Introduction

This document contains the release information for Oracle WebCenter Content 12c (12.2.1.1.0).

Note: Oracle recommends you review its contents before installing or working with the product.

What's New

For new features and enhancements in Oracle WebCenter Content, see What's New for WebCenter Content.

Intent to Deprecate

- The Folders_g component will be deprecated in a future release.
The Folders_g component is available and supported in release 12.2.1.0 and also in release 12.2.1.1.0. However, it will be removed in a future release and customers should make plans to migrate to FrameworkFolders.
- The Kofax Capture scripts components will be deprecated in a future release.
The Kofax Capture scripts components for Kofax 10.2 are available and supported in release 12.2.1.0 and also in release 12.2.1.1.0. However, it will be removed in a future release and customers should make plans accordingly.

Known Issues

For known issues in Oracle WebCenter Application Adapters, Oracle WebCenter Content, and Oracle WebCenter Enterprise Capture, see Known Issues for Oracle WebCenter Content.

Product Documentation

For complete documentation on Oracle WebCenter Content go to <http://docs.oracle.com/en/middleware/> and select WebCenter Content.

System Requirements and Specifications

Oracle WebCenter Content installation and configuration will not complete successfully unless users meet the hardware and software pre-requisites before installation. See Oracle Fusion Middleware System Requirements and Specifications.

Java and Google Chrome Browser

Starting with version 45, Google's Chrome browser has dropped support for NPAPI, the technology required for Java applets.

Note:

When using Chrome with Java plug-in for Oracle Forms, WebCenter Content Product Line and EDQ, refer to <http://www.java.com/en/download/faq/chrome.xml>.

For information on supported browsers for accessing Java applets, refer to <http://www.oracle.com/technetwork/middleware/ias/downloads/fusion-certification-100350.html>.

Oracle WebCenter Content Certification Matrix

The certification matrix for Oracle WebCenter Content can be accessed from the Oracle Fusion Middleware Supported System Configurations page. In the table, find the .xls document for Oracle Fusion Middleware 12c Certifications.

Downloading and Applying Required Patches

After you install and configure Oracle WebCenter Content 12c (12.2.1.1.0), there might be cases where additional patches are required to address specific known issues.

Complete the following steps to obtain a patch:

1. Log into the My Oracle Support web site at <https://myoraclesupport.com/>.
2. Click the Patches & Updates tab.
3. Use the Patch Search area to locate patches.
4. On the Patch Search Results page, select a patch and click Download to download the patch.
5. Install the patch by following the instructions in the README file that is included with the patch.

Upgrading Oracle WebCenter Content

This section describes the upgrade issues and workarounds.

Upgrade restriction in unpatched PS5 version

If a customer has a PS5 instance and has not applied the patch for bug 13723409 for changing the application name and has not configured the server which reflects the changed application name, then it doesn't meet the pre-upgrade configuration and upgrade should not be tried as the CS schema will not be discovered.

The workaround to upgrade this type of PS5 instance is to configure the server correctly.

- Install the patch which contains bug 13723409 for the application name change to: Oracle Universal Content Management - Content Server.
- Verify the patch install by redeploying the CS application in the existing domain. If there was no existing CS application in the domain then the new CS application will be created with the new application name. This will ensure that the CS schema gets discovered.

Installing Oracle WebCenter Content

For more information about Oracle WebCenter Content installation and configuration, see Installing and Configuring Oracle WebCenter Content guide.

Rebranding Information

Oracle Enterprise Content Management Suite was rebranded to Oracle WebCenter Content in the Oracle Fusion Middleware 11g (11.1.1.6.0) release. Oracle WebCenter Content is part of the Oracle WebCenter product stack, to provide the most complete, open, and unified enterprise content management platform.

The software and documentation for most of the Oracle WebCenter Content products have been rebranded accordingly.
