Oracle Utilities Release Schedule

Oracle Utilities performs cloud service releases and core system maintenance throughout the year. This page lists the planned releases and core system maintenance windows that have occurred or will occur in the near future.

Oracle Utilities Opower Cloud Service Releases

Oracle Utilities Opower cloud service releases, also called maintenance packs, are typically scheduled on the third Sunday of each month between 11:00 – 15:00 Eastern US time. The schedule may be adjusted as needed for holidays or operational considerations. The platform will be offline for a brief period of time for these releases, typically less than 30 minutes. During this time, users accessing the Oracle Utilities Opower web portal or the Customer Service Interface may see a maintenance notification page. Details about each maintenance pack release can be found on My Oracle Support. Details about each major release can be found on the Oracle Cloud Release Readiness site.
