Introduction

This topic describes how, through the portal, users of an Islamic bank can access account details, transfer funds, make payments, request cheque books, and perform other related actions.

Islamic Banking is a banking system that is based on the principles of Shariah (Islamic law) and guided by the Islamic economics. The Shariah laws provide guidance on each and every aspect of human life, and the laws which govern and guide financial and commercial transactions define Islamic Banking activities.

Although Islamic banking may seem similar to conventional banking, the two differ conceptually. One key difference is that in conventional banking, banks earn their money by charging interest and fees for services, whereas in Islamic banking, banks earn their money by profit and loss sharing, leasing, charging fees for services rendered, and so on.

The OBDX corporate banking modules cater to Islamic accounts as well.

A user can either have only Islamic accounts or only conventional accounts or a mix of both types of accounts. The portal caters to each case. If the customer has both conventional CASA accounts and Islamic CASA accounts under the same ID and password, he will have a consolidated view of all accounts on logging.

The current and savings accounts widget has a representation of both conventional and Islamic accounts. This is also true for enquiry and transaction screens. While initialing any transaction or payment, the user selects either an Islamic account or a conventional account, grouped under the respective labels.

The labels on the different pages / screens, for Islamic accounts, reflect the nomenclature as per and in accordance with Islamic banking requirements.
