPYRIGHT HOLDER, OR ANY OTHER PARTY WHO MAY MODIFY AND/OR REDISTRIBUTE THE PROGRAM AS PERMITTED ABOVE, BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR DAMAGES, INCLUDING ANY GENERAL, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE THE PROGRAM (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO LOSS OF DATA OR DATA BEING RENDERED INACCURATE OR LOSSES SUSTAINED BY YOU OR THIRD PARTIES OR A FAILURE OF THE PROGRAM TO OPERATE WITH ANY OTHER PROGRAMS), EVEN IF SUCH HOLDER OR OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. END OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS How to Apply These Terms to Your New Programs If you develop a new program, and you want it to be of the greatest possible use to the public, the best way to achieve this is to make it free software which everyone can redistribute and change under these terms. To do so, attach the following notices to the program. It is safest to attach them to the start of each source file to most effectively convey the exclusion of warranty; and each file should |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | have at least the "copyright" line and a pointer to where the full notice is found. One line to give the program's name and a brief idea of what it does. Copyright (C) <year> <name of author> This program is free software; you can redistribute it and/or modify it under the terms of the GNU General Public License as published by the Free Software Foundation; either version 2 of the License, or (at your option) any later version. This program is distributed in the hope that it will be useful, but WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY; without even the implied warranty of MERCHANTABILITY or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. See the GNU General Public License for more details. You should have received a copy of the GNU General Public License along with this program; if not, write to the Free Software Foundation, Inc., 51 Franklin Street, Fifth Floor, Boston, MA 02110-1335 USA Also add information on how to contact you by electronic and paper mail. If the program is interactive, make it output a short notice like this when it starts in an interactive mode: Gnomovision version 69, Copyright (C) year name of author Gnomovision comes with ABSOLUTELY NO WARRANTY; for details type `show w'. This is free software, and you are welcome to redistribute it under certain conditions; type `show c' for details. The hypothetical commands `show w' and `show c' should show the appropriate parts of the General Public License. Of course, the commands you use may be called something other than `show w' and `show c'; they could even be mouse-clicks or menu items--whatever suits your program. You should also get your employer (if you work as a programmer) or your school, if any, to sign a "copyright disclaimer" for the program, if necessary. Here is a sample; alter the names: Yoyodyne, Inc., hereby disclaims all copyright interest in the program `Gnomovision' (which makes passes at compilers) written by James Hacker. signature of Ty Coon, 1 April 1989 Ty Coon, President of Vice This General Public License does not permit incorporating your program into proprietary programs. If your program is a subroutine library, you may consider it more useful to permit linking proprietary applications with the library. If this is what you want to do, use the GNU Library General Public License instead of this License. --- ## CLASSPATH EXCEPTION Linking this library statically or dynamically with other modules is making a combined work based on this library. Thus, the terms and conditions of the GNU General Public License version 2 cover the whole combination. As a special exception, the copyright holders of this library give you permission to link this library with independent modules to produce an executable, regardless of the license terms of these independent modules, and to copy and distribute the resulting executable under terms of your choice, |

|---|---|---|
| | | provided that you also meet, for each linked independent module, the terms and conditions of the license of that module. An independent module is a module which is not derived from or based on this library. If you modify this library, you may extend this exception to your version of the library, but you are not obligated to do so. If you do not wish to do so, delete this exception statement from your version. ---------- Separator ---------- https://github.com/jakartaee/jaf-api # Notices for Jakarta Activation This content is produced and maintained by the Jakarta Activation project. * Project home: https://projects.eclipse.org/projects/ee4j.jaf ## Trademarks Jakarta Activation is a trademark of the Eclipse Foundation. ## Copyright All content is the property of the respective authors or their employers. Definitions."License" shall mean the terms and conditions for use, reproduction, and distribution as defined by Sections 1 through 9 of this document."Licensor" shall mean the copyright owner or entity authorized by the copyright owner that is granting the License."Legal Entity" shall mean the union of the acting entity and all other entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with that entity. For the purposes of this definition, "control" means (i) the power, direct or indirect, to cause the direction or management of such entity, whether by contract or otherwise, or (ii) ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of the outstanding shares, or (iii) beneficial ownership of such entity."You" (or "Your") shall mean an individual or Legal Entity exercising permissions granted by this License."Source" form shall mean the preferred form for making modifications, including but not limited to software source code, documentation source, and configuration files."Object" form shall mean any form resulting from mechanical transformation or translation of a Source form, including but not limited to compiled object code, generated documentation, and conversions to other media types."Work" shall mean the work of authorship, whether in Source or Object form, made available under the License, as indicated by a copyright notice that is included in or attached to the work (an example is provided in the Appendix below). |

|---|---|---|
| | | "Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether in Source or Object form, that is based on (or derived from) the Work and for which the editorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modifications represent, as a whole, an original work of authorship. For the purposes of this License, Derivative Works shall not include works that remain separable from, or merely link (or bind by name) to the interfaces of, the Work and Derivative Works thereof."Contribution" shall mean any work of authorship, including the original version of the Work and any modifications or additions to that Work or Derivative Works thereof, that is intentionally submitted to Licensor for inclusion in the Work by the copyright owner or by an individual or Legal Entity authorized to submit on behalf of the copyright owner. For the purposes of this definition, "submitted" means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sent to the Licensor or its representatives, including but not limited to communication on electronic mailing lists, source code control systems, and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, the Licensor for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, but excluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwise designated in writing by the copyright owner as "Not a Contribution.""Contributor" shall mean Licensor and any individual or Legal Entity on behalf of whom a Contribution has been received by Licensor and subsequently incorporated within the Work.2. Grant of Patent License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable (except as stated in this section) patent license to make, have made, use, offer to sell, sell, import, and otherwise transfer the Work, where such license applies only to those patent claims licensable by such Contributor that are necessarily infringed by their Contribution(s) alone or by combination of their Contribution(s) with the Work to which such Contribution(s) was submitted. If You institute patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Work or a Contribution incorporated within the Work constitutes direct or contributory patent infringement, then any patent licenses granted to You under this License for that Work shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed. |

Accepting Warranty or Additional Liability. While redistributing the Work or Derivative Works thereof, You may choose to offer, and charge a fee for, acceptance of support, warranty, indemnity, or other liability obligations and/or rights consistent with this License. ANY USE, REPRODUCTION OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM |

DEFINITIONS"Contribution" means:a) in the case of the initial Contributor, the initial code and documentationdistributed under this Agreement, andb) in the case of each subsequent Contributor:i) changes to the Program, andii) additions to the Program;where such changes and/or additions to the Program originate from and aredistributed by that particular Contributor. A Contribution 'originates' from aContributor if it was added to the Program by such Contributor itself or anyoneacting on such Contributor's behalf. Contributions do not include additions tothe Program which: (i) are separate modules of software distributed inconjunction with the Program under their own license agreement, and (ii) are notderivative works of the Program."Contributor" means any person or entity that distributes the Program."Licensed Patents" mean patent claims licensable by a Contributor which arenecessarily infringed by the use or sale of its Contribution alone or whencombined with the Program."Program" means the Contributions distributed in accordance with this Agreement."Recipient" means anyone who receives the Program under this Agreement,including all Contributors.2. GRANT OF RIGHTSa) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor hereby grantsRecipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyright license toreproduce, prepare derivative works of, publicly display, publicly perform,distribute and sublicense the Contribution of such |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Contributor, if any, and suchderivative works, in source code and object code form.b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, eachContributor hereby grantsRecipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-freepatent license under LicensedPatents to make, use, sell, offer to sell, import andotherwise transfer theContribution of such Contributor, if any, in source codeand object code form.This patent license shall apply to the combination ofthe Contribution and theProgram if, at the time the Contribution is added by theContributor, suchaddition of the Contribution causes such combinationto be covered by theLicensed Patents. The patent license shall not apply toany other combinationswhich include the Contribution. No hardware per se islicensed hereunder.c) Recipient understands that although eachContributor grants the licenses toits Contributions set forth herein, no assurances areprovided by anyContributor that the Program does not infringe thepatent or other intellectualproperty rights of any other entity. Each Contributordisclaims any liability toRecipient for claims brought by any other entity basedon infringement ofintellectual property rights or otherwise. As a conditionto exercising therights and licenses granted hereunder, each Recipienthereby assumes soleresponsibility to secure any other intellectual propertyrights needed, if any.For example, if a third party patent license is requiredto allow Recipient todistribute the Program, it is Recipient's responsibility toacquire that licensebefore distributing the Program.d) Each Contributor represents that to its knowledge ithas sufficient copyrightrights in its Contribution, if any, to grant the copyrightlicense set forth inthis Agreement.3. REQUIREMENTSA Contributor may choose to distribute the Program inobject code form under itsown license agreement, provided that: |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | a) it complies with the terms and conditions of this Agreement; andb) its license agreement:i) effectively disclaims on behalf of all Contributors all warranties andconditions, express and implied, including warranties or conditions of title andnon-infringement, and implied warranties or conditions of merchantability andfitness for a particular purpose;ii) effectively excludes on behalf of all Contributors all liability fordamages, including direct, indirect, special, incidental and consequentialdamages, such as lost profits;iii) states that any provisions which differ from this Agreement are offered bythat Contributor alone and not by any other party; andiv) states that source code for the Program is available from such Contributor,and informs licensees how to obtain it in a reasonable manner on or through amedium customarily used for software exchange.When the Program is made available in source code form:a) it must be made available under this Agreement; andb) a copy of this Agreement must be included with each copy of the Program.Contributors may not remove or alter any copyright notices contained within theProgram.Each Contributor must identify itself as the originator of its Contribution, ifany, in a manner that reasonably allows subsequent Recipients to identify theoriginator of the Contribution.4. COMMERCIAL DISTRIBUTIONCommercial distributors of software may accept certain responsibilities withrespect to end users, business partners and the like. While this license isintended to facilitate the commercial use of the Program, the Contributor who |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | includes the Program in a commercial product offering should do so in a mannerwhich does not create potential liability for other Contributors. Therefore, ifa Contributor includes the Program in a commercial product offering, suchContributor ("Commercial Contributor") hereby agrees to defend and indemnifyevery other Contributor ("Indemnified Contributor") against any losses, damagesand costs (collectively "Losses") arising from claims, lawsuits and other legalactions brought by a third party against the Indemnified Contributor to theextent caused by the acts or omissions of such Commercial Contributor inconnection with its distribution of the Program in a commercial productoffering. The obligations in this section do not apply to any claims or Lossesrelating to any actual or alleged intellectual property infringement. In orderto qualify, an Indemnified Contributor must: a) promptly notify the CommercialContributor in writing of such claim, and b) allow the Commercial Contributorto control, and cooperate with the Commercial Contributor in, the defense andany related settlement negotiations. The Indemnified Contributor mayparticipate in any such claim at its own expense.For example, a Contributor might include the Program in a commercial productoffering, Product X. That Contributor is then a Commercial Contributor. If thatCommercial Contributor then makes performance claims, or offers warrantiesrelated to Product X, those performance claims and warranties are suchCommercial Contributor's responsibility alone. Under this section, theCommercial Contributor would have to defend claims against the otherContributors related to those performance claims and warranties, and if a courtrequires any other Contributor to pay any damages as a result, the CommercialContributor must pay those damages.5. NO WARRANTYEXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, THE PROGRAM IS PROVIDED ON AN"AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. Each Recipient is solely responsible for determining the appropriateness of using anddistributing the Program and assumes all risks associated with its exercise ofrights under this Agreement , including but not limited to the risks and costsof program errors, compliance with applicable laws, damage to or loss of data,programs or equipment, and unavailability or interruption of operations.6. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITYEXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, NEITHER RECIPIENT NOR ANY CONTRIBUTORS SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL,SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LOSTPROFITS), HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE) ARISING IN ANY WAYOUT OF THE USE OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM OR THE EXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS GRANTED HEREUNDER, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.7. GENERALIf any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable under applicablelaw, it shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of theterms of this Agreement, and without further action by the parties hereto, suchprovision shall be reformed to the minimum extent necessary to make suchprovision valid and enforceable.If Recipient institutes patent litigation against any entity (including across-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Program itself(excluding combinations of the Program with other software or hardware)infringes such Recipient's patent(s), then such Recipient's rights granted underSection 2(b) shall terminate as of the date such |

|---|---|---|
| | | litigation is filed.All Recipient's rights under this Agreement shall terminate if it fails tocomply with any of the material terms or conditions of this Agreement and doesnot cure such failure in a reasonable period of time after becoming aware ofsuch noncompliance. If all Recipient's rights under this Agreement terminate,Recipient agrees to cease use and distribution of the Program as soon asreasonably practicable. However, Recipient's obligations under this Agreementand any licenses granted by Recipient relating to the Program shall continue andsurvive.Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute copies of this Agreement, but inorder to avoid inconsistency the Agreement is copyrighted and may only bemodified in the following manner. The Agreement Steward reserves the right topublish new versions (including revisions) of this Agreement from time to time.No one other than the Agreement Steward has the right to modify this Agreement.The Eclipse Foundation is the initial Agreement Steward. The Eclipse Foundationmay assign the responsibility to serve as the Agreement Steward to a suitableseparate entity. Each new version of the Agreement will be given adistinguishing version number. The Program (including Contributions) may alwaysbe distributed subject to the version of the Agreement under which it wasreceived. In addition, after a new version of the Agreement is published,Contributor may elect to distribute the Program (including its Contributions)under the new version. Except as expressly stated in Sections 2(a) and 2(b)above, Recipient receives no rights or licenses to the intellectual property ofany Contributor under this Agreement, whether expressly, by implication,estoppel or otherwise. | | | Agreement."Recipient" means anyone who receives the Program under this Agreementor any Secondary License (as applicable), including Contributors."Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether in Source Code or otherform, that is based on (or derived from) the Program and for which theeditorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modificationsrepresent, as a whole, an original work of authorship."Modified Works" shall mean any work in Source Code or other form thatresults from an addition to, deletion from, or modification of thecontents of the Program, including, for purposes of clarity any new filein Source Code form that contains any contents of the Program. ModifiedWorks shall not include works that contain only declarations,interfaces, types, classes, structures, or files of the Program solelyin each case in order to link to, bind by name, or subclass the Programor Modified Works thereof."Distribute" means the acts of a) distributing or b) making availablein any manner that enables the transfer of a copy."Source Code" means the form of a Program preferred for makingmodifications, including but not limited to software source code,documentation source, and configuration files."Secondary License" means either the GNU General Public License,Version 2.0, or any later versions of that license, including anyexceptions or additional permissions as identified by the initialContributor.2. GRANT OF RIGHTSa) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor herebygrants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyrightlicense to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display,publicly perform, Distribute and sublicense the Contribution of suchContributor, if any, and such Derivative Works.b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor herebygrants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free patent |

| | | license under Licensed Patents to make, use, sell, offer to sell,import and otherwise transfer the Contribution of such Contributor,if any, in Source Code or other form. This patent license shallapply to the combination of the Contribution and the Program if, atthe time the Contribution is added by the Contributor, such additionof the Contribution causes such combination to be covered by theLicensed Patents. The patent license shall not apply to any othercombinations which include the Contribution. No hardware per se islicensed hereunder.c) Recipient understands that although each Contributor grants thelicenses to its Contributions set forth herein, no assurances areprovided by any Contributor that the Program does not infringe thepatent or other intellectual property rights of any other entity.Each Contributor disclaims any liability to Recipient for claimsbrought by any other entity based on infringement of intellectualproperty rights or otherwise. As a condition to exercising therights and licenses granted hereunder, each Recipient herebyassumes sole responsibility to secure any other intellectualproperty rights needed, if any. For example, if a third partypatent license is required to allow Recipient to Distribute theProgram, it is Recipient's responsibility to acquire that licensebefore distributing the Program.d) Each Contributor represents that to its knowledge it hassufficient copyright rights in its Contribution, if any, to grantthe copyright license set forth in this Agreement.e) Notwithstanding the terms of any Secondary License, noContributor makes additional grants to any Recipient (other thanthose set forth in this Agreement) as a result of such Recipient'sreceipt of the Program under the terms of a Secondary License(if permitted under the terms of Section 3). |

|---|---|---|
| | | 3. REQUIREMENTS3.1 If a Contributor Distributes the Program in any form, then:a) the Program must also be made available as Source Code, inaccordance with section 3.2, and the Contributor must accompanythe Program with a statement that the Source Code for the Programis available under this Agreement, and informs Recipients how toobtain it in a reasonable manner on or through a medium customarilyused for software exchange; andb) the Contributor may Distribute the Program under a licensedifferent than this Agreement, provided that such license:i) effectively disclaims on behalf of all other Contributors allwarranties and conditions, express and implied, includingwarranties or conditions of title and non-infringement, andimplied warranties or conditions of merchantability and fitnessfor a particular purpose;ii) effectively excludes on behalf of all other Contributors allliability for damages, including direct, indirect, special,incidental and consequential damages, such as lost profits;iii) does not attempt to limit or alter the recipients' rightsin the Source Code under section 3.2; andiv) requires any subsequent distribution of the Program by anyparty to be under a license that satisfies the requirementsof this section 3.3.2 When the Program is Distributed as Source Code:a) it must be made available under this Agreement, or if theProgram (i) is combined with other material in a separate file orfiles made available under a Secondary License, and (ii) the initialContributor attached to the Source Code the notice described inExhibit A of this Agreement, then the Program may be made availableunder the terms of such Secondary Licenses, andb) a copy of this Agreement must be included with each copy ofthe Program. |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | 3.3 Contributors may not remove or alter any copyright, patent,trademark, attribution notices, disclaimers of warranty, or limitationsof liability ("notices") contained within the Program from any copy ofthe Program which they Distribute, provided that Contributors may addtheir own appropriate notices.4. COMMERCIAL DISTRIBUTIONCommercial distributors of software may accept certain responsibilitieswith respect to end users, business partners and the like. While thislicense is intended to facilitate the commercial use of the Program,the Contributor who includes the Program in a commercial productoffering should do so in a manner which does not create potentialliability for other Contributors. Therefore, if a Contributor includesthe Program in a commercial product offering, such Contributor("Commercial Contributor") hereby agrees to defend and indemnify everyother Contributor ("Indemnified Contributor") against any losses,damages and costs (collectively "Losses") arising from claims, lawsuitsand other legal actions brought by a third party against the IndemnifiedContributor to the extent caused by the acts or omissions of suchCommercial Contributor in connection with its distribution of the Programin a commercial product offering. The obligations in this section do notapply to any claims or Losses relating to any actual or allegedintellectual property infringement. In order to qualify, an IndemnifiedContributor must: a) promptly notify the Commercial Contributor inwriting of such claim, and b) allow the Commercial Contributor to control,and cooperate with the Commercial Contributor in, the defense and anyrelated settlement negotiations. The Indemnified Contributor mayparticipate in any such claim at its own expense.For example, a Contributor might include the Program in a commercialproduct offering, Product X. That Contributor is then a CommercialContributor. If that Commercial Contributor then makes |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | performanceclaims, or offers warranties related to Product X, those performanceclaims and warranties are such Commercial Contributor's responsibilityalone. Under this section, the Commercial Contributor would have todefend claims against the other Contributors related to those performanceclaims and warranties, and if a court requires any other Contributor topay any damages as a result, the Commercial Contributor must paythose damages.5. NO WARRANTYEXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENTPERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE PROGRAM IS PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS"BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS ORIMPLIED INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OFTITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULARPURPOSE. Each Recipient is solely responsible for determining theappropriateness of using and distributing the Program and assumes allrisks associated with its exercise of rights under this Agreement,including but not limited to the risks and costs of program errors,compliance with applicable laws, damage to or loss of data, programsor equipment, and unavailability or interruption of operations.6. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITYEXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENTPERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, NEITHER RECIPIENT NOR ANY CONTRIBUTORSSHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL,EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LOSTPROFITS), HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER INCONTRACT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE)ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THE USE OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM OR THEEXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS GRANTED HEREUNDER, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THEPOSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.7. GENERAL |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | If any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable underapplicable law, it shall not affect the validity or enforceability ofthe remainder of the terms of this Agreement, and without furtheraction by the parties hereto, such provision shall be reformed to theminimum extent necessary to make such provision valid and enforceable.If Recipient institutes patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that theProgram itself (excluding combinations of the Program with other softwareor hardware) infringes such Recipient's patent(s), then such Recipient'srights granted under Section 2(b) shall terminate as of the date suchlitigation is filed.All Recipient's rights under this Agreement shall terminate if itfails to comply with any of the material terms or conditions of thisAgreement and does not cure such failure in a reasonable period oftime after becoming aware of such noncompliance. If all Recipient'srights under this Agreement terminate, Recipient agrees to cease useand distribution of the Program as soon as reasonably practicable.However, Recipient's obligations under this Agreement and any licensesgranted by Recipient relating to the Program shall continue and survive.Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute copies of this Agreement,but in order to avoid inconsistency the Agreement is copyrighted andmay only be modified in the following manner. The Agreement Stewardreserves the right to publish new versions (including revisions) ofthis Agreement from time to time. No one other than the AgreementSteward has the right to modify this Agreement. The Eclipse Foundationis the initial Agreement Steward. The Eclipse Foundation may assign theresponsibility to serve as the Agreement Steward to a suitable separateentity. Each new version of the Agreement will be given a distinguishingversion number. The Program (including Contributions) may always be |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Distributed subject to the version of the Agreement under which it wasreceived. In addition, after a new version of the Agreement is published,Contributor may elect to Distribute the Program (including itsContributions) under the new version.Except as expressly stated in Sections 2(a) and 2(b) above, Recipientreceives no rights or licenses to the intellectual property of anyContributor under this Agreement, whether expressly, by implication,estoppel or otherwise. All rights in the Program not expressly grantedunder this Agreement are reserved. | | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | The licenses for most software are designed to take away yourfreedom to share and change it. By contrast, the GNU General PublicLicense is intended to guarantee your freedom to share and change freesoftware--to make sure the software is free for all its users. ThisGeneral Public License applies to most of the Free SoftwareFoundation's software and to any other program whose authors commit tousing it. (Some other Free Software Foundation software is covered bythe GNU Lesser General Public License instead.) You can apply it toyour programs, too.When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom, notprice. Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that youhave the freedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge forthis service if you wish), that you receive source code or can get itif you want it, that you can change the software or use pieces of itin new free programs; and that you know you can do these things.To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbidanyone to deny you these rights or to ask you to surrender the rights.These restrictions translate to certain responsibilities for you if youdistribute copies of the software, or if you modify it.For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whethergratis or for a fee, you must give the recipients all the rights thatyou have. You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get thesource code. And you must show them these terms so they know theirrights.We protect your rights with two steps: (1) copyright the software, and(2) offer you this license which gives you legal permission to copy,distribute and/or modify the software.Also, for each author's protection and ours, we want to make certainthat everyone understands that there is no warranty for this freesoftware. If the software is modified by someone else and passed on, we |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | want its recipients to know that what they have is not the original, sothat any problems introduced by others will not reflect on the originalauthors' reputations.Finally, any free program is threatened constantly by softwarepatents. We wish to avoid the danger that redistributors of a freeprogram will individually obtain patent licenses, in effect making theprogram proprietary. To prevent this, we have made it clear that anypatent must be licensed for everyone's free use or not licensed at all.The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution andmodification follow.GNU GENERAL PUBLIC LICENSETERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION0. This License applies to any program or other work which containsa notice placed by the copyright holder saying it may be distributedunder the terms of this General Public License. The "Program", below,refers to any such program or work, and a "work based on the Program"means either the Program or any derivative work under copyright law:that is to say, a work containing the Program or a portion of it,either verbatim or with modifications and/or translated into anotherlanguage. (Hereinafter, translation is included without limitation inthe term "modification".) Each licensee is addressed as "you".Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are notcovered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act ofrunning the Program is not restricted, and the output from the Programis covered only if its contents constitute a work based on theProgram (independent of having been made by running the Program).Whether that is true depends on what the Program does.1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Program'ssource code as you receive it, in any medium, provided that youconspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | an appropriatecopyright notice and disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all thenotices that refer to this License and to the absence of any warranty;and give any other recipients of the Program a copy of this Licensealong with the Program.You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy, andyou may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee.2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Program or any portionof it, thus forming a work based on the Program, and copy anddistribute such modifications or work under the terms of Section 1above, provided that you also meet all of these conditions:a) You must cause the modified files to carry prominent noticesstating that you changed the files and the date of any change.b) You must cause any work that you distribute or publish, that inwhole or in part contains or is derived from the Program or anypart thereof, to be licensed as a whole at no charge to all thirdparties under the terms of this License.c) If the modified program normally reads commands interactivelywhen run, you must cause it, when started running for suchinteractive use in the most ordinary way, to print or display anannouncement including an appropriate copyright notice and anotice that there is no warranty (or else, saying that you providea warranty) and that users may redistribute the program underthese conditions, and telling the user how to view a copy of thisLicense. (Exception: if the Program itself is interactive butdoes not normally print such an announcement, your work based onthe Program is not required to print an announcement.)These requirements apply to the modified work as a whole. Ifidentifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Program,and can be reasonably considered independent and |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | separate works inthemselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to thosesections when you distribute them as separate works. But when youdistribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work basedon the Program, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms ofthis License, whose permissions for other licensees extend to theentire whole, and thus to each and every part regardless of who wrote it.Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contestyour rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is toexercise the right to control the distribution of derivative orcollective works based on the Program.In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Programwith the Program (or with a work based on the Program) on a volume ofa storage or distribution medium does not bring the other work underthe scope of this License.3. You may copy and distribute the Program (or a work based on it,under Section 2) in object code or executable form under the terms ofSections 1 and 2 above provided that you also do one of the following:a) Accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readablesource code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,b) Accompany it with a written offer, valid for at least threeyears, to give any third party, for a charge no more than yourcost of physically performing source distribution, a completemachine-readable copy of the corresponding source code, to bedistributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a mediumcustomarily used for software interchange; or,c) Accompany it with the information you received as to the offerto distribute corresponding source code. (This alternative isallowed only for noncommercial distribution and only if you |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | received the program in object code or executable form with suchan offer, in accord with Subsection b above.)The source code for a work means the preferred form of the work formaking modifications to it. For an executable work, complete sourcecode means all the source code for all modules it contains, plus anyassociated interface definition files, plus the scripts used tocontrol compilation and installation of the executable. However, as aspecial exception, the source code distributed need not includeanything that is normally distributed (in either source or binaryform) with the major components (compiler, kernel, and so on) of theoperating system on which the executable runs, unless that componentitself accompanies the executable.If distribution of executable or object code is made by offeringaccess to copy from a designated place, then offering equivalentaccess to copy the source code from the same place counts asdistribution of the source code, even though third parties are notcompelled to copy the source along with the object code.4. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, or distribute the Programexcept as expressly provided under this License. Any attemptotherwise to copy, modify, sublicense or distribute the Program isvoid, and will automatically terminate your rights under this License.However, parties who have received copies, or rights, from you underthis License will not have their licenses terminated so long as suchparties remain in full compliance.5. You are not required to accept this License, since you have notsigned it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify ordistribute the Program or its derivative works. These actions areprohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, bymodifying or distributing the Program (or any work based on theProgram), you indicate your acceptance of this License |

|---|---|---|
| | | to do so, andall its terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifyingthe Program or works based on it.6. Each time you redistribute the Program (or any work based on theProgram), the recipient automatically receives a license from theoriginal licensor to copy, distribute or modify the Program subject tothese terms and conditions. You may not impose any furtherrestrictions on the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein.You are not responsible for enforcing compliance by third parties tothis License.7. If, as a consequence of a court judgment or allegation of patentinfringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues),conditions are imposed on you (whether by court order, agreement orotherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do notexcuse you from the conditions of this License. If you cannotdistribute so as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under thisLicense and any other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence youmay not distribute the Program at all. For example, if a patentlicense would not permit royalty-free redistribution of the Program byall those who receive copies directly or indirectly through you, thenthe only way you could satisfy both it and this License would be torefrain entirely from distribution of the Program.If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable underany particular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended toapply and the section as a whole is intended to apply in othercircumstances.It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe anypatents or other property right claims or to contest validity of anysuch claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting theintegrity of the free software distribution system, which isimplemented by public license practices. Many people |

|---|---|---|
| | | have madegenerous contributions to the wide range of software distributedthrough that system in reliance on consistent application of thatsystem; it is up to the author/donor to decide if he or she is willingto distribute software through any other system and a licensee cannotimpose that choice.This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed tobe a consequence of the rest of this License.8. If the distribution and/or use of the Program is restricted incertain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, theoriginal copyright holder who places the Program under this Licensemay add an explicit geographical distribution limitation excludingthose countries, so that distribution is permitted only in or amongcountries not thus excluded. In such case, this License incorporatesthe limitation as if written in the body of this License.9. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or new versionsof the General Public License from time to time. Such new versions willbe similar in spirit to the present version, but may differ in detail toaddress new problems or concerns.Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Programspecifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "anylater version", you have the option of following the terms and conditionseither of that version or of any later version published by the FreeSoftware Foundation. If the Program does not specify a version number ofthis License, you may choose any version ever published by the Free SoftwareFoundation.10. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Program into other freeprograms whose distribution conditions are different, write to the authorto ask for permission. For software which is copyrighted by the FreeSoftware Foundation, write to the Free Software Foundation; we sometimesmake exceptions for this. Our decision will be guided by the two goals |

|---|---|---|
| | | of preserving the free status of all derivatives of our free software andof promoting the sharing and reuse of software generally.NO WARRANTY11. BECAUSE THE PROGRAM IS LICENSED FREE OF CHARGE, THERE IS NO WARRANTYFOR THE PROGRAM, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. EXCEPT WHENOTHERWISE STATED IN WRITING THE COPYRIGHT HOLDERS AND/OR OTHER PARTIESPROVIDE THE PROGRAM "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESSEDOR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OFMERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. THE ENTIRE RISK ASTO THE QUALITY AND PERFORMANCE OF THE PROGRAM IS WITH YOU. SHOULD THEPROGRAM PROVE DEFECTIVE, YOU ASSUME THE COST OF ALL NECESSARY SERVICING,REPAIR OR CORRECTION.12. IN NO EVENT UNLESS REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW OR AGREED TO IN WRITINGWILL ANY COPYRIGHT HOLDER, OR ANY OTHER PARTY WHO MAY MODIFY AND/ORREDISTRIBUTE THE PROGRAM AS PERMITTED ABOVE, BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR DAMAGES,INCLUDING ANY GENERAL, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISINGOUT OF THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE THE PROGRAM (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITEDTO LOSS OF DATA OR DATA BEING RENDERED INACCURATE OR LOSSES SUSTAINED BYYOU OR THIRD PARTIES OR A FAILURE OF THE PROGRAM TO OPERATE WITH ANY OTHERPROGRAMS), EVEN IF SUCH HOLDER OR OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THEPOSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.END OF TERMS AND CONDITIONSHow to Apply These Terms to Your New ProgramsIf you develop a new program, and you want it to be of the greatestpossible use to the public, the best way to achieve this is to make itfree software which everyone can redistribute and change under these terms.To do so, attach the following notices to the program. It is safestto attach them to the start of each source file to most effectivelyconvey the exclusion of warranty; and each file should have at leastthe "copyright" line and a pointer to where the full notice is found. |

Of course, the commands you use maybe called something other than `show w' and `show c'; they could even bemouse-clicks or menu items--whatever suits your program.You should also get your employer (if you work as a programmer) or yourschool, if any, to sign a "copyright disclaimer" for the program, ifnecessary. | | | proprietary programs. If your program is a subroutine library, you mayconsider it more useful to permit linking proprietary applications with thelibrary. If this is what you want to do, use the GNU Lesser GeneralPublic License instead of this License.CLASSPATH EXCEPTIONLinking this library statically or dynamically with other modules ismaking a combined work based on this library. Thus, the terms andconditions of the GNU General Public License version 2 cover the wholecombination.As a special exception, the copyright holders of this library give youpermission to link this library with independent modules to produce anexecutable, regardless of the license terms of these independentmodules, and to copy and distribute the resulting executable underterms of your choice, provided that you also meet, for each linkedindependent module, the terms and conditions of the license of thatmodule. An independent module is a module which is not derived from orbased on this library. If you modify this library, you may extend thisexception to your version of the library, but you are not obligated todo so. If you do not wish to do so, delete this exception statementfrom your version.=-=-=-

For the purposes of this definition,"control" means (i) the power, direct or indirect, to cause thedirection or management of such entity, whether by contract orotherwise, or (ii) ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of theoutstanding shares, or (iii) beneficial ownership of such entity."You" (or "Your") shall mean an individual or Legal Entityexercising permissions granted by this License."Source" form shall mean the preferred form for making modifications,including but not limited to software source code, documentationsource, and configuration files."Object" form shall mean any form resulting from mechanicaltransformation or translation of a Source form, including butnot limited to compiled object code, generated documentation,and conversions to other media types."Work" shall mean the work of authorship, whether in Source orObject form, made available under the License, as indicated by acopyright notice that is included in or attached to the work(an example is provided in the Appendix below)."Derivative Works" shall mean any work, whether in Source or Objectform, that is based on (or derived from) the Work and for which theeditorial revisions, annotations, elaborations, or other modificationsrepresent, as a whole, an original work of authorship. For the purposesof this License, Derivative Works shall not include works that remainseparable from, or merely link (or bind by name) to the interfaces of,the Work and Derivative Works thereof."Contribution" shall mean any work of authorship, includingthe original version of the Work and any modifications or additionsto that Work or Derivative Works thereof, that is intentionallysubmitted to Licensor for inclusion in the Work by the copyright owneror by an individual or Legal Entity authorized to submit on behalf ofthe copyright owner. For the purposes of this |

| | | definition, "submitted"means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sentto the Licensor or its representatives, including but not limited tocommunication on electronic mailing lists, source code control systems,and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, theLicensor for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, butexcluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwisedesignated in writing by the copyright owner as "Not a Contribution.""Contributor" shall mean Licensor and any individual or Legal Entityon behalf of whom a Contribution has been received by Licensor andsubsequently incorporated within the Work.2. Grant of Copyright License. Subject to the terms and conditions ofthis License, each Contributor hereby grants to You a perpetual,worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocablecopyright license to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of,publicly display, publicly perform, sublicense, and distribute theWork and such Derivative Works in Source or Object form.3. Grant of Patent License. Redistribution. You may reproduce and distribute copies of theWork or Derivative Works thereof in any medium, with or withoutmodifications, and in Source or Object form, provided that Youmeet the following conditions:(a) You must give any other recipients of the Work orDerivative Works a copy of this License; and(b) You must cause any modified files to carry prominent noticesstating that You changed the files; and(c) You must retain, in the Source form of any Derivative Worksthat You distribute, all copyright, patent, trademark, andattribution notices from the Source form of the Work,excluding those notices that do not pertain to any part ofthe Derivative Works; and(d) If the Work includes a "NOTICE" text file as part of itsdistribution, then any Derivative Works that You distribute mustinclude a readable copy of the attribution notices containedwithin such NOTICE file, excluding those notices that do notpertain to any part of the Derivative Works, in at least oneof the following places: within a NOTICE text file distributedas part of the Derivative Works; within the Source form ordocumentation, if provided along with the Derivative Works; or,within a display generated by the Derivative Works, if andwherever such third-party notices normally appear. The contentsof the NOTICE file are for informational purposes only anddo not modify the License. You may add Your own attributionnotices within Derivative Works that You distribute, alongsideor as an addendum to the NOTICE text from the Work, providedthat such additional attribution notices cannot be |

Submission of Contributions. Unless You explicitly state otherwise,any Contribution intentionally submitted for inclusion in the Workby You to the Licensor shall be under the terms and conditions ofthis License, without any additional terms or conditions.Notwithstanding the above, nothing herein shall supersede or modifythe terms of any separate license agreement you may have executedwith Licensor regarding such Contributions.6. Trademarks. This License does not grant permission to use the tradenames, trademarks, service marks, or product names of the Licensor,except as required for reasonable and customary use in describing theorigin of the Work and reproducing the content of the NOTICE file.7. Disclaimer of Warranty. Unless required by applicable law oragreed to in writing, Licensor provides the Work (and eachContributor provides its Contributions) on an "AS IS" BASIS,WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, either express orimplied, including, without limitation, any warranties or conditionsof TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, or FITNESS FOR APARTICULAR PURPOSE. You are solely responsible for determining theappropriateness of using or redistributing the Work and assume anyrisks associated with Your exercise of permissions under this License.8. | | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | unless required by applicable law (such as deliberate and grosslynegligent acts) or agreed to in writing, shall any Contributor beliable to You for damages, including any direct, indirect, special,incidental, or consequential damages of any character arising as aresult of this License or out of the use or inability to use theWork (including but not limited to damages for loss of goodwill,work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction, or any and allother commercial damages or losses), even if such Contributorhas been advised of the possibility of such damages.9. Accepting Warranty or Additional Liability. While redistributingthe Work or Derivative Works thereof, You may choose to offer,and charge a fee for, acceptance of support, warranty, indemnity,or other liability obligations and/or rights consistent with thisLicense. However, in accepting such obligations, You may act onlyon Your own behalf and on Your sole responsibility, not on behalfof any other Contributor, and only if You agree to indemnify,defend, and hold each Contributor harmless for any liabilityincurred by, or claims asserted against, such Contributor by reasonof your accepting any such warranty or additional liability.END OF TERMS AND CONDITIONSAPPENDIX: How to apply the Apache License to your work.To apply the Apache License to your work, attach the followingboilerplate notice, with the fields enclosed by brackets "[]"replaced with your own identifying information. ModifiedWorks shall not include works that contain only declarations,interfaces, types, classes, structures, or files of the Program solelyin each case in order to link to, bind by name, or subclass the Programor Modified Works thereof."Distribute" means the acts of a) distributing or b) making availablein any manner that enables the transfer of a copy."Source Code" means the form of a Program preferred for makingmodifications, including but not limited to software source code,documentation source, and configuration files."Secondary License" means either the GNU General Public License,Version 2.0, or any later versions of that license, including anyexceptions or additional permissions as identified by the initialContributor.2. GRANT OF RIGHTSa) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor herebygrants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyrightlicense to reproduce, prepare Derivative Works of, publicly display,publicly perform, Distribute and sublicense the Contribution of suchContributor, if any, and such Derivative Works.b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each Contributor herebygrants Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free patentlicense under Licensed Patents to make, use, sell, offer to sell, |

|---|---|---|
| | | import and otherwise transfer the Contribution of such Contributor,if any, in Source Code or other form. This patent license shallapply to the combination of the Contribution and the Program if, atthe time the Contribution is added by the Contributor, such additionof the Contribution causes such combination to be covered by theLicensed Patents. The patent license shall not apply to any othercombinations which include the Contribution. No hardware per se islicensed hereunder.c) Recipient understands that although each Contributor grants thelicenses to its Contributions set forth herein, no assurances areprovided by any Contributor that the Program does not infringe thepatent or other intellectual property rights of any other entity.Each Contributor disclaims any liability to Recipient for claimsbrought by any other entity based on infringement of intellectualproperty rights or otherwise. As a condition to exercising therights and licenses granted hereunder, each Recipient herebyassumes sole responsibility to secure any other intellectualproperty rights needed, if any. For example, if a third partypatent license is required to allow Recipient to Distribute theProgram, it is Recipient's responsibility to acquire that licensebefore distributing the Program.d) Each Contributor represents that to its knowledge it hassufficient copyright rights in its Contribution, if any, to grantthe copyright license set forth in this Agreement.e) Notwithstanding the terms of any Secondary License, noContributor makes additional grants to any Recipient (other thanthose set forth in this Agreement) as a result of such Recipient'sreceipt of the Program under the terms of a Secondary License(if permitted under the terms of Section 3).3. REQUIREMENTS3.1 If a Contributor Distributes the Program in any |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | form, then:a) the Program must also be made available as Source Code, inaccordance with section 3.2, and the Contributor must accompanythe Program with a statement that the Source Code for the Programis available under this Agreement, and informs Recipients how toobtain it in a reasonable manner on or through a medium customarilyused for software exchange; andb) the Contributor may Distribute the Program under a licensedifferent than this Agreement, provided that such license:i) effectively disclaims on behalf of all other Contributors allwarranties and conditions, express and implied, includingwarranties or conditions of title and non-infringement, andimplied warranties or conditions of merchantability and fitnessfor a particular purpose;ii) effectively excludes on behalf of all other Contributors allliability for damages, including direct, indirect, special,incidental and consequential damages, such as lost profits;iii) does not attempt to limit or alter the recipients' rightsin the Source Code under section 3.2; andiv) requires any subsequent distribution of the Program by anyparty to be under a license that satisfies the requirementsof this section 3.3.2 When the Program is Distributed as Source Code:a) it must be made available under this Agreement, or if theProgram (i) is combined with other material in a separate file orfiles made available under a Secondary License, and (ii) the initialContributor attached to the Source Code the notice described inExhibit A of this Agreement, then the Program may be made availableunder the terms of such Secondary Licenses, andb) a copy of this Agreement must be included with each copy ofthe Program.3.3 Contributors may not remove or alter any copyright, patent, |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | trademark, attribution notices, disclaimers of warranty, or limitationsof liability ("notices") contained within the Program from any copy ofthe Program which they Distribute, provided that Contributors may addtheir own appropriate notices.4. COMMERCIAL DISTRIBUTIONCommercial distributors of software may accept certain responsibilitieswith respect to end users, business partners and the like. While thislicense is intended to facilitate the commercial use of the Program,the Contributor who includes the Program in a commercial productoffering should do so in a manner which does not create potentialliability for other Contributors. Therefore, if a Contributor includesthe Program in a commercial product offering, such Contributor("Commercial Contributor") hereby agrees to defend and indemnify everyother Contributor ("Indemnified Contributor") against any losses,damages and costs (collectively "Losses") arising from claims, lawsuitsand other legal actions brought by a third party against the IndemnifiedContributor to the extent caused by the acts or omissions of suchCommercial Contributor in connection with its distribution of the Programin a commercial product offering. The obligations in this section do notapply to any claims or Losses relating to any actual or allegedintellectual property infringement. In order to qualify, an IndemnifiedContributor must: a) promptly notify the Commercial Contributor inwriting of such claim, and b) allow the Commercial Contributor to control,and cooperate with the Commercial Contributor in, the defense and anyrelated settlement negotiations. The Indemnified Contributor mayparticipate in any such claim at its own expense.For example, a Contributor might include the Program in a commercialproduct offering, Product X. That Contributor is then a CommercialContributor. If that Commercial Contributor then makes performanceclaims, or offers warranties related to Product X, those |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | performanceclaims and warranties are such Commercial Contributor's responsibilityalone. | | | away yourfreedom to share and change it.  By contrast, the GNU General PublicLicense is intended to guarantee your freedom to share and change freesoftware--to make sure the software is free for all its users.  ThisGeneral Public License applies to most of the Free SoftwareFoundation's software and to any other program whose authors commit tousing it.  (Some other Free Software Foundation software is covered bythe GNU Lesser General Public License instead.)  You can apply it toyour programs, too.  When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom, notprice.  Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that youhave the freedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge forthis service if you wish), that you receive source code or can get itif you want it, that you can change the software or use pieces of itin new free programs; and that you know you can do these things.  To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbidanyone to deny you these rights or to ask you to surrender the rights.These restrictions translate to certain responsibilities for you if youdistribute copies of the software, or if you modify it.  For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whethergratis or for a fee, you must give the recipients all the rights thatyou have.  You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get thesource code.  And you must show them these terms so they know theirrights.  We protect your rights with two steps: (1) copyright the software, and(2) offer you this license which gives you legal permission to copy,distribute and/or modify the software.  Also, for each author's protection and ours, we want to make certainthat everyone understands that there is no warranty for this freesoftware.  If the software is modified by someone else and passed on, wewant its recipients to know that what they have is not |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | the original, sothat any problems introduced by others will not reflect on the originalauthors' reputations.  Finally, any free program is threatened constantly by softwarepatents.  We wish to avoid the danger that redistributors of a freeprogram will individually obtain patent licenses, in effect making theprogram proprietary.  To prevent this, we have made it clear that anypatent must be licensed for everyone's free use or not licensed at all.  The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution andmodification follow.GNU GENERAL PUBLIC LICENSE  TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION  0. This License applies to any program or other work which containsa notice placed by the copyright holder saying it may be distributedunder the terms of this General Public License.  The "Program", below,refers to any such program or work, and a "work based on the Program"means either the Program or any derivative work under copyright law:that is to say, a work containing the Program or a portion of it,either verbatim or with modifications and/or translated into anotherlanguage.  (Hereinafter, translation is included without limitation inthe term "modification".)  Each licensee is addressed as "you".Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are notcovered by this License; they are outside its scope.  The act ofrunning the Program is not restricted, and the output from the Programis covered only if its contents constitute a work based on theProgram (independent of having been made by running the Program).Whether that is true depends on what the Program does.  1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Program'ssource code as you receive it, in any medium, provided that youconspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy an appropriate |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | copyright notice and disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all thenotices that refer to this License and to the absence of any warranty;and give any other recipients of the Program a copy of this Licensealong with the Program.You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy, andyou may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee.2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Program or any portionof it, thus forming a work based on the Program, and copy anddistribute such modifications or work under the terms of Section 1above, provided that you also meet all of these conditions:a) You must cause the modified files to carry prominent noticesstating that you changed the files and the date of any change.b) You must cause any work that you distribute or publish, that inwhole or in part contains or is derived from the Program or anypart thereof, to be licensed as a whole at no charge to all thirdparties under the terms of this License.c) If the modified program normally reads commands interactivelywhen run, you must cause it, when started running for suchinteractive use in the most ordinary way, to print or display anannouncement including an appropriate copyright notice and anotice that there is no warranty (or else, saying that you providea warranty) and that users may redistribute the program underthese conditions, and telling the user how to view a copy of thisLicense. (Exception: if the Program itself is interactive butdoes not normally print such an announcement, your work based onthe Program is not required to print an announcement.)These requirements apply to the modified work as a whole. Ifidentifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Program,and can be reasonably considered independent and separate works in |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | themselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to thosesections when you distribute them as separate works. But when youdistribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work basedon the Program, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms ofthis License, whose permissions for other licensees extend to theentire whole, and thus to each and every part regardless of who wrote it.Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contestyour rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is toexercise the right to control the distribution of derivative orcollective works based on the Program.In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Programwith the Program (or with a work based on the Program) on a volume ofa storage or distribution medium does not bring the other work underthe scope of this License.3. You may copy and distribute the Program (or a work based on it,under Section 2) in object code or executable form under the terms ofSections 1 and 2 above provided that you also do one of the following:a) Accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readablesource code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,b) Accompany it with a written offer, valid for at least threeyears, to give any third party, for a charge no more than yourcost of physically performing source distribution, a completemachine-readable copy of the corresponding source code, to bedistributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a mediumcustomarily used for software interchange; or,c) Accompany it with the information you received as to the offerto distribute corresponding source code. (This alternative isallowed only for noncommercial distribution and only if youreceived the program in object code or executable |

|---|---|---|
| | | form with suchan offer, in accord with Subsection b above.)The source code for a work means the preferred form of the work formaking modifications to it. For an executable work, complete sourcecode means all the source code for all modules it contains, plus anyassociated interface definition files, plus the scripts used tocontrol compilation and installation of the executable. However, as aspecial exception, the source code distributed need not includeanything that is normally distributed (in either source or binaryform) with the major components (compiler, kernel, and so on) of theoperating system on which the executable runs, unless that componentitself accompanies the executable.If distribution of executable or object code is made by offeringaccess to copy from a designated place, then offering equivalentaccess to copy the source code from the same place counts asdistribution of the source code, even though third parties are notcompelled to copy the source along with the object code.4. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, or distribute the Programexcept as expressly provided under this License. Any attemptotherwise to copy, modify, sublicense or distribute the Program isvoid, and will automatically terminate your rights under this License.However, parties who have received copies, or rights, from you underthis License will not have their licenses terminated so long as suchparties remain in full compliance.5. You are not required to accept this License, since you have notsigned it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify ordistribute the Program or its derivative works. These actions areprohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, bymodifying or distributing the Program (or any work based on theProgram), you indicate your acceptance of this License to do so, and |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | all its terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifyingthe Program or works based on it.6. Each time you redistribute the Program (or any work based on theProgram), the recipient automatically receives a license from theoriginal licensor to copy, distribute or modify the Program subject tothese terms and conditions. You may not impose any furtherrestrictions on the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein.You are not responsible for enforcing compliance by third parties tothis License.7. If, as a consequence of a court judgment or allegation of patentinfringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues),conditions are imposed on you (whether by court order, agreement orotherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do notexcuse you from the conditions of this License. If you cannotdistribute so as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under thisLicense and any other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence youmay not distribute the Program at all. For example, if a patentlicense would not permit royalty-free redistribution of the Program byall those who receive copies directly or indirectly through you, thenthe only way you could satisfy both it and this License would be torefrain entirely from distribution of the Program.If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable underany particular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended toapply and the section as a whole is intended to apply in othercircumstances.It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe anypatents or other property right claims or to contest validity of anysuch claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting theintegrity of the free software distribution system, which isimplemented by public license practices. Many people have made |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | generous contributions to the wide range of software distributedthrough that system in reliance on consistent application of thatsystem; it is up to the author/donor to decide if he or she is willingto distribute software through any other system and a licensee cannotimpose that choice.This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed tobe a consequence of the rest of this License.8. If the distribution and/or use of the Program is restricted incertain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, theoriginal copyright holder who places the Program under this Licensemay add an explicit geographical distribution limitation excludingthose countries, so that distribution is permitted only in or amongcountries not thus excluded. In such case, this License incorporatesthe limitation as if written in the body of this License.9. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or new versionsof the General Public License from time to time. Such new versions willbe similar in spirit to the present version, but may differ in detail toaddress new problems or concerns.Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Programspecifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "anylater version", you have the option of following the terms and conditionseither of that version or of any later version published by the FreeSoftware Foundation. If the Program does not specify a version number ofthis License, you may choose any version ever published by the Free SoftwareFoundation.10. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Program into other freeprograms whose distribution conditions are different, write to the authorto ask for permission. For software which is copyrighted by the FreeSoftware Foundation, write to the Free Software Foundation; we sometimesmake exceptions for this. Our decision will be guided by the two goalsof preserving the free status of all derivatives of our |

|---|---|---|
| | | worldwide, royalty-free patent license under Licensed Patents to make, use, sell, offer to sell, import and otherwise transfer the Contribution of such Contributor, if any, in source code and object code form. This patent license shall apply to the combination of the Contribution and the Program if, at the time the Contribution is added by the Contributor, such addition of the Contribution causes such combination to be covered by the Licensed Patents. The patent license shall not apply to any other combinations which include the Contribution. No hardware per se is licensed hereunder.c) Recipient understands that although each Contributor grants the licenses to its Contributions set forth herein, no assurances are provided by any Contributor that the Program does not infringe the patent or other intellectual property rights of any other entity. Each Contributor disclaims any liability to Recipient for claims brought by any other entity based on infringement of intellectual property rights or otherwise. As a condition to exercising the rights and licenses granted hereunder, each Recipient hereby assumes sole responsibility to secure any other intellectual property rights needed, if any. For example, if a third party patent license is required to allow Recipient to distribute the Program, it is Recipient's responsibility to acquire that license before distributing the Program.d) Each Contributor represents that to its knowledge it has sufficient copyright rights in its Contribution, if any, to grant the copyright license set forth in this Agreement.3. REQUIREMENTS A Contributor may choose to distribute the Program in object code form under its own license agreement, provided that:a) it complies with the terms and conditions of this Agreement; andb) its license agreement:i) effectively disclaims on behalf of all Contributors all warranties and conditions, express and implied, including warranties or conditions of title and non-infringement, and implied warranties or conditions of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose;ii) effectively excludes on behalf of all Contributors all liability for damages, including direct, indirect, special, incidental and consequential damages, such as lost profits;iii) states that any provisions which differ from this Agreement are offered by that Contributor alone and not by any other party; andiv) states that source code for the Program is available from such Contributor, and informs licensees how to obtain it in a reasonable manner on or through a medium customarily used for software exchange.When the Program is made available in source code form: a) it must be made available under this |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | Agreement; and b) a copy of this Agreement must be included with each copy of the Program. Contributors may not remove or alter any copyright notices contained within the Program. Each Contributor must identify itself as the originator of its Contribution, if any, in a manner that reasonably allows subsequent Recipients to identify the originator of the Contribution.4. COMMERCIAL DISTRIBUTION Commercial distributors of software may accept certain responsibilities with respect to end users, business partners and the like. While this license is intended to facilitate the commercial use of the Program, the Contributor who includes the Program in a commercial product offering should do so in a manner which does not create potential liability for other Contributors. Therefore, if a Contributor includes the Program in a commercial product offering, such Contributor ("Commercial Contributor") hereby agrees to defend and indemnify every other Contributor ("Indemnified Contributor") against any losses, damages and costs (collectively "Losses") arising from claims, lawsuits and other legal actions brought by a third party against the Indemnified Contributor to the extent caused by the acts or omissions of such Commercial Contributor in connection with its distribution of the Program in a commercial product offering. The obligations in this section do not apply to any claims or Losses relating to any actual or alleged intellectual property infringement. In order to qualify, an Indemnified Contributor must:a) promptly notify the Commercial Contributor in writing of such claim, andb) allow the Commercial Contributor to control, and cooperate with the Commercial Contributor in, the defense and any related settlement negotiations. The Indemnified Contributor may participate in any such claim at its own expense. For example, a Contributor might include the Program in a commercial product offering, Product X. That Contributor is then a Commercial Contributor. If that Commercial Contributor then makes performance claims, or offers warranties related to Product X, those performance claims and warranties are such Commercial Contributor's responsibility alone. Under this section, the Commercial Contributor would have to defend claims against the other Contributors related to those performance claims and warranties, and if a court requires any other Contributor to pay any damages as a result, the Commercial Contributor must pay those damages.5. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, NEITHER RECIPIENT NOR ANY CONTRIBUTORS SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LOST PROFITS), HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THE USE OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM OR THE EXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS GRANTED HEREUNDER, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.7. GENERAL If any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, it shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the terms of this Agreement, and without further action by the parties hereto, such provision shall be reformed to the minimum extent necessary to make such provision valid and enforceable. If Recipient institutes patent litigation against a Contributor with respect to a patent applicable to software (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit), then any patent licenses granted by that Contributor to such Recipient under this Agreement shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed. In addition, if Recipient institutes patent litigation against any entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that the Program itself (excluding combinations of the Program with other software or hardware) infringes such Recipient's patent(s), then such Recipient's rights granted under Section 2(b) shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed. All Recipient's rights under this Agreement shall terminate if it fails to comply with any of the material terms or conditions of this Agreement and does not cure such failure in a reasonable period of time after becoming aware of such noncompliance. If all Recipient's rights under this Agreement terminate, Recipient agrees to cease use and distribution of the Program as soon as reasonably practicable. However, Recipient's obligations under this Agreement and any licenses granted by Recipient relating to the Program shall continue and survive.Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute copies of |

| | | this Agreement, but in order to avoid inconsistency the Agreement is copyrighted and may only be modified in the following manner. The Agreement Steward reserves the right to publish new versions (including revisions) of this Agreement from time to time. No one other than the Agreement Steward has the right to modify this Agreement. IBM is the initial Agreement Steward. IBM may assign the responsibility to serve as the Agreement Steward to a suitable separate entity. Each new version of the Agreement will be given a distinguishing version number. The Program (including Contributions) may always be distributed subject to the version of the Agreement under which it was received. In addition, after a new version of the Agreement is published, Contributor may elect to distribute the Program (including its Contributions) under the new version. Except as expressly stated in Sections 2(a) and 2(b) above, Recipient receives no rights or licenses to the intellectual property of any Contributor under this Agreement, whether expressly, by implication, estoppel or otherwise. All rights in the Program not expressly granted under this Agreement are reserved. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of New York and the intellectual property laws of the United States of America. No party to this Agreement will bring a legal action under this Agreement more than one year after the cause of action arose. Each party waives its rights to a jury trial in any resulting litigation.---------separator----------== NAME OF DEPENDENCYhelidon-webserver-cors-3.1.0.jar== License TypeApache 2.0== Copyright NoticesCopyright (c) 2020, 2022 Oracle and/or its affiliates.Licensed under the Apache License, Version 2.0 (the "License");you may not use this file except in compliance with the License.You may obtain a copy of the License athttp://www.apache.org/licenses/LICENSE-2.0Unless required by applicable law or agreed to in writing, softwaredistributed under the License is distributed on an "AS IS" BASIS,WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, either express or implied.See the License for the specific language governing permissions andlimitations under the License----------== NAME OF DEPENDENCY"reactive-streams.jar"== Copyright Notices |
